Of Kappa Psi
Pharmaceutical Fraternity

Volume 88, No. 1

March 1991

From the Editor

Welcome to the first issue of The MASK for 1991! All Brothers should now be past the dreaming stage for going to Jackson Hole, Wyoming for the Grand Council Convention and well into the planning and fund raising stage. Yes, it is a long trip for most Brothers but I promise that it will be worthwhile for you to attend whether you are an undergraduate Brother or a graduate Brother. There will be debate on issues facing the fraternity in the '90s and the ever important election of those chosen to lead us into the next century. Your input is required. It will be a great opportunity to make a family vacation out of the trip. The Palmieri family will be there in full force, all five of us. See you in Jackson Hole for a Grand Council Convention you will never forget.

From the Grand Regent

William R. Smith

When you are my age, will you look back and wish that you had taken the time to smell the flowers and build the bonds of Brotherhood when you had the chance; or will you look back with fond memories of the socially and professionally enriching Fraternal experiences that last a lifetime? Do you say: "If it's for Kappa Psi, it's important; I'll find the time!" or do you give the lame excuse: "I don't have the time." when a Brother asks you to do something for the Fraternity? Somehow we always seem to find the time to do the things we feel are important regardless of how busy we think we are! What will you be doing between August 3rd and August 7th that you couldn't do during the week of July 28th or August 12th instead?

Have I piqued your attention and/or curiosity? Will you stick with me a little longer? If you think that you ever will be a leader in the Fraternity, a Pharmacy Association, or any organization, have we got an educational experience for you! If you are already a leader in your College, the Fraternity, a Pharmacy Association, or any organization we will help you in understanding the needs of others and in serving as an elected representative. If you wish to improve your leadership skills, to better understand your own good ideas, and learn how to more effectively present your goals, the 45th Grand Council Convention next August 3rd through August 7th is just for you!

If you would like to be privy to valuable information that will strengthen and improve your Chapter, you can not possibly attend the Meetings of the 45th Grand Council Convention without being able to take back good and helpful ideas. If you would like to participate fully in charting the course of the future of the Fraternity then Jackson Hole, Wyoming is where you want to be, come August 3rd.

Would you like to personally meet several Past Grand Regents and many other individuals who have made and lived history and influenced events? Would you be interested in meeting some of the most dedicated and influential academicians in North America? Would you like to share, live, and experience history in the making? If you have answered yes or maybe to any of the previous questions, then the 45th Grand Council Convention in Jackson Hole, Wyoming August 3rd through August 7th is where you should be!

In going to the Rocky Mountains, Kappa Psi is achieving new heights! In August of 1991 all Kappa Psi Roads lead to Jackson Hole, Wyoming. If you are driving what a gloriously scenic drive it will be through spectacular surroundings such as Targhee National Forest, the Tetons, the National Elk Refuge, Yellowstone National Park, etc.

At the 45th Grand Council Convention experience fellowship—instant friends from Arizona to Massachusetts from Florida to British Columbia. The bonds of Brotherhood are just as strong internationally as they are with your closest campus buddies. When like-minded and goal-oriented individuals work together the feelings of kinship instantly transform unknown strangers into lifelong friends!

Participate in Industry—busy as a beaver, as organized as bees around a hive and a host of other metaphors would be appropriate to describe the intensity and concentration of activities centered on the betterment and strengthening of the Fraternity.

Enjoy Sobriety—soberminded Brothers intently concentrating on ordering their futures and that of the Fraternity. Having fun and a wonderful time but never forgetting the seriousness of their responsibilities, the honor of being a guardian of life are all part of the Kappa Psi experience.

Be a part of our High Ideals—what can be more noble than striving toward goals that improve and strengthen our profession for the betterment of all. Being a guardian of life is a heady responsibility, but you will never have a better time fulfilling that obligation than when working side-by-side in concert with your Brothers!

Attend the 45th Grand Council Convention and enjoy the personal experience of a lifetime. Obviously, the world won't come to an end if you don't make it to Jackson Hole for the 45th Grand Council, but, there will for ever be an empty spot in your life that could have been so very much fuller! When you are my age, will you look sadly back and wonder what the flowers would have smelled like, and wish that you had attended at least one Grand Council Convention; or will you smile at the fond memories of one of the most rewarding and enjoyable experiences in your lifetime—the 45th Grand Council Convention, August 3rd through August 7th in Jackson Hole, Wyoming?

Unsuccessful Achiever—And Proud Of It!

by Glenn Boyles

Personal problems, disappointment, and rejection are as much a part of living as are going to bed at night and getting up in the morning. But allowing them to become the major focal point of our daily existence can do tremendous damage to our relationships with our family, friends and colleagues; our effectiveness at work; and can even seriously hamper our efforts to achieve whatever it is that we want out of life.

No one ever said that your life would be a blissful existence free of mental anguish and physical discomfort from the time you opened your eyes in the morning until you closed them at night. You know you are going to encounter difficulties and you know that sometimes you are going to feel that you just can't go on. But when you do have that feeling—that you've experienced all the adversity you can absorb—and your burning desire to excel has been reduced to a heap of flickering embers, recall the following story. It will put whatever setbacks you have experienced in perspective.

A young man ran for a seat in his state legislature and was beaten—badly.

He went into business—and failed, only to spend the next 17 years of his life paying off the debts of a worthless partner.

He met and fell in love with a beautiful young woman, to whom he became engaged. She died before they were able to marry.

He decided to reenter politics and ran for Congress, but was mercilessly defeated.

He applied for a position with a U.S. government agency, but was rejected.

He ran for a seat in the U.S. Senate and lost—in two successive elections.

In spite of continued personal misfortune and repeated failure, he persisted. Eventually, he became President of the United States and was nicknamed the Great Emancipator.

Today, more than one hundred and twenty five years after he was assassinated, many historians consider this man, Abraham Lincoln, to have been our greatest President.

Abraham Lincoln is not around to tell us which personal qualities and abilities were most responsible for his repeated triumphs over disappointment, failure and rejection; so I have composed the following summary of advice I think he might have offered. You should find it helpful.

Fear of Failure

Regardless of how well you plan, there are going to be days when you feel discouraged. You may even reach a point where you start feeling timid and insecure about starting over again because you have repeatedly fallen short of the mark you have established for yourself. To dwell on your failures and the difficulties you have experienced would be unproductive and self defeating, so instead focus your thoughts on the satisfaction and happiness you will experience once you have achieved your goals—it will motivate you. Continually reexamine and modify your plans for achieving your goals. Always have an alternative plan, just in case your present one runs aground.

The single most important thing you can do to overcome your fear of failure is to acquire a sense of indifference about failing. It will endear yourself to those you come in contact with and will make them respect you all the more.

Evaluation

Very few failures are the fault of someone or something else—they are usually the result of your own error of omission or commission. Improper planning, wasting your efforts and resources in activities which contribute little if anything to your success, not doing something which you should be doing, insufficient resources and not possessing specialized abilities, knowledge or information are frequently responsible. Make learning exactly where you went wrong and how you can prevent yourself from repeating your mistake in the future your most important priority.

When you feel the worst about not achieving your objectives, you will also probably feel that you just don't have the energy or ability to try again. But it is right at this point, when all hope seems to be gone, that mustering your desire and determination to start over is most important.

Failing is not a bad thing, in fact it can make succeeding a lot easier—as long as you use it to your advantage. It can strengthen your resolve, provide you with an opportunity to improve yourself by identifying your weaknesses, and allow you to more accurately evaluate and redirect your efforts.

Your greatest concern should not be that you failed, but rather how content you are with having failed. After all, what you fail at and how many times you have failed mean nothing at all once you successfully achieve your objectives. But the first time you are content with having failed, you will never achieve them!

The Student's Side

Some (more) Thoughts on Pharmacy School, Graduation and Success

Tom Pilger, Pharm. D. Candidate

In 1984, while a senior pharmacy student at the University of Iowa, brother Palmieri asked me to write an article for "The Student's Side." My essay: "Some Thoughts on Pharmacy School, Graduation and Success" was published in the (MARCH '84??) issue of The MASK. I received several compliments on the essay and tremendously enjoyed writing it. I have found that for me, writing about something sort of forces me to understand it. If there are several ideas cluttering my head and I can't seem to make sense of them, often the best thing for me to do is sit down and try to write a letter or a poem or an essay that deals with the issues and my mind is tricked into organizing the thoughts into some usable form. As I prepare to graduate once again, this time with a Doctor of Pharmacy from the University of Georgia, I find myself at yet another crossroad of life and once again, my head is filled with thoughts of pharmacy, graduation and success.

In the previous essay, I reflected on my road through pharmacy school which at times felt like being on interstate 80 casually gliding out to San Francisco and at other times, like trudging up the dirt trail at the U. of Iowa (which is affectionately called the Ho Chi Minh Trail) with 20 pounds of books on my back and five pounds of snow in each shoe. Pharmacy school was certainly one of the most interesting, challenging and memorable times of my life and I'm sure most of you will feel the same way. Allow me to get personal once again and try to bring the experiences of the last seven years to some kind of perspective, offer some advice to students heading out into the world, and a little reflection for those who are already there.

Upon graduation from Iowa in 1984, I moved to Augusta, Georgia for a residency in hospital pharmacy practice. Residencies are intensified work experiences and most are a year long. I had wanted to work on a Pharm. D. degree but found that a residency would give me some of the advanced training that I wanted without the burden of tuition. An additional advantage of a residency was the ability to experience a new state without moving there "cold." There would be time for an advanced degree after saving a little money. Following the residency, I took a staff pharmacist position at the Medical College of Georgia. For four years I monitored drug therapy and dispensed medications and drug information from this decentralized satellite position. In the Fall of 1988, I received a letter with my future in it. The American Lung Association was sponsoring a bicycle ride from Seattle, Washington to Atlantic City, New Jersey. This type of cross country adventure was one of my longest held dreams, the kind of thing that we all have but feel that they will never come true. Well, they CAN come true, but more about that later. In September of 1989, following the bike ride, I started coursework toward a Doctor of Pharmacy Degree from the University of Georgia. At the time of this writing, I'm in my last quarter of the program, spending an elective month with Dr. Leslie Hendeles at the University of Florida in Gainesville. By the time it is published, I will have completed two rotations in Athens, Georgia and graduated, looking ahead toward the next step in my career.

Much has changed in my life and in the world since my years at Iowa, but much has also remained unchanged. In the early 1980's we were just coming out of an energy crisis and period of high inflation, we were worried about hostages in the middle east and possible war in Central America. Today we are concerned again with a potential energy crisis and have left behind the boom days and entered a new recession. Again we have had hostages in the middle east and a war is "scheduled" for tomorrow morning. I have lived a dream and most completed another degree in pharmacy, but I still drive my little pickup and a 20 year old bike and have student loans on the increase rather than the decrease. We have a different president than the one we elected eleven years ago but how different is he really? My mother died in 1987 but she lives on in her children and grandchildren and all of the other people that she helped and touched in her days here.

The point is that one of the things I have learned as I grow through life is that people and the world never seem to really change much. If you don't believe me, go to a library and read some news from 100 years ago. People were concerned because banks were failing, there was still no "cure" for war after thousands of years, and the United States was trying to determine its place in the world and the proper mix of states' rights and central authority. Today, people are concerned because the banks are failing, there is still no cure for war after thousands of years, and the Soviet Union is trying to determine its place in the world and the proper mix of republics' rights and central authority. We have thousands of life saving wonder drugs but folks are still living roughly the three score and ten that is found in the Bible as the average life span.

With all of the life changing experiences that I've had in the last seven years, my advice remains unchanged: Face the world with confidence and optimism, other people's judgment of your abilities matter little, but you'll rarely go farther than YOU think you can. Believe in pharmacy as well as yourself. The further I go in this profession, the more I am excited about our future. There is no other profession which has so many different "jobs" within it. You can be a dispenser, teacher, counselor, consultant, administrator, pure scientific researcher, business person, salesman, writer/editor, college dean, CEO. The list is truly endless, and as health care becomes more complex, expensive and important, our future brings more responsibility and opportunity, not less. We need leaders and advocates. Students ARE the future of pharmacy, if you don't want to help us row the boat, then jump ship now!

At the very height of success of democratic reform in Europe and Asia, just when free nations were ready to say "I told you so" Michael Gorbachev has started to take a hard line in the Balkan states and Saddam Hussein has held a knife to the throat of freedom. We must remember as individuals, as a profession, as a nation and as a world, that we must always be on guard. The price of freedom (and personal success also) truly is eternal vigilance.

One of the hardest things for me to deal with in this life is the frustration that an individual can encounter when trying to make a difference in the world. My favorite radio commercials are the ones by the car lubricating company that always end with "Some people want to change the world, we just want to change your oil." It's ironic, but if we all adopt that attitude, if we all do what we are good at and what we enjoy in life, if we must just one person a little happier every day, we CAN change the world. Two years ago, with no experience and no idea if I could pull it off, armed only with the confidence that my parents instilled in me, and a real determination, I undertook to raise $5,000 and ride my bicycle across the United States. The trip was the most important thing that I have ever done. I don't have the space to tell the whole story here, but with help of friends, family, neighbors, and co-workers, I raised over $8,000 for the American Lung Association and rode the 3500 miles from "sea to shining sea." I saw the country, I met some lifelong friends, I found a renewed hunger for life, I gained a self-confidence that no college degree or work experience can match. All of this benefit from doing something that I had wanted to do since I was a little boy! Dream your dreams, keep the faith, work hard and look for opportunity. The world really can be your oyster. It also helps to be around people who think the same way. (Thanks, Kimberly) I have found that it is very hard to be positive if you are too often in the company of negative people.

When I start to get dissatisfied or disappointed with life, I try to get closer to some of my patients, everything in this world, both good and bad, is relative and dependent upon your perspective and if you associate with people who have real problems, you will have a hard time worrying about paying the rent or having to go to work every day. Time is also a great healer, just hang in there and let it do its magic.

We are lucky to be in a profession that actually helps make people's lives better and more comfortable. I can't imagine working on an assembly line making useless "widgets" all day. Take service one step further, use your Kappa Psi ideals and volunteer to the public. There may never be a good political solution to homelessness or poverty, but how can anyone do better than to say they helped cook or serve a meal at a shelter? Use whatever talents you have to make the world better or easier for someone. Perhaps you can sing or make people laugh, do it! Not just at home or in class, or with your friends, but with people you see on the street, with your patients.

Perhaps the most important things that you can have in this world are some sense of religion and a sense of humor. Three things that help pull me through hard times are the line from the Desiderata that says "the world is no doubt unfolding as it should"; the Biblical quote that "the Lord works in mysterious ways, his miracles to perform"; and the Beatles song "Let it Be." First glance may give wonder what these have in common, but it should become apparent that each has the theme, "Don't take life too seriously, everything really will be alright." Once you adopt this attitude, and find someone to remind you when you forget (Thanks Mom) you will truly have an inner peace that nothing and nobody can take from you.

I would like to conclude with thanks to Dr. Palmeiri for the chance to follow up my first paper now that I'm graduating again. Thanks also go to the many people who have made me what I am, to Kim Mayo, my forever biking buddy; to Drs. Rusty May, and Tommy Taylor and Deans Ansel, Francisco and Hawkins and the rest of the Georgia faculty, and as always, to Bill Decker my life's teacher and best friend, and to my parents who I always give all of the credit and none of the blame of my life. Last, but not least, thanks to those brothers who helped make my bicycle adventure a reality: Brothers Magarian and Palmeiri, the Buffalo chapter, and to brother Rod Kieth who met me in St. Cloud, Minnesota near the halfway point of the ride and presented me with a Kappa Psi Coat of Arms that he had saved from his college days. Here's to Industry, Sobriety, Fellowship and High Ideals!

Reaching New Heights

What convention theme could be more appropriate than "Reaching New Heights"? Not only because of the location of the convention but as we enter a new decade Kappa Psi will be setting higher goals and striving for even greater accomplishments. NEW HEIGHTS will be reached during this decade and we will be kicking them off in Jackson Hole, Wyoming and you are invited.

The west is alive in Jackson Hole. Jackson Hole has all the flavor of the old west—cowboys, stagecoach rides, gun fights, boardwalk lined streets and even an old town square. Yes Jackson Hole is one of the last "wild west" towns left in the United States, but there is also a modern city that is waiting for us to enjoy the many varieties of activities and entertainment it has to offer.

This August we have planned a very educational and fun filled Grand Council Convention for your enjoyment. All we ask is that you plan NOW to attend. I can guarantee you that if you attend you will leave with a new appreciation and understanding of the brotherhood of Kappa Psi.

Alpine slides, chuck wagon dinners, stagecoach rides, white water rafting, float trips, horseback riding and of course a trip to Yellowstone Park and dinner at the Old Faithful Inn are just a few of the entertainment ideas and plans available to our conventioners. In combination with new found friends and old acquaintances this Grand Council Convention will leave you with memories for a lifetime.

I am looking forward to meeting YOU in Jackson Hole.

Justice, KΨ & the American Way

by Christopher A. Woo

Recently, each of our states had its respective election. Some candidates were elected to office, and some were not. While it is true that no candidate was elected unanimously, for our own respective welfares, we all send our prayers and hopes that everything will be for the best. Similarly, 1991 is an election year for Kappa Psi, with decisions upcoming for each of us on who will lead us, who will shape our future; there are some other points to keep in mind.

1) A FULL SLATE OF CANDIDATES

The call for candidates has already come out, and chapters need to return them. At meetings, make these nominations a prime topic of discussion. If you are interested in serving the fraternity, run for office. It is always beneficial to have plentiful nominations, a good mix from which to select candidates. At the 1989 Grand Council Convention, we had 10 people running for 5 graduate offices. At the 1987 G.C.D. we had 8 people running for 5 graduate offices. There is no problem with having more than 2 candidates slated for office; it gives more variety from which to choose. It's even precedented—five candidates of the 10 from 1989 were running for Graduate-Member-at-Large in 1989. So do the fraternity a favor—make some time and volunteer for and accept an office.

2) VOTING

The date and place for the Grand Council Convention was announced many months ago, in order to assist planning. While it is understood that not every brother will be able to attend, it shouldn't be a problem for each chapter, both graduate and collegiate, to cast their two votes. If there is absolutely no way for a chapter's delegates to be present, at least seek out a close chapter in order to carry proxy votes. While I don't think anybody prefers proxy votes over regularly-cast votes, at the very least proxy votes serve to represent an absent chapter. It has been said that "voting is a moral imperative," and remember that our fraternity certainly embraces high ideals.

3) BLOCK VOTING

I do not wish to contradict earlier statements—voting is the important thing. However, "block voting," the practice of banding groups together in an attempt to consolidate strength or snatch increased power or control, rubs me the wrong way. This is not to say that it is against our constitution—it isn't. On the other hand, block voting is also not a requirement of voting—no matter what anybody tells you. If block voting were mandated, we might as well just skip the convention and mail in our ballots, as two or three provinces with the most votes would determine outcomes—no matter what the rest of the others wished. I have even heard of instances in which candidates who did not attend the convention won elections—can this be democracy? How else would it be possible to elect a candidate at the convention, sight unseen and voice unheard at the forum? While the vote on proposals is verbal, the vote on officers is by secret ballot. So please discuss, debate, and deliberate—and then vote your conscience. It's good for you and your fraternity.

In closing, remember that we are all members of Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity. It is only natural that our ranks are full of qualified, able potential officers. If you happen to not be elected, remember that it certainly is better to try and fail than to have never tried. If you are afraid of losing the election, I am wondering if the training wheels are off your bicycle. There are no losers in Kappa Psi. All for one, and one for all!

Garner elected

"At the National Interfraternity Conference's Annual Meeting in New Orleans, Louisiana on November 28–December 1, 1990, Grand Historian-Ritualist, Dr. Dewey D. Garner, was elected to the Office of Secretary on the Executive Committee of the National Interfraternity Foundation and as Vice President for The Center of the Study of the College Fraternity."

Chapter News

Anyone interested in purchasing an ad for the Convention Program may do so by sending a check along with the contents of the ad to The Central Office by April 15, 1991.

A half-page ad costs $25.00, and a full-page, $50.00.

We encourage each Chapter to purchase an ad to demonstrate their support towards the Convention. Also, ads from the Colleges of Pharmacy would be impressive in the Program.

The Central Office would appreciate greatly Chapters selling ads to local pharmacists and pharmacies. These ads will assist in paying the cost of the Convention Program.

Chi Illinois

The brothers of Chi Chapter are pleased to announce the induction of 18 "new" actives this year who have earned their way into the brotherhood of Kappa Psi. We would like to thank Beta Upsilon (Butler) Chapter for the use of their ceremonial gowns, and for sending brothers in attendance at our initiation ceremony and banquet. This year's pledge program has taken on more of a professional aspect, by way of participation in continuing education and drug information research. There is more vitality in our chapter as it continues to grow larger, and we are enthusiastic and optimistic. This shall be a great year for Chi! Plans for intramurals and social events are underway, but our major activity this past semester has been our pledge program, as we were constantly revising and improving the process. We're hoping to see all of you soon in Madison for the Province V assembly!

Delta Kappa Howard

First, I would like to congratulate the newly elected officers who got last semester off to a smooth start. Our first fund raiser was our Beef Patti sale which was a huge success due to the large turnout. Our community project centered around Thanksgiving Day where we served dinner at Eastern Branch Boys and Girls Club on November 21, 1990. The club is devoted to the development of underprivileged youth through programs for teen mothers, support for the homeless, and a GED program. We found this experience to be both rewarding and fun.

This semester we are looking forward to our Back to School "Throw Down" where we plan to involve the entire school of pharmacy. The profits made from this event will be used to send our delegates to attend the Grand Council Convention to be held this summer. We will also be looking forward to inducting

The new officers took over and prepared many activities to help keep the Brothers busy during the long cold days of winter. One of our first projects of the semester was the annual phone-a-thon which is sponsored by the Pharmacy School. Many Brothers took their turns calling alumni and asking for monetary pledges. Kappa Psi is always one of the best represented organizations at the event. Brothers are also looking forward to an Alumni seminar which takes place on March 23. Plans are being made to sell Purdue Pharmacy T-shirts as well as hopefully sponsoring a luncheon for the Kappa Psi alums and their families.

Not everything at Pi chapter is work however. The Brothers are participating in basketball, walleyball, and co-ed volleyball with our Kappa Epsilon sisters. Plans are also underway to attend an Indianapolis Ice hockey game.

We also celebrated a late New Year's Eve with Kappa Epsilon. The party was a big success and it must probably be said that the second New Year was just as exciting as the first.

Pi chapter is also making plans to send a large congregation of Brothers to our Province V convention to be held at Beta Psi in Madison, Wisconsin on April 12-14. We hope to see all of our other chapter brothers and are hoping that they are ready to have a rockin' time. Some Pi brothers are also hoping to take part in a caravan with neighboring chapters and head out West for the GCC. Hope to see everybody there! That's all this issue from the Guys of Pi.

Theta Virginia

The brothers of Theta chapter are back in school and ready for another rewarding semester. To get the semester rolling, our graduate chapter sponsored a chapter ski trip to Snowshoe, West Virginia.

We are planning Rush for the spring semester and are anticipating a promising group. Rush activities will include a chili party for rushees, a Boxer & Blazer bash, and a Mexican feast to conclude the pledge period.

Theta chapter will be working on our annual "Ads Book," which is our main fund raiser for the year. We will sell these ads to raise money for our annual "Kappa Psi-Kappa Epsilon" formal to be held on April 6. The brothers will also be working with Rite Aid to supply a blood pressure service as a fund raiser. Finally, we are planning a Drug Fair for students and several car washes during the semester.

Presently, we are planning the details for attending the Province III convention in Myrtle Beach, SC. We are also gearing up for the 45th Grand Council Convention and are really looking forward to going West.

We would also like to recognize 9 new brothers of Theta Chapter. These include: Scott Blevins, Jonathan Carney, John Felts, Gene Herr, Ray Laster, Tim Lucas, Pat Meade, Martin Ohlinger, and Richard Ware.

Delta Lambda Campbell

The Spring semester is here, bringing with it new and exciting chapter events as well as old reliable activities. This will be the first full semester for a group of new Brothers initiated during the fall semester. Delta Lambda's newest Brothers are: Keith Breedlove, Mary Love Brent, Andrea Campbell, Brenda Cao, Eddie Cash, Travis Crawford, Angela Daniel, Chris Emert, Kevin Gardner, Wendy Goodwin, Dee Dee Gwin, Vanessa Hayes, Joe Isaac, Steve Kearney, Billy Kirby, Pete Koval, Terry Laws, Eric Ledford, Susan Mabe, Bill McKelvey, Holly McReynolds, Dwayne Miller, Jill Myers, Dwight Owens, Chance Parrish, Laura Philippart, Traci Roberts, Candi Shepherd, Dorothy Smith, Todd Smith, James Strickland, Chris Styers, Paige Thomas, Dana Waas, and Stephen Williford. This year our Chapter created a Best Pledge award to be given to the hardest working pledge. At a luncheon following initiation Brother Bill McKelvey had the honor of being named Best Pledge. Another proud moment from last semester was the posting of the Dean's List for the Fall semester; our chapter had 2 Brothers listed.

The events for the new semester were a second annual MAD MEDICINE rush party featuring some odd and unusual health care providers. Also being featured from last year will be our second annual CADET BALL. This year we will be staying three days at Myrtle Beach and capping off our three day stay will be an awards banquet. As always Kappa Psi will be promoting the profession as many Brothers plan on attending the Academy of Students of Pharmacy convention in New Orleans.

The new semester brings a new desire to initiate original fundraisers and service project. We have already had three bake sales and plan a spring T-shirt sale. Currently we are selling raffle tickets for the Cadet Ball. As part of a service project started at Christmas, the Brothers are still collecting clothes for an area orphanage. Plans are also being made to clean up our adopted highway.

A new feature of Delta Lambda has begun with the publication of CHAPTER CLIPS, a newsletter being sent to our graduate Brothers and Brothers on clerkship rotations. Just begun this semester was a new program called BADD, Brothers Against Drunk Driving. This program corresponds with the national program called SADD, Students Against Drunk Driving. Also new for our chapter was our first intramural championship won by our all girl volleyball team. We hope this will be a sign of things to come in the future as a new list of intramural activities awaits our chapter.

Special congratulations go to Brother Dwight Owens on becoming engaged and to Jerry Haynes for becoming the President of the local Academy of Students of Pharmacy Chapter.

As the election for new officers will soon take place, I would like to take some time to thank each Brother who has helped me write these MASK articles. It has been a pleasure to keep all my Brothers informed of Delta Lambda's activities.

Mu chapter at Riverside Park

Mu Massachusetts

The brothers of the Mu chapter ended the year with the traditional Semi-Formal in the World Trade Center in Boston. This event was made more memorable by the large number of Alumni who came back to remember the great times at Mu chapter.

The New Year's Eve party was held at the legendary 110 Childstreet house in Jamaica Plain.

The Mu chapter started the new year with the annual ski weekend in Montreal, Canada. It was a lot of fun, especially the bus ride, that was about seven hours.

In the next few months we're looking forward to our rush party, the Province I Convention as well as the pledging period.

We wish that the new year brings happiness and success to all the brothers in Kappa Psi.

Beta Rho Mississippi

We are looking forward to a very busy Spring semester, in which we are proud to be hosting the Province VII convention on March 22-24, 1991. It is a honor to have all of the Executive Committee attending the Province VII convention. I hope to see as many brothers as possible at the Province VII convention.

On Jan. 23, 1991 the Brothers of Beta Rho initiated 32 new members. We are glad that our family of brothers at Beta Rho and Kappa Psi family has increased by 32 brothers that will strive to carry on the high ideals of Kappa Psi.

Our Intramural program had a great Fall Semester. We are proud to say that the Kappa Psi Volleyball team won the University of Mississippi Overall Championship. Both our Active and Pledge Flag Football teams played well, but finished with losses in the play-offs. A Flag-Football team consisting of Kappa Psi Lil' Sisters played in the USF&G Sugar Bowl Flag Football Championship and finished 7th out of 64 teams (losing only to the 3-time defending champs).

Gamma Delta Ohio Northern

Greetings from Ada, Ohio. We have been keeping busy here at Gamma Delta. Homecoming was a great success. We had the largest turnout in our history, over 300 alumni and family members came "home" and showed their support. Our float was a run away first place winner in the homecoming parade, plans on the endowment fund were finalized, an unprecedented amount of money was raised, but most importantly a great time was had by all. All the actives are thankful for the rejuvenated alumni support and encourage those who haven't been in touch in the last couple of years to drop in.

Our house GPA skyrocketed last quarter. Fortunately the grades did not affect our social life. We had numerous parties, including a Woodstock tie-dye party and our annual Halloween Bash. The result was 13 pledges to whom we wish the best of luck. We also took first place in the Red Cross' "Battle of the Blood" competition between Greek houses. We are putting the finishing touches on our Campus Chest carnival, which is the largest Greek philanthropy on campus. Plans have been completed on our new kitchen and the work should be done by the end of January.

— Dennis J. Quinlan

Delta Zeta Iowa

During the fall semester Delta Zeta kept busy with blood pressure screenings at local pharmacies, a food drive for the Iowa City Crisis Center, attending Conclave at North Dakota, KΨ Cup Night at a local bar, pledging, and elections. Our major social and fundraising event was Cup Night which was a huge success and a lot of fun for those who attended. This fall we changed our pledging process from once a semester to once a year. The officers felt this would better allow the pledges to learn more about KΨ and to meet more actives and get to know them better before activation. So far the year-long pledging process has worked out well with 35 people pledging this fall. The last event of the semester was the election of new officer's. Congratulations to:

Regent:Stefanie Berkoski
 Vice Regent:Tiffany Ulett
 Secretary:Linda Johnson
 Treasurer:Angie Hoth
 Chaplain:Kris Sylvester
 Historian:Diana Cox

Sergeant-At-Arms:Kirk Vandercamp

Thanks to all of the past officers for their time and commitment to Kappa Psi. You did a great job!

Upcoming activities for spring semester include Conclave at Minnesota and initiation in the early spring.

Providence Graduate

Greetings from the Providence Graduate Chapter, which over the last year has proved to be alive and well. As of last count, our newsletter reaches brothers in 36 states.

We recently held our 1st Annual Kappa Psi C.E. Dinner in Warwick, R.I. on Community Acquired Pneumonias. As a result of this success, the 2nd Annual Kappa Psi CE Dinner is being planned. At the business meeting which followed the CE Program, officers were elected for the 1991 year, lead by current regent John Grossomanides.

Beta Gamma San Francisco

Beta Gamma celebrated the New Year with our annual Lake Tahoe Ski Trip January 11-13th. All 15 brothers who attended enjoyed visiting the casinos, skiing the slopes and feasting at the buffets. A special thanks goes to coordinators Craig Eng and Dan Quan.

A warm KΨ welcome goes to our 25 pledges: Terrie Abel, Lily Cheng, Michaela Cho, Helen Chon, Karen Chu, Deanna Dobler, Cristina Gruta, John Han, Delores Hansen, Julie Hew, Mae Kwong, Angela Lai, Tracy Nagao, Stacy Okamoto, Noelle Roszkowski, Andrea Samuels, Virpal Sandhu, Michele Schweitzer, Sonam Soni, Julie Tennenhouse, Gary Tom, Elaine Truong, Gary Vita, Kimberly Wong, and Peyton Wong. Initiation week began Jan. 22 and ended Jan. 26th with a formal initiation banquet. Rush Co-Chairs Teresa Petrilla and Rita Jue deserve special recognition for all their hard work. Later in the quarter the new pledges hosted a potluck dinner, a party and a fundraiser. Great job guys, keep up the good work (especially that fundraising)!

Beta Gamma is looking forward to the continued success of our two community projects: Lung Cancer Awareness and OTC's and the Elderly. We were encouraged to revise and expand these projects following the favorable evaluations we received from participating secondary schools and senior centers. The Lung Cancer Project held an orientation meeting Jan. 16th and began training over 50 pharmacy students for community presentations. Thanks to the many hardworking brothers who are project coordinators.

Beta Epsilon Rhode Island

The newest members to Beta Epsilon were initiated on November 16, at a formal ceremony held at Fogarty Hall at the University of Rhode Island. This sacred event was made even more solemn by the attendance of some very distinguished brothers: Dr. Norman Campbell, Michael Wilinsky, Steve Cofone, John Grossomanides, as well as eight brothers from Nu Chapter. Those new brothers are Eric Arila, Steve Gattuso, Brian Kozielski, and John Thomas. The initiation ceremony was followed by a combined after-initiation party with Lambda Kappa Sigma at a Narragansett beach facility overlooking the Atlantic Ocean. We were all very happy to see the great attendance by brothers from Nu Chapter as well as their LKS Chapter. On November 1 Brian Furbush and Rob Bryant had traveled to Storrs, Ct., to attend the initiation of three brothers into Nu Chapter.

Chapter News

Gamma Iota Pledges

Our community and fundraising events continue to be of prime importance. On December 7, 1990 we held another party/canned food drive at the home of Brothers Mike Halliwell, Marc Bernar-ducci, and Steve Weber. We obtained over 150 cans of food which were donated to the JohnnyCake Food Center in Peace Dale, R.I. This event has become a great way to gather people from the college of pharmacy in a way that is beneficial to needy people in the community. On January 17, 1991 we held a "social." This event proved to be very successful. We hope to be able to sponsor more social events like this in the near future. Another fundraiser we started some time ago and have continued to expand on is doing fall cleanup for faculty members. Once we develop some good marketing strategy we hope this will be economically beneficial to the chapter.

Gamma Iota State University of New York at Buffalo

The Gamma Iota chapter of Kappa Psi finished off this past semester very successfully. With the added energy of the newly inducted brothers, we were able to complete two worthwhile drives right before finals.

At our annual semiformal toys for tots Christmas party, we got over 170 toy donations. These toys are distributed by the Salvation Army to those families who are unable to buy their children presents during the holidays. Everyone who attended had a great time due largely to the great hostesses and host.

Kappa Psi jointly sponsored a donation drive to send to the troops of Operation Desert Shield to help make their unwhite Christmas a little cheerier. Anything from petroleum jelly to tapes were collected over several weeks. A large thank you goes to the whole pharmacy school for their generosity.

The whole fraternity is looking forward to the Province Convention coming up in Wisconsin. Hopefully a large turnout will help make the long drive more bearable.

Our upcoming events include a "Back-to-School" party and an informative consultation at a local nursing home to help these people better understand their medications.

Through everything we do, may we remember that we are all brothers for life. Good luck in the "real" world to Maureen.

Pittsburgh Graduate

The Pittsburgh Graduate Chapter hopes that all Kappa Psi brothers had a joyous holiday season and are enjoying the beginning of the new year.

The chapter has held regular monthly meetings either independently in a restaurant setting over dinner or as the guests of either Beta Kappa or Delta Epsilon collegiate chapters. The fellowship with collegiates is most appreciated and the chapter continues to grow in numbers and in activity.

At the November meeting, the local bylaws and ordinances were reviewed and updated. Following approval by the Grand Counsellor these will be in effect. Basically the changes now direct the chapter to meet bimonthly and call for annual dues in November of each year.

The chapter is planning a two-hour continuing education seminar sponsored by Glaxo Corporation. This will be hosted by Delta Epsilon and held on a Sunday evening in March. All brothers and guests are invited. More information can be requested from the Regent, Roger L. Wheat, Jr., 969 Centennial Drive, Indiana, PA 15701.

Plans are now being made to attend the spring Province II meeting in Philadelphia and the next Grand Council Convention in Jackson Hole.

Gamma Zeta Samford

Gamma Zeta chapter recently initiated thirty-eight pledges at Samford University. The pledge class went through Rush which consisted of a Question/Answer Booth, a Bar-B-Q Supper, a Pizza Party and a Tacky Tourist Party. The pledges also enjoyed a night of bowling with the members.

The pledges had a slave auction in which they raised money from other members and faculty. The money was donated to the Methodist Church for a mission project. After the slave auction they hosted a Show Your True Colors Party for the members. As another service project they had a canned food drive. They were also successful in having a car wash.

Fundraising for the membes began with two car washes, T-shirt sales, and currently we are selling lab weight sets to the first year class. We also hosted a golf tournament which proved beneficial as a fund-raiser. The money from the T-shirts was donated to ASP for the Bordee Bash Party hosted by Samford.

A Halloween Party was an exciting experience for the members with the Alabama Institute for the Blind and Deaf. Also for community service we went to south Highland Nursing Home for a sing-a-long with one of our own member's Barber Shop Quartet. Initiation was celebrated by a Halloween Party and our chapter took a study break after much hard work.

Epsilon Minnesota

Greetings to all from the brothers of the Epsilon chapter here at Minnesota. Through our busy quarter academically we have found some time to relax by participating in two intramural activities, both broomball and volleyball after our weekly meetings. This writer we have continued to go to area high schools and give sexually transmitted disease talks to 7th-9th grade health classes. We also found on weekend day to be entertained by a party thrown for us by our record setting twenty-two new members.

Preparations are continuing for our hosting of the province VIII spring conclave which promises to be an exciting weekend for all involved. We would like to extend an invitation to all Brothers to attend this occasion.

Our entire chapter would like to publicly extend a special thanks to our Grand Council Deputy, Rory Rimmel for his much appreciated time and commitment he has given to us, he has gone far above expectations to help and guide our chapter, Thank you Rory!

Psi Tennessee

The brothers of the Psi Chapter in Memphis, Tennessee are doing great! We all enjoyed seeing another hard semester go by and look forward to starting a new one. Last semester was full of many fun filled activities, one of which was the Pledge Class Project. This year the pledges held a donut sale in order to raise money for the fraternity. We owe a great deal of thanks to Shane Reeves, the Pledge Class President, for all of his hard work. The pledges raised a significant sum of money. Keep up the good work!

This year the brothers of Kappa Psi had the fortunate experience of watching The Vols defeat Ole Miss in football. Afterwards the brothers took a cruise down the Mississippi River on The Memphis Queen Showboat. It was a night to remember for all of those who attended. We were very pleased to have Province VII Satrap, Earl Brown with us and sorry to have lost him earlier in the day.

Don't worry, we found him in time for The Riverboat Party (the real fun)!

Many Christmas activities were planned this year, starting with a Potluck dinner, thanks to Mary Margaret. Socializing and just plain good food were the strong points at this get together. Kappa Psi also held their annual Christmas Party this year at Beth Zachary's house. The pledges were able to continue the Kappa Psi Christmas Tradition by supplying a tree, free with lights. They did a little better than just following the old tradition of bringing the tree. As always the brothers of Kappa Psi took a Christmas trip to St. Jude Children's Hospital with the ever famous Kappa Psi Santa, Tim Pauley. We gave all of the children a Fun Coloring Book and a Candy Cane. Each set of eyes lit up as they saw Santa approaching with goodies. Thanks Tim, with your warm heart you can be our Santa any time. Kappa Psi also made a generous donation to Porter Leath for Christmas this year.

After the Holidays every brother came back with some new clothes, nice haircuts and gleaming eyes—ready to begin the next semester. Kappa Psi plans on starting the semester with a Tri-Frat Annual Welcome Back Party and then move right on into planning Initiation. The pledges are already worried about their Pledge Test, weren't you when you were a pledge?! Some of the upcoming events include another delicious Potluck dinner that we all seem to enjoy. We are also looking forward to the Province VII Convention in Oxford, Mississippi. We should have a great attendance there this year.

We would like to thank the Alumni for the money sent to our Fraternity! We greatly appreciate it and hope that everything works out with a house. There should be a 2nd Edition of the alumni newsletter out soon. Any alumnus who did not receive the 1st edition should contact the fraternity at: 800 Madison Ave, Box 63369; Memphis, TN 38163. We would also like to apologize to those pledges who were forgotten in the last article: Jim MacDonald, Lee Anne Johnson, Marion Meyer, and Jeff Binkley. Welcome to the brotherhood! We promise never to forget you again! Have a Great Spring Break and WHOLE HOG BABY!!!

Gamma Xi South Carolina

Greetings from Gamma Xi chapter at the University of South Carolina. This year marks the 30th anniversary of our chapter. We hosted the Province III convention in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina this spring to help us celebrate this event and we also honored Dr. Robert L. Beamer, our founder, who is still teaching at the School of Pharmacy.

Chapter News

We would like to thank the chapters and their brothers who attended the convention and helped us celebrate.

Again this year, Gamma Xi is the Leader on the Social Calendar at U.S.C. We opened the school year in August with our annual Back to School Party, which is the first opportunity for the new pharmacy students to get to know each other as well as getting to know Kappa Psi. Halloween saw our annual Costume Party for the Pharmacy school and at the beginning of December we hosted the annual Pharmacy Christmas Formal. Up-coming events include the spring semester Back to School Party, the annual St. Patrick's Day celebration, and the Mr. Pharmacy/Ms. Pharmacy competition.

This year we continued our association with the Free Medical clinic here in Columbia by volunteering as Pharmacy technicians. The Free-Med clinic is staffed by volunteer doctors, nurses, pharmacists, and staff to provide medical services to the poor. We also helped host a Halloween party for the children at the Epworth Childrens home here in Columbia and are also doing blood pressure screenings at local nursing homes.

We recently elected new chapter officers at Gamma Xi. Elected were Regent, John Halliday; First Vice Regent, Tony Back; Second Vice Regent, Steve Stewart; Third Vice Regent, Rob Cagle; Secretary, Ernst Broome; Treasurer, Tim Fincher; Historian, Patrick Kelly; and Chaplain, Paul Richardson. We also had three members inducted into the Rho Chi society. They were Brian Cowser, Tony Back, and Patrick Kelly.

The pledge season this fall saw the induction of five new brothers into the Brotherhood of Kappa Psi. They are Arnie Huerta, Rodney Hahn, Mark Drew, Michael Myer, and Roger Blackwell.

We here at Gamma Xi would like very much to hear about other chapter's activities and province conventions that will be held around the country. Several of our Brothers have expressed interest in attending the conventions of other provinces. We also look forward to seeing everyone at the National Convention this summer.

Pacific Graduate

Happy New Year, brothers of Kappa Psi! Hope your holidays were merry and bright, and that 1991 is even better than 1990.

The weekend of November 2-4 was Homecoming at the University of the Pacific. In terms of the football game itself, the Tigers beat Portland State in stunning, last-minute dramatic fashion. This, in itself, would have been cause enough for celebration, but this occasion marked the 25th anniversary of the Pacific Graduate Chapter and the 30th anniversary of the Gamma Nu Chapter. To help celebrate, Grand Regent William R. Smith, Collegiate Member-at-Large Brian Furbush, and California Pharmacists Association Executive Vice President Bob Marshall lent their presence.

Beginning with pizza and beer at "The Shamrock," continuing through the jelly doughnut breakfast, outdoor luncheon, and formal banquet and dance, and ending with the alumni/collegiate football game, many familiar faces and old friends appeared. In addition to the continuing officers,

Regent.....Chris Woo
 Vice Regent.....Richard Leong
 Treasurer.....Don Floriddia
 Secretary.....Ron DeBellis
 brothers present included Dan Lee, Kent Veirs, Victor Moye, Hanlon Jen, Keith Higa, John Chui, Pat Tobin, Jamie Tobitt, Conrad Bio, Dave Jones, Eric Cohen, Denis Ishisaka, Marcus Amano, Gary Hamamoto, Tony Adam, Joe Fischer, Madhu Chaubal, Norm Fox, Bill Brehm, Lit Ng, Bob DiPonti, Peter Nudo, Alan Wong, Bill Ingram, Darin Sise, Ki Vacca, and Jim Sylvia.

Among the items discussed at the graduate meeting were house repairs and improvements, planning a bus trip to an A's or Giants baseball game, and the establishment of the Larry Carnegie Memorial Scholarship. With criteria still to be determined, it is our hope to create a self-perpetuating award, to be given for the first time this year.

In closing, the date for our annual wine tasting trip is set for May 4. I hope to see many of you there, and at other events throughout the year.

We also want to thank previous officers for a job well done. Special thanks goes out to previous Regent Brent Plender and Vice-Regent Gene Birchem. Under their direction the house went through many new improvements including a new sidewalk, new paint job, remodeled kitchen and bathroom and several others.

We also want to welcome our 15 new brothers: Steve Beals, Joel Boerger, Chris Esser, Mike Freking, Chad Herlyn, Sean Higgins, Adam Johnson, Roger Lastine, Brian Lounsbery, Greg Saylor, Greg Serocki, Chad Sherard, David Smahel, Brad Topel, and Kris Vogel. Congratulations goes out to Greg Serocki for being the outstanding pledge this past semester.

Due to bad weather numbers were down from last year on our annual blood glucose and cholesterol screening. However, we still had a pretty successful day. We tested 80 customers blood glucose level and 51 on cholesterol.

Many Gamma Kappa brothers and little sisters were also in attendance at the Province VIII Fall Conclave at North Dakota State University in Fargo, North Dakota. Our good turnout once again earned us the traveling trophy. We at Gamma Kappa would like to thank the Beta Sigma chapter for a fantastic weekend.

Christmas events included caroling at the homes of the Pharmacy faculty members, followed by exchanging of gifts between big brothers—little sisters and a social at the house. The little sisters also put together some terrific care packages which were distributed to many pharmacy students at the beginning of finals week.

Extra activities included a Kappa Psi racquetball tournament of which the conclusion has not yet been reached. Here Ken Lanier and Chris Krogman are in the finals ready to do battle for the right to be called “champ.” Set up for this semester is a new basketball team and coed broom hockey team out to have fun and maybe even win in the process.

Gamma Sigma Florida

Greetings from the Gamma Sigma Chapter at UF! I'd like to start out our chapter news by mentioning our latest projects. Our alumni newsletter is going strong, and our recent blood drive which raised over 30 pints was a great success (the participating donors were given a pizza party sponsored by JoAnn Heidenreich of Allen & Hanburys). The Annual Kappa Psi Spring Golf Tournament is planned for April 14 at West End Golf Course. We only have 80 open positions, so please write back promptly if you intend on playing. There will be more information on the tournament in an upcoming letter.

We have lots of exciting news to report about our chapter. Most importantly, we inducted 16 new brothers in December. This brings our active brotherhood (undergrad) to 42 brothers. Our new brothers are Warren Bailey, Wes Daniels, Grant Davis, John Foss, Kevin Hall, David Hanley, Bart Issac, Todd Moffses, Barry Patel, Jiten Patel, Evelio Prieto, Stuart Redrick, David Schwartz, Ron Villamaria, Jason Warner, and Ron Walker.

We are looking forward to attending Province IV assembly at Samford University in Alabama. Our chapter has the current Satrap, Randy Ealy, and Secretary/Treasurer, Jose Rey, among its members. We plan on having about 18 brothers who will be able to attend province.

The lineage tree has been expanded, but there are still huge gaps of lineage. We have some current brothers we can trace back as far as '79, but a majority of brothers we can only trace back several years due to broken lines and faulty memories. Please take the time to write down your big brother and little brother's names and any information on them you might know, and send it to us. We'd really like to hear from you.

As an ending note, I would like to ask of our alumni to be sure and correspond with us when you receive your newsletters.

Beta Eta West Virginia

After a very hectic fall rush, Beta Eta Chapter is pleased to announce our newest inductees: Soad Aboulhosn, Dwight Blair, Cindy Burdett, Sherri Eplin, Anne Garrett, Tammy Kreitzer, and Tammy Stamper. Congratulations to all!! This group may be small but they are very committed and we welcome them with open arms to our ranks. Beta Eta Chapter threw quite a few fun parties during the fall semester and we capped off the semester with participation in the West Virginia University Student Organization's S.H.O.P. Program. This stands for Students Helping Other People and includes a shopping spree for Christmas gifts at a nearby retail store and a party for needy children in the Morgantown area. Also, kudos to Stacey Slayton and Debbie Heller, Kappa Psi brothers, for their work in organizing our pharmacy class to participate in a food drive for needy families in the Morgantown area during the holiday season.

This semester, our plans include switching Provinces to Province II. Our Chapter is looking forward to the regional meeting in Philadelphia in April.

PROVINCE VIII

The Province VIII Fall Conclave was a tremendous success. We met Oct. 26\28 at Fargo, North Dakota. Our thanks go out to Matt Paulson and Beta Sigma for organizing the meeting. The Central Office was well represented; with William R. Smith, Bob Magarian, Paul Hiller, and Lenny Naeger in attendance. Roberta Radford, Regional Director of the American Lung Association, gave an informative presentation on “Lung Cancer and Chronic Lung Problems.” There was much business to attend to at the meeting. Kirsten Rogne discussed the status of the reactivation plans for the Minnesota Graduate Chapter and a committee was established to work on the reactivation of Gamma Epsilon from the University of Nebraska Medical Center. Amy Daggett of Beta Chi is the chairperson. Congratulations go out to our new officers:

Vice-Satrap:....Mark Ellingson (Beta Sigma)
 Secretary-Treasurer:.....Sandy Knoblauch
(Epsilon)

A special “Thank You” goes out to Chad Scholten and Doug Porter who served in these offices over the last two years.

As is our tradition, we held theme parties both Friday and Saturday nights. The Greek Toga party Friday was highlighted by silly string and “Crisco Twister.” Paul Hiller and Lenny Naeger taught some Beta Sigma brothers how to play ping-pong that night also.

The Spring Province VIII Conclave will be held April 5\7 at Minneapolis, Minnesota.

The pledges this year were required to conduct a public service of their choice. They decided to collect clothes for the "homeless." Brother Chris Pollick has recuperated from his Thanksgiving day "knife-attack" and will be returning this semester. Good-luck on all your make-up exams, Chris.

During the Christmas break, major repairs have been made to the house. The party basement was completely remodeled by Brothers Rick Scholl and Tom Fotta. The pool table was re-felted by Brothers Jeff Hubert and Mike Ristagno. "Thanks for spending part of your vacation completing these welcomed repairs."

We will be holding our annual Tri-F dinner later in the spring semester. Once again the

Beta Psi's Pledge Class

Beta Psi Wisconsin

The last weekend of October was Homecoming at Madison. Even though the football team lost, there was a big party at the KΨ house. Actives and alumni socialized and talked about old times while enjoying a feast made by our house mother Sandy Redding. The weekend was finished up with a Halloween pumpkin carving with pledges and pledge parents, complete with lots of pumpkin seeds.

Hell Night and Banquet were a huge success (long live disco!). We all would like to welcome our ten new actives: Mary Mleziva, Mary Hisrich, Debbie Cleary, Debbie Schmidt, Heather Miesfeld, Gina Pigarelli, Gina Krohn, Joel Leu and Dan Wittman.

Right before Thanksgiving break was the School of Pharmacy Talent Show. Stars doing KΨ proud were: Matt Weege, as the MC, Steve Shuda not knowing much of anything, and the Fall of '88 pledge class 2 year reunion.

Also this fall was everyone's favorite event, the annual Beer BUS. As usual, it was a huge success.

When December comes, so does the snow. On the first Monday of December there was a blizzard! NO SCHOOL!! That means make shift movie day at the KΨ house, with lots of hot chocolate. Also in December we went treeing for the perfect Christmas tree, and also had a secret santa exchange.

With the welcoming of our new pledge class, we are making Carey Schultz an Honorary Member. Carey was a PH-I and a member of the Fall 1990 Pledge Class. She was killed by a drunk driver on October 19, 1990. Beta Psi misses her very much.

Verne L. Nyman BX '30

Verne L. Nyman died in Des Moines, Iowa, on August 11, 1990. Brother Nyman was a charter member of the Beta Chi chapter that was originally established on May 3, 1930 at the Des Moines College of Pharmacy, Des Moines, Iowa. The Beta Chi chapter was transferred to Drake University in 1939, when the Des Moines College of Pharmacy was closed.

Verne graduated from the Des Moines College of Pharmacy in June, 1932. Following graduation he was employed from January 1933 to December 1942 with the Walgreen Company at various stores around the Midwest, including St. Joseph, MO, Des Moines and Waterloo, Iowa, and Omaha, Nebraska, before he enlisted in the Navy, serving for 23 months at the Bethesda Naval Hospital.

Verne received the Golden Mortar Award from Grand Regent Dewey D. Garner in May 1980, at the Golden Anniversary Celebration of Beta Chi. In a biography of Verne that was published in The MASK, he wrote, "pharmacy has changed with the times. From the Depression of the '30s to the Inflation of the '80s—From the handwritten prescription labels to computer labels. From the one draw cash register to the computer cash register. To be a KAPPA PSI and change with the times has made an exciting 50 years."
