From the Editor

Tony Palmieri

Another June! The month of graduation, of hope and excitement about the state pharmacy boards and anxiety and anticipation of the future. I want to take this opportunity to congratulate the soon to be registered pharmacists and to encourage those of you who are not yet ready to graduate to make the most of your summer however you choose to spend it. Remember too the fact that we are Kappa Psi for life, not just as undergrads. Please send the Central Office a change of address notice whenever you need to so that you will keep receiving the MASK.

I also want to share the joy and excitement that I recently had at the seventy-fifth anniversary of the Beta Epsilon Chapter at Rhode Island. It was indeed a pleasure to take part in the celebration of the chapter of my initiation. As always, your comments and articles for the MASK are solicited and expected.

From the Grand Regent

A Reflection on Graduation

Graduation is a time of mixed emotions. One experiences the joy and elation of a task having been successfully completed, but there is also sadness surrounding the leaving of dear friends and pleasant familiar surroundings for what is called "the outside world." There is also the anxiety associated with taking various licensure examinations in order to practice the profession.

It is a proud moment for many people when they see the culmination of years of study rewarded with the diploma and subsequent board licensure. The administration and faculty of the College of Pharmacy see a small part of themselves going with each graduate. A debt of gratitude is owed to those dedicated men and women who have devoted their lives to teaching, service, and research in our Colleges of Pharmacy.

Another proud group consists of the families and loved-ones of the graduates. Those unseen supporters who gave their time, finances and a listening ear deserve our sincere thanks.

As each goes out to meet the challenges of the workaday world, let us not forget our brothers in Kappa Psi. May the bonds of friendship that have been formed through the years continue to grow and strengthen the order throughout the world.

As Grand Regent, may I join the numerous friends and relatives in congratulating you on this great step and wishing you the best of everything in your chosen career.

Every Member is Responsible for Creating the Image of Kappa Psi

Collegians work hard, some harder than others, to project a positive image to their community and campus. It is a prime concern during rush when we obviously put our best foot forward. Sponsorship of events and philanthropic projects also help create the image of Kappa Psi. These are vital group efforts and essential for a successful chapter.

But YOU are responsible for the image of Kappa Psi. This may seem like an overstatement or a huge burden on your shoulders, but knowing that Kappa Psi brothers are doing the same thing should lighten the load. The work is not difficult; you probably do some of it every day.

You project the image of our fraternity through your outward appearance and inner spirit. Not all of us are beauties, but we can be beautiful people. Outwardly, we should do the very best with what we have.

Inner spirit begins with attitude. Have a positive approach, confidence and a smile. These, too, can be developed through chapter programming.

What we do and say, how we dress, our interpersonal relationships and our mannerisms all reflect on our brothers and on Kappa Psi.

Perhaps you are the only Kappa Psi a friend or acquaintance knows. They judge the image of the entire fraternity by you and you alone. In a time when Greeks receive so much negative publicity, you can also help to strengthen the image of the whole Greek system.

Interview Insurance—The Time it Takes to Smile

Glenn T. Boyles, Assistant Editor

Since 1972, when the Equal Employment Opportunity Act Amendment (EEOAA) to the Civil Rights Act of 1964 was passed, employers have been required by law to identify qualified job applicants without regard to race, color, religion, sex, national origin, age or handicap. Although the EEOAA has done a lot to guarantee millions of Americans that only their work related abilities will be evaluated to determine their job suitability; it has done very little to stop the interviewers, who persist in making selection decisions based on the applicants' values, lifestyle or personal habits.

Emphasize your strong points

An experienced interviewer should be able to determine how suitable an applicant would be, by evaluating their responses to questions about their job related abilities. Understandably, any interviewer would feel much more comfortable about their decisions, if they could determine what influence the applicants' values, lifestyle and personal habits would have on their work performance.

After screening many job applicants, some interviewers discovered they can improve their chances of determining the information they would like to have, by carefully wording and positioning the questions they ask. Although the EEOAA prohibits interviewers from directly asking for the information (and also from using it as an indicator of the applicant's suitability), the law cannot stop the interviewer from providing as many opportunities as possible for the applicant to voluntarily supply it.

The following question is a good example of a carefully worded statement, and will introduce you to the “open probe” phrasing you should be on the lookout for. Following the question, there is an interpretation (what the interviewer would really like to know!), and an appropriate response.

- Question: Tell me about some of the personal problems you have experienced, that have forced you to miss time from work.
- Implied Questions: Are you married? How many children do you have? What type of arrangements do you plan to make for their care if you get this job? How serious does a problem have to be before you will take time off from work?
- Response: Tell the interviewer about a “one-time” personal problem unrelated to any of the above possibilities, such as the time you were eating in the company cafeteria, and you lost the filling from your tooth. Avoid relaying information about your car, children or spouse!

Be aware of the implied as well as the obvious

You should insure yourself against revealing unnecessary information about your values, lifestyle and personal habits by doing a little homework before the interview. Identify a series of situations you have handled exceptionally well in the past, and also the key areas of your education, experience and abilities. As you review your list of potential interview questions, make a mental note of which strong points you should emphasize in your response to each of your questions. You should also determine how you will fit what you want to say into each of your responses.

Glenn T. Boyles

Most importantly, remember to prepare for the interview. Know what you are going to say, and how you can best say it. Be aware of the implied, as well as, the obvious meaning of the information you supply to the interviewer! Remember, the EEOAA limits the information the interviewer may ask for directly, but it does nothing to deter him/her from providing as many opportunities as possible for you to divulge it voluntarily.

When you interview, pause for a few seconds before you answer the interviewer's questions and determine what the interviewer would really like to ask, but can't. You may find that the few seconds you take to think and smile before you respond, may be just enough time to realize that the interviewer is “fishing” for information unrelated to your education, experience or abilities!

Founding of Gamma Xi Chapter University of South Carolina

—see related article and pictures, p. 10.

In June of 1959, Dr. Robert L. Beamer, Chapter Founder, requested permission to charter a collegiate chapter of Kappa Psi at the University of South Carolina. His request was initially denied because it originated from a faculty member rather than a student.

Several interested students from the University attended the national American Pharmaceutical Association Meeting in the summer of 1960. These students expressed an interest to Dr. Frank Eby, Grand Secretary-Treasurer. Dr. Beamer later received a letter from Dr. Eby regarding the students' interest. Dr. Beamer then read this letter at the next pharmacy faculty meeting.

After learning of the students' interest, Dean Robert W. Morrison commissioned Dr. Beamer and Professor R.C. Stokes to organize a chapter. A party of interested students approached the Dean of Administration, Dr. William Patterson to obtain his approval. Dr.

Patterson not only approved the request, but in addition, he agreed to fund the organization of the Fraternity as well as purchase the required Ritual and paraphernalia.

In the spring of 1961, Dr. Milton Neuroth, Past Grand Regent, and brothers from the Iota Chapter from the Medical College of South Carolina (now M.U.S.C.) were asked to assist in the installation of the chapter. On May 30, 1961, the Gamma Xi Chapter was founded at U.S.C.

Province V Convention

The Province V annual convention was held in Lima, Ohio.

The first session was opened by Satrap Michael Jackson on Friday, April, 11. Jeff Bednarcik, Regent of the host chapter—Gamma Delta, welcomed all in attendance and reports of the various province officers concluded this session. Workshops dealing with apathy within the brotherhood and fundraising were held immediately after. These proved very helpful as all in attendance added their views and ideas in improving the brotherhood. Continuing education films from the college here at Ohio Northern were also available for our graduate brothers who were present.

The new Province V officers.

The night ended with a caravan to the chapter house in Ada, for a party. Barbecued ribs and plenty of refreshments were provided by the brothers of Gamma Delta. The immense feeling of brotherhood stood out as the hit of the night as brothers caught up with old friends and made new ones as well.

The second session consisted of each chapter giving a short report on their progress over the year. The workshops for this second day were extremely interesting. Ritualist Emeritus Dick Doughy explained various points that are often misunderstood or not known about our ritual. Dr. Albert Awad, professor at ONU, gave an interesting talk on biotechnologies.

The third session then followed. The resolution, auditing, and legislative committees each gave their reports and tended to any matters at hand. We then ended our final session with the election of province officers: Satrap—David Burgess (Upsilon); Vice-Satrap—Jeff Bednarcik (Gamma Delta); Sect./Treas.—Kevin Foster (Detroit Grad); Historian—Walter Miller (Upsilon); Chaplain—Paul Bovenzi (Gamma Iota). The evening ended with a buffet style banquet. Upsilon was honored as chapter of the year while Gamma Iota was the most improved chapter. We hope to see everyone again next year in Lexington.

Province III Convention

The 1986 Province III Convention was held March 14-16 in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, hosted by Gamma Xi and the South Carolina Graduate Chapter.

Chapters in attendance were Theta, Sigma, Beta Xi, Gamma Xi, South Carolina Graduate, and Virginia Graduate Chapters. We were happy to have Grand Historian-Ritualist, Johnny Porter, in attendance at our Convention. He is our new Province III Supervisor. Brother Porter brought some good news with him to the Convention: A new Chapter of Kappa Psi in our Province will be installed at Howard University on April 19th. On behalf of the Province, I would like to welcome this Chapter to Province III.

The Convention started off Friday evening with opening remarks by Vice-Satrap Mike Deweese. Delegates were seated, committee assignments were made and the meeting was adjourned.

Gamma Xi South Carolina

The '86 Spring Semester has been a successful and busy one. We set out as our major goal to make our organization more visible within the School of Pharmacy and also within the Columbia community. To begin, a newsletter containing the events and activities of Kappa Psi has been started. The first newsletter brought with it many positive comments from other students and faculty.

We have also been holding meetings at school every other week in order to allow Kappa Psi faculty members to attend and speak to us on various topics. We have had much success with this idea.

Several brothers have given their time and efforts to help clean up the yards of those who live in the neighborhood where our KY house is located. We felt this was good way to become a visible part of the community.

Gamma Xi has been busy going to area schools and presenting talks on substance abuse. The Columbia community seems very appreciative of our efforts.

Finally, we would like to thank all of those who worked so hard to make the Province III convention, hosted by Gamma Xi, so successful. A special thanks to our graduate chapter for their assistance and to those from the other chapters who attended and contributed to make the weekend in Myrtle Beach so much fun! Happy 25th Gamma Xi!

Beta Epsilon Rhode Island

Spring initiation for Beta Epsilon marked a turn around for the chapter. This initiation saw the addition of six new members; John Zevzavadjian, Doug Brown, John Ochs, Peter Ragosta, Dan Mickool, and Ken Lawrence. We expect to continue a tradition of excellence here in Rhode Island by putting our creative energies to good use.

We experienced our first taste of success last week when we hosted a drug fair at U.R.I. We were able to meet many representatives of pharmacy practice, drug Regents Tommy Johnson, John Watson, and Mark Hincer accept the Chapter of the Year award.

On Saturday morning nominations for officers were taken and discussions on fund-raising, rushing, and graduate chapter involvement were held. Beta Xi presented a workshop on the performance of the opening and closing Ritual for Chapter meetings.

In the evening a banquet was held with Johnny Porter as the guest speaker. Brother Porter spoke on the history of Kappa Psi and the changes taken place within the last 25 years. The Chapter of the Year Award was presented to three Chapters (Theta, Beta Xi, and Gamma Xi) for the first time. Following the banquet a party was held in honor of Gamma Xi Chapter's 25th Anniversary (1961-1986).

Elections were held on Sunday, March 16. The officers of Province III for 1986-1987 are:

companies, and clinicians. It was a good time for us to build rapport with our future colleagues as well as expose our classmates to "what we're all about".

We are also preparing for the Province I Kappa Psi convention which we are sponsoring in Providence, Rhode Island. We're looking forward to meeting our fellow Kappa Psi brothers of New England. This weekend will also mark our 75th anniversary with Kappa Psi, so getting together with alumni brothers and telling college stories with Kappa Psi as our mutual bond should be quite interesting.

—Dan Mickool

The past few months at Gamma Kappa have been booked solid with events beginning with the pledging, initiation, and activation of six new brothers to our chapter. With the added incentive of the Redman-Kurth Award, set up in memory of Dr. Kenneth Redman and Pat Kurth both recently deceased brothers, giving free dues for a semester to the most outstanding pledge sparked intense competition between the brothers-to-be. After the dust had settled and the dreaded oral boards were completed, Jesse Mogen was presented the award at our traditional activation dinner. The new brothers include: Jay Carsen, Paul Ebert, Neal Hansen, Jesse Mogen, Mike Schultz, and Ron Sieve.

The beginning of April sent twelve brothers and little sisters to the Beta Chi chapter of Drake University for the Provinces VIII conclave in Des Moines. A friendly thanks goes out to Beta Chi for their superb hospitality. Such meetings truly prove that fraternal brotherhood is real and that we are not only brothers to our chapter but to all those in Kappa Psi.

Also in April the Annual Pharmacy Dinner Dance and Awards Banquet was held in which several KT brothers and little sisters received scholarships or awards. Those KT members receiving scholarships were James Rasmussen, the Dr. Ted Reichmann Memorial Scholarship; Barry Uecker, the Jean Taylor Nelson Memorial and Carney Nelson Fund; Steve Lee, the Clark T. and Alice H. Eidsmore Scholarship; and Jeff Larsen, the Harry M. Lee Scholarship. Also this year a new scholarship was established in memory of brother Pat Kurth sponsored by the Ladies' Auxiliary of the S. D. Pharmaceutical Association. This award went to Christine Heil. Sue Jacobson received the Upjohn Achievement Award and Curtis Kost Jr. received the Lilly Achievement Award given to the highest ranking student in the senior class. Finally, Eric Carda received the Kappa Psi Outstanding 5th-year Award chosen by his fellow brothers. Eric's enthusiasm and spirit will truly be missed after he has graduated and only the best wishes go out to his continued success.

The Dinner Dance also provided a chance for Gamma Kappa to express its appreciation to Dean Ray Hoppenen, a KT brother, who will be retiring from his position as Dean of Pharmacy which he has diligently served for the past twenty years. Brother Hoppenen was presented with a gold plated putter with the inscription, "from the Brothers of Gamma Kappa."

In addition to being socially active this year, Gamma Kappa has been involved in various professional projects including collecting for Heart Fund Sunday in which approximately $1,400 was earned for the National Heart Association, and helping inventory a graduate brother's pharmacy. But our main project this semester is a diabetes screening to be held in a nearby city at the end of April. Our previous screening in Brookings resulted in a tremendous turnout and hopefully this one will receive the same response.

Gamma Zeta Samford

Fall '85 was a busy semester for us. Here are some of the highlights:

- participated with the Professional Relations department in welcoming new pharmacy students;
- held our annual Blood Drive in association with Red Cross;
- initiated 13 new members and saw the graduation of 6 brothers of whom we would like to wish good luck;
- and, elected new officers. They are:
Regent Bill Davis
Vice-Regent Mark Spence
Secretary Mike Cravens
Treasurer John Davis
Chaplain Scott Bishop
Sergeant at Arms Charles Hudson
Pledge Trainer Theron Spruell

Spring semester '86 has gotten off to a good start with three noteworthy events:

1. we celebrated our 51st anniversary on March 20th;
2. Gamma Zeta has gone co-ed;
3. and, we are entertaining one of the largest pledge classes in recent years with 27 neophytes actively seeking membership. For Easter, they will be holding an Easter Egg Hunt for underprivileged children. We are very proud of these people.

Gamma Zeta is well represented in school affairs this year. There is a brother on all academic committees; brothers hold three of the four offices in Student APhA; and, there is one brother serving as a Senator in the University's Student Government Association.

Several of our brothers are participating in a faculty sponsored drug abuse program. They are the guests of PTA's; special interest groups; and, schools. We have just recently received the slide presentation, "You and Your Medications," and we hope to incorporate this, not only into the drug abuse program, but to do presentations for the elderly as well.

During the weekend of February 21st, our past Regent, David Bowling, was honored by being elected Satrap of our province during the Province IV meeting in Tallahassee, Florida. We would also like to extend to Auburn University our congratulations on being named Chapter of the Year.

In closing, I would like to remind the alumni of Gamma Zeta to keep in touch. Let us know what you are doing. If you have moved, please let us know, so we can update our files. We would like to take this opportunity to invite other chapters to write as well. Our new mailing address is:

Gamma Iota Sunny-Buffalo

It's been a busy year here—a year that will remain memorable to those of us in Buffalo. We've gotten a start on regrouping our grads, pledged 31 new members, and run a very successful blood drive.

For our grads, a reunion helped increase support for getting things back together. They were, and remain, excited about the prospect of continuing such events in the future. By the time this letter is published, we will have had another such gathering, and hopefully the grad chapter can be reinstated within a year or two.

Our Fall Blood Drive turned out to be a pleasant surprise. As local hospitals have had to cancel surgeries due to lack of blood, our drive produced about 35% more pints than our usual average. Again, before publication of this letter, we will have held our Spring Drive—a drive that promises to be another star on KT's record.

Recruitment of new people went quite well this year. On January 30, we initiated 31 new members into the Agora—a bit of an improvement over last year's figure of 7. This coming fall marks the 100th anniversary of the founding of U.B.'s School of Pharmacy (Sept. 20, to be specific). We're hoping to play a role in the school's celebration, and welcome anyone who wants to stop by for the school's open house.—(For the record, Gamma Iota was chartered in 1921). We're also beginning plans for some KT sponsored events at the school's fall picnic, and we'll have a new set of officers soon.

Delta Epsilon Duquesne

The current spring semester brings a big change to our chapter, the addition of women! This year we decided to go coed. We are very pleased and excited about this new turn of events. The current pledge class consists of six: Melissa, Sue, Robyn, Amy, Kim and Lizzi. With the promised input of these six, the fall semester, 1986 will prove to be a very productive and interesting one.

We would also like to congratulate our new officers who were elected in December of 1985:

Regent	Pat O'Donnell
Vice Regent	Greg Miller
Treasurer	John Kleinfelder
Secretary	Ed Zabowski
Historian	Bill Leader
Chaplain	Mark Zielinski
Parliamentarian	John Letteri

These officers have helped to make this current semester a very special one. During this term, the brothers of our chapter have gotten together with the brothers from the Beta Kappa chapter at the University of Pittsburgh. In February, the two chapters got together for an ice skating party. Unfortunately, cold weather hurt the turnout but a few stalwart brothers from both chapters braved the freezing temperatures and had an excellent time.

Our spring formal is on April 25. We are hoping for a large turnout and a bunch of fantastic memories. We will be saying good-bye and good luck to five brothers: Bill Discavage, Hayden Greenlie, Ray Hawk, Craig Weinsweig and John Dodson. We will also be saying farewell to our five little sisters: Chris, Patti, Jana, Barb and Joyce.

Fall 1985 was an exceptional quarter for us, as we were academically the top fraternity on campus with a 2.90 (A = 4.00).

This year we have initiated nine Little Sisters of the Mask into Kappa Psi; Karla Aafedt, Kristine Amble, Alison Arness, Denise Nelson, Dorothy Pillatzke, Janelle Peterson, Stacey Thronset, Jill Tyrell and Stephanie Wagner.

Our officers for 1986 are as follows:
Regent

House Manager	Tim Klaphake
Chaplain	Paul Soderberg
Membership
Chairman	Mike Schwartzwald
Social Chairman	Steve Irsfeld

The highlight of our year has been Spring conclave for Province Eight held in Des Moines, IA. We had 12 of our 23 actives in attendance. We would like to thank the North Dakota Graduate chapter and the NDSU College of Pharmacy for their financial help that made it possible to send 12 people. We would also like to thank host Beta Chi of Drake University and especially Satrap Brian Reisseter for their efforts in preparing for the provincial meeting.

In closing, I would like to say that the men and women of Beta Sigma are very excited to be Kappa Psi, and we see wondrous things to come here in our province. As we say here in Province Eight:

Once a Kappa Psi, always a Kappa Psi,
Kappa Psi for life,
Kappa Psi forever.

Gamma Mu Northeast Louisiana

We ended the Fall semester at our annual dunk tank during Spring Fever Week at NLU. The dunk tank, accompanied with cup sales, are always our best fund raiser. Later that night, we had pledge initiation and then treated our new Brothers to a pizza party. Other functions included a Jungle-Juice party, a Champagne party, and a Founders Day party.

Even though our Chapter appreciates a good party, we know when it's time to devote ourselves to help others. When we were not working with the March of Dimes, we were working with our area high schools to put together an Alcohol Awareness Program. Our project was a high success due to the cooperation of the school officials, both college and high school, and our Gamma Mu Brothers.

During the spring break three of our Brothers will be getting married: myself, Yvette and Connie. We would like to wish our Brothers and their new spouses the best of luck.
