A Walk Through Kappa Psi History

Centennial Anniversary - May 30, 1979

Anthony Palmieri III

As you sow, so shall you reap

Brothers, as we approach the summer, we often travel. Whether it is to home, to a job, or on a family vacation, we often go to places that are new to us—places where others may not know of Kappa Psi. When we go to other cities, states, or countries, we need to pass on the aims of our Fraternity to others. We become, in essence, apostles who bring their message to others. Tell your friends and all you meet about Kappa Psi, what we are, and what Kappa Psi means to you. Tell about the good works of our Order. You will find an audience willing to listen as you break the stereotype of fraternities. Tell everyone about fellowship, industry, sobriety, and high ideals. Show them how these four aspects are a part of your every waking moment. How, before you act, you ask yourself how your actions will reflect on the Brotherhood. You are indeed the public image of Kappa Psi.

Be certain that all you do and all you say reflects well on Kappa Psi. Do you have high ideals? Are your hopes and dreams consistent with our Fraternity? Do you display fellowship not only to other brothers, but to all you meet? If you are working in a pharmacy, tell the pharmacists about your Fraternity experience. They will encourage you to become more involved, not only in the Fraternity, but also in the profession and in the community. We have all been blessed, and we need to tell others how we have been blessed by having the opportunity to be pharmacists and to be members in our Fraternal Order. It is your responsibility to share with others your dreams for a better life and a better profession. You will be amazed if you wear your Kappa Psi lapel pin or a Kappa Psi jacket how many people will ask you what Kappa Psi is. This will give you an opportunity to tell them what your Fraternity is about—how we have scholarship and industry as our aims, and how we individually and collectively want to make our little corner of the world a better place for all.

You will be essentially sowing the seeds of Kappa Psi. You will reap many benefits not only for you but also for Kappa Psi.

Go forth spread the word about Kappa Psi to the world around you. As you sow, so shall you reap.

I am proud to be your Grand Regent,

Anthony Palmieri III

Chris Gong, Ben Welch, Bill Ingram, Grand Regent Fitzpatrick and John Adams at the 1976 convention reception.

The '60s and '70s—WOW, what a turbulent time for America. Civil Rights marches, antiwar protests, campus unrest, peaceniks, love-ins, rock music—it all happened during these decades. Colleges and universities were affected during this period, as was Kappa Psi. We were forbidden to meet on some campuses for fear of revolt. Students were turned off to the fraternity system in general because it was seen as part of the status quo.

Kappa Psi was tested during this period again. Periods of difficult or slow growth, stagnant revenues, and another financial crisis only proved that the Fraternity was here to stay as we survived, grew, and flourished, thanks, once again, to the efforts of brothers everywhere.

Johnny Porter
Editor of THE MASK

With the retirement of Frank Eby as Executive Secretary, 1965 began with a new Executive Secretary, Dr. Gerald Henney, at the helm. THE MASK remained under the editorship of Nick Fenney, who would continue until his retirement in 1969. With the appointment of Dr. Henney as the new Executive Secretary, the Central Office was moved to St. Louis in early 1965.

In 1964, then Executive Secretary Frank Eby was commissioned by the Executive Committee to write "The History of Kappa Psi" as soon as he retired as Executive Secretary. So, upon his retirement in December 1964, and with an enormous amount of help for editor Fenney, this task was taken on and took three years to complete.

The 33rd Grand Council Convention took place in San Francisco. This marked the first time that a Kappa Psi Grand Council Convention was held on the West Coast. At this GCC, the title of Grand Secretary Treasurer was formally changed to Executive Secretary, and the Frank H. Eby Scholarship Loan Fund was established. The University of Connecticut also established the Nicholas Fenney Scholarship, which was funded by a grant from the Connecticut Pharmacist Association. This was quite an honor and wonderful recognition for one of our brothers.

1966 saw the Professional Interfraternal Conference issue a statement to all of its members regarding the right to assemble. It assured its members that under the Civil Rights Act of 1964, college fraternities were guaranteed protection under the Freedom of Association and Peaceable Assembly sections of the act. This was necessary, as some colleges and universities had banned all kinds of assemblies because of war protests and civil rights marches.

In 1966, Grand Regent Glenn Sperandio appointed a coordinator of province affairs. This was a prelude to the province realignment that would take place in a couple of years. This was also the year the new membership card was introduced.

In 1967, the Grand Council was held in Kansas City and "The History of Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity" was presented to the Fraternity by Dr. Frank Eby. The National Scholarship Award Tray was presented to Alpha Chapter by the Philadelphia Graduate chapter. This was also the year that Delta Epsilon at Duquesne University was established as the 55th chapter of Kappa Psi.

Grand Regent Walter Williams, who was elected Grand Regent at the Kansas City meeting, died in office on February 9, 1968, after serving only six months. Third Grand Vice Regent James C. King was elected Grand Regent by the Executive Committee to serve out the term. This was the year that the first hazing policy was issued by the Fraternity and the year that the Order of the Golden Mortar was established for 50 years of service to Kappa Psi. Delta Zeta at The University of Iowa was installed on December 12, 1968. Editor of THE MASK Fenney announced that he would retire at the end of 1968.

The first issue of THE MASK in 1969 was published by the new editor, Mickey C. Smith, of the University of Mississippi. It was during this time that the Central Office purchased

Now you can illustrate your drug abuse education presentations with appropriate and interesting slides, almost all of them in color!

The Drug Abuse Slide Resource Kit was developed by the American Pharmaceutical Association under a Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs (Department of Justice) contract to provide qualified drug abuse education and information speakers with illustrative supplements for their presentation. It is NOT a slide talk or a "canned" presentation.

The 165 slides are divided into eight sections: History of Drug Abuse, Drug Abusers' Propaganda, Drugs of Abuse, Drugs and Your Body, U. S. Bureau of Narcotics and Dangerous Drugs, Rehabilitation and Treatment Centers, Drug Abuse Education Material, Drug Abuse Education Programs and Councils. Each slide has a brief identification caption to assist in adapting the slides into the speaker's presentation.

The only cost to the borrower is the return postage. Because of the limited number of kits available at APhA, a 30-day loan period prevails with requests on a first-come, first-served basis. Kits are also available at the regional offices of the BNDD. Having been sponsored by a Federal Agency, the kit is public domain and may be reproduced in whole or part without permission.

equipment to print THE MASK in-house in an effort to save money. Financial hard times were upon us again as the '60s drew to a close.

An editorial in THE MASK blasted the American Journal of Pharmaceutical Education for its stance that pharmacy students should be seen and not heard on college campuses. The position taken by the Fraternity was that students should and would be heard in a positive manner. Times were different then. Can you imagine not being able to voice your opinions in class, and if you did, being looked upon as a dissident?

The Kappa Psi Commemorative Plate was issued to celebrate the 100th anniversary. Plates were ordered and sent out in January 1979.

The spring issue of THE MASK had the first biographical data on candidates for national office. Before this time, delegates had to go to the convention to get information on the candidates, as only the names had been printed in the past. Now the Brotherhood could see the credentials of the candidates and make a more informed decision in the election process.

At the 1969 GCC in Buffalo, New York, the assembly passed a resolution stating the Statler Hilton was totally inadequate to host a GCC. That resolution gave the first guidelines for selecting a hotel and site for future GCCs.

1970 saw the resignation of Editor Mickey Smith after two issues. Beginning with the third issue, the Central Office edited and published the next two issues. THE MASK reprinted "Death on Campus—An Amherst Tragedy." This was an open letter from the president of Amherst to college students everywhere, which pleaded for better conduct and judgement on and off campus. This letter was written after two deaths occurred on the Amherst campus in one week related to drug use and overdoses. Times were still changing as drug use became widespread on college campuses. Professional colleges and schools were no exception. A different, darker era had begun.

The fall 1970 issue of THE MASK had a bright note for Kappa Psi. The American Pharmaceutical Association noted that 36 of the 56 chapters of the Student American Pharmaceutical Association had presidents who were members of Kappa Psi. This was quite a distinction for Kappa Psi.

Executive Secretary Gerald Henney died on February 10, 1971. The Executive Committee appointed Assistant Executive Secretary William Fitzpatrick of Gamma Pi as the new Executive Secretary. The Central Office did not move, as Executive Secretary Fitzpatrick also lived in St. Louis.

The first two issues of THE MASK in 1971 were printed and published in the Central Office. The second issue unveiled a new cover design and also a new size for THE MASK. Frank P. Facione of Mu Grand Historian Leonard Naeger (L), congratulates First Grand Regent Dewey Garner as Satap Charles Carden looks on. This hot tennis action to place at Marriott's Camelback Inn in Scottsdale during the 1979 GCC.

Omicron Pi was selected as the next Editor; William R. Smith, also of Mu Omicron Pi, was selected as Assistant Editor. Finances were strained, and only three issues of THE MASK were published in 1971. This was the first time three issues had been published since THE MASK's first issue in 1904. The GCC was also delayed for one year due to financial concerns.

The 1972 GCC was held in New Orleans at an "appropriately sized hotel." It was here that a new Executive Secretary was appointed by the Executive Committee. Dr. Donald Floriddia of Gamma Nu in Stockton, California, was selected as the new Executive Secretary, and the Central Office moved to Stockton. The third issue of THE MASK in 1972 saw another new cover design; only three issues were published again that year.

With the move to Stockton completed in 1973, a new chapter in Kappa Psi began. THE MASK had yet another new cover design. The Century Club was formed to promote the 100th anniversary of Kappa Psi in 1979.

The GCC was held in Kansas City in 1974. Showing the differences between then and now, the GCC program promoted the Playboy Club atop the Hotel Intercontinental, the convention hotel, as the place to be and be seen while at GCC.

The first issue of THE MASK in 1974 was devoted to the houses of Kappa Psi. Nine chapter houses were featured with pictures and articles concerning each one. Editor Facione resigned in 1974, after two issues, and Second Grand Vice Regent John Atkinson of Eta chapter took over as editor. The October–December issue of THE MASK in 1974 was the first and last issue to not have the name of the Fraternity on the cover.

1975 began with the appointment of a new editor—Norman Kobayashi of Gamma Nu. His first issue began with a new cover design, one that would last for his entire term, and an article from Frank Eby on the economic crisis of the Fraternity. Frank told us we would be OK, but we needed to be vigilant in future financial dealings.

THE MASK increased from four pages in 1971 to eight pages in 1975. Chapter news was severely abbreviated during this period to cut costs. Most chapters were only listed as having sent in reports.

The 1976 GCC was held July 3–7 in Philadelphia during our nation's bicentennial celebration. It was at this meeting that Kappa Psi instituted measures to comply with Title IX requirements. Beginning in 1976, THE MASK began using two-color covers and a heavier weight of cover paper. It was quite an improvement over the past few years. THE MASK also began publishing small scientific and professional articles again, and also began publishing more chapter news.

By 1977, there was so much chapter news that the magazine was increased to 16 pages. 1977 was also the year that the first female brother was initiated into Kappa Psi. It was in the October–December issue in 1977 that we published the last article from Dr. Eby, "A Historical Listing of Chapters of Kappa Psi."

In 1978 at an Executive Committee meeting in Scottsdale, Arizona, the site for the 100th anniversary celebration of Kappa Psi was selected—The Marriott Camelback Inn in Scottsdale. The committee announced a contest to design the centennial logo, the sale of commemorative plates from the Franklin Mint, and specially made liquor decanters.

In 1979, a full push began to celebrate the centennial anniversary of Kappa Psi. The logo contest winner was announced, and the logo began to appear on all correspondence from the Fraternity. The Centennial Club was closed out with the 100th membership going to Dr. Frank Eby via sponsorship by Beta Omega. The Bicentennial Club was established for donations to take Kappa Psi into its second century.

Norm Kobayashi announced his retirement after five years of service as editor of THE MASK. During his term, the magazine went from eight pages to 20, quality improved, and the magazine was published regularly since he began the job.

Also in 1979, Grand Regent Garner announced the resignation of Executive Secretary Floriddia. Dr. Robert Magarian, Gamma Omicron, was selected as the new Executive Secretary to begin work in January 1980. From 1964 to 1980, Kappa Psi saw dark times and good times, but throughout it all, we persevered.

Next time, 1980 to 1991, the growth years.

The 52nd Grand Council Convention will be held in Pittsburgh August 9-13, 2005.

Make plans to attend!

What a beautiful Xi family . . . Ai, Ming, and Kelley.

Epsilon

University of Minnesota

We have eight enthusiastic pledges who are very excited about going through questionings, informal, and formal initiations.

Several Epsilon brothers participated in the Reindeer Run, a 5K race, to benefit Toys for Tots. Epsilon brothers went shopping and bought house supplies and gifts for children and their families being served by the Ronald McDonald House Charities. We participated in blood pressure and cholesterol screenings at the Women's Expo. Over the course of three days, we checked more than 500 cholesterol levels and 1,000 blood pressures.

Epsilon brothers volunteered at the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Walk at the Mall of America. We also continue to volunteer at the Phillips Neighborhood Clinic and give STD presentations to high school students.

For fund raising, we sold college of pharmacy sweat-shirts to students and faculty.

We are busy working on the PharmaCOPA, our college of pharmacy annual. Our theme this year is "Expanding our Horizons," since the University of Minnesota expanded its pharmacy program to the Duluth campus.

We also went snow tubing. It was a balmy 35 degrees and raining, but we still had a lot of fun. Some of our brothers got over their fear of tubing, while others tried bumper-tubing down the hill. We are looking forward to our annual trip to Breezy Point Resort in northern Minnesota, where we let loose and enjoy our time away from school. Epsilon also had intramural volleyball and bowling teams.

—Abby Nikolas

Theta

Medical College of Virginia

Theta chapter would like to welcome our new pledge class. Special thanks to our brothers for some heavy recruiting and for teaching others what it means to be a Kappa Psi brother.

turnout and raised more than $500 in donations. We are anxiously awaiting the fifth annual Kappa Psi Golf Tournament to be held at The Dominion Club in Richmond, Virginia, with proceeds benefitting the American Heart Association. We have also made plans to volunteer with Habitat for Humanity, Relay for Life, Adopt-a-Highway, and Poison Prevention Week. We are also looking forward to the Strawberry Hill races with Kappa Epsilon.

We would also like to thank Dr. Michael Crouch, our chapter advisor, for his leadership and guidance of our chapter, and our faculty for continuing the history and traditions of our chapter.

—Mark A. Vaughan

Mu

Massachusetts College of Pharmacy

Mu chapter is proud to announce the initiation of three new brothers: Tahir Abdulhussein, Craig Baillie, and Ely Rakhanov. These brothers are a strong addition to our chapter and we welcome them wholeheartedly.

We held our annual smoker, and many of our alumni brothers returned to visit with us. We shared stories of past events and renewed our legendary history.

Xi

The Ohio State University

Xi brothers continue the valiant effort to feed Ohio's hungry at the Mid-Ohio Foodbank and help those in need with an OTC drive for the Faith Mission. True dedication and commitment were shown as Xi brothers cleaned the Unverferth House, where families of patients at the OSU hospital may stay and receive solace in the presence of those in similar situations. For Valentine's Day, we made valentines for nursing home patients at Worthington Christian Heritage. Xi brothers also participated in Katy's Kids, a poison control program designed to help teach kids about the benefits and dangers of medications. Some of our brothers were trained by the Central Ohio Diabetes Association to give diabetes screenings. We also helped raise money at their annual Swim for Diabetes event.

For fund raising, we sold baked goods and T-shirts.

—Mary Ross

Rho

University of Kansas

Rho chapter participated in several community service projects, including the Share the Warmth coat drive, Adopt-a-Family, and Adopt-a-Highway.

Several brothers from Rho attended the Province VII meeting in Dallas. Thanks to all brothers for a great weekend.

Socially, brothers of Rho chapter enjoyed a progressive dinner.

—Mary Tran

Upsilon

University of Kentucky

Upsilon chapter initiated 12 new brothers: Brandon Borders, Adam Brown, Jeremy Burns, Jeremy Creager, Phillip Hay, O'Shea Hudspeth, Jason James, Michael Raque, Lindsey Roberts, Adam Robinson, David Ruth, and Mike Torbey. Our new brothers look forward to elections so they can assume leadership roles in our Fraternity. On a sad note, we lost one of our newest brothers in a car accident. Our thoughts and prayers are with Brother Phillip Hays' family, as he will be truly missed.

Upsilon brothers worked with Habitat for Humanity and the Special Olympics.

Our social activities included a Kappa Psi derby party held in the spirit of horse racing at Keeneland.

—Larry Ellison

Psi

University of Tennessee

Psi initiated 56 new brothers, bringing the number of active brothers in our chapter up to 183. The vast majority of leaders and faculty on our campus are members of Kappa Psi.

Psi participated in several pharmacy-related community service activities, including health literacy days at libraries, helping our ASP chapter give hundreds of flu shots and immunizations, raising more than $800 for the American Stroke Association, and sponsoring Thanksgiving food drives.

The brothers of Psi have enjoyed becoming active on the National and Province levels once again. Tiffany Wiley and Eddie Davis attended GCC this past summer and had a wonderful time networking with brothers from across the country. We look forward to sending more brothers to Pittsburgh for the next GCC in 2005.

Several Psi brothers drove to Athens, Georgia, for the Province IV assembly. As always, the Southern hospitality of the Province IV chapters was evident and very much appreciated. Athens is a great town with an abundance of night life. We would like to thank the brothers of Gamma Phi at UGA for the invitation and hard work put into the assembly.

We also took the "Leap to Dallas" to our own Province VII assembly, hosted by the Southwestern Graduate chapter. We renewed old friendships and enjoyed brotherhood with chapters from Texas, Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, and Louisiana. Congratulations to all of the new Province officers.

We have paid off our debts to Central Office and the Province, and were looking forward to refurbishing our chapter house.

We are also updating our alumni mailing list and hope to bring life back to the dormant Tennessee Graduate chapter.

Psi chapter was host to many social activities throughout the year. These included parties, rush, football Saturdays, and pre-partying before taking on the Memphis night life. If you are in the Memphis area, look us up, and we will be happy to show a brother a good time in Tennessee!

—Eddie Davis

Beta Gamma

University of California, San Francisco

Beta Gamma had a pre-rush party and an informational dinner before gearing up for rush. Beta Gamma brothers and prospective pledges took a trip to Alcatraz Island and toured the historic prison. Our highly motivated pledges have been busy with rush, organizing a fund-raiser, and hosting the annual pledge party.

As a community service project, we set up collection bins throughout campus and went door-to-door collecting food for needy families in the San Francisco area. We also sold valentine grams and held a professional night. We invited our graduate brothers in the San Francisco area to dinner so that our pledges could meet them, find out what Kappa Psi has done for them, and learn what the pledges can do for Kappa Psi.

Socially, brothers and pledges went ice-skating. Beta Gamma also had a Thanksgiving dinner for our brothers who could not make it home for the holiday.

—Michael F. Gonzales

Beta Upsilon

University of Rhode Island

The brothers of Beta Upsilon initiated 18 brothers into our chapter. They are enthusiastic and a real asset to our Fraternity.

Beta Upsilon adopted a portion of the URI campus to keep clean and beautiful. Brothers are keeping an eye out for litter and graffiti.

Several brothers went on our annual trip to Montreal. Snow and the freezing climate did not stop us. We had a lot of fun learning the sport of curling and taking in an ice hockey game.

Beta Eta

University of West Virginia

For community service, Beta Eta brothers cooked dinner at the Bartlett House.

Some of our brothers went to Philadelphia for Province II.

Socially, Beta Eta brothers went on a three-day ski trip to Canaan Valley. We also enjoyed bowling.

—Lisa Pitrolo

Beta Kappa

University of Pittsburgh

The brothers of Beta Kappa installed new officers as follows: Sara Waltenbaugh, regent; Anna Below, vice regent; LeeAnne Snow, corresponding secretary; Jeanine Bucci, Brothers volunteered at the Family House by putting together military care packages, and at the Children's Hospital by making valentines for patients.

For fund raising, we sold subs and held a Pittsburgh Penguins ticket raffle to benefit the Kappa Psi Wes McIntire Fund.

During Pitt Pharmacy Week, we enjoyed an interfraternity football game with PDC and LKS, ice-skating, the PLS auction, the no-talent show, and the ASP formal.

Some of our brothers went to Philadelphia for the Province II conclave, hosted by Beta Omega chapter. Thank you, Beta Omega. It was a great Province and we all had a wonderful time. Congratulations to Adam Bell, who was elected Province II secretary, and all brothers who were elected to the Province board.

Socially, we held a graffiti party and an '80s party. We went to Seven Springs where we were joined by graduate brothers for some fun in the snow.

Several brothers also played on an intramural volleyball team.

—Jacquelyn Truance

Beta Nu

Creighton University

Beta Nu brothers had a wine and cheese party with our new pledges. We also went to Barrett's Bar and Grill with another chapter of the pharmaceutical society at UNMC.

—Soulin Sengsay

Beta Xi

University of North Carolina

For community service, Beta Xi brothers helped with inventories at both UNC hospitals and at Duke Hospital. This also keeps brothers familiar with the aspects of hospital pharmacy.

Our annual pledge formal was held in Charlotte. Brothers dressed in their finest attire for a formal night of dinner, awards, and dancing. We also held our annual tunnel party, where the band Willie and Me performed. The tunnel party gets its name from the huge maze of cardboard boxes spanning the three-story Fraternity house. The party is well-known on the UNC campus.

Beta Upsilon

Butler University

We are getting to know our newly initiated brothers better each day. Many of them show excellent potential to be leaders in our great Fraternity in the future. We elected a new executive committee and know they will do a wonderful job making Beta Upsilon chapter stronger and more active than ever. For an Executive Committee list, check out our Web site at www.butler.edu/studentlife/kappa-psi.

We have been working closely with the Indianapolis chapter of the Special Olympics. We raised more than $750 at the annual Polar Bear Plunge to benefit the Special Olympics. Some of our brothers were crazy enough to plunge into the lake. Under warmer conditions, we coached Special Olympic athletes on how to write mission statements and how to write speeches about what Special Olympics means to them. With these speeches, athletes were able to raise awareness of Special Olympics in the community. Many of our brothers also participated in Butler's annual Spring Sports Spectacular, playing Ping-Pong and Ultimate Frisbee all night, to benefit the Special Olympics.

Most of our attention has been directed toward getting ready for the Province V conclave in Madison, Wisconsin.

Socially, brothers relax after chapter meetings with a trip to Buffalo Wild Wings. We went to a comedy club with other fraternities from the college of pharmacy and health sciences.

If you would like a copy of our awesome newsletter, please contact us and we will send one to your chapter.

—Madeline O'Bryan

Beta Phi

University of Cincinnati

Beta Phi initiated six new brothers.

For community service, we volunteered with the Special Olympics.

As a social activity, brothers enjoyed a night of black-light bowling. Brothers from all four years were there, as well as our moderator and her husband.

—Emily Detmer

Beta Chi

Drake University

Beta Chi would like to welcome the 20 new brothers to our chapter.

For philanthropy, brothers volunteered at the Ronald McDonald House, the Juvenile Diabetes Foundation, and at the American Heart Association walk.

Beta Chi would like to congratulate and recognize our brothers initiated into Rho Chi, the national pharmacy honor society: Brian Herring, Elizabeth Steenson, Erin Stovall, and Crystal Truax.

Socially, Beta Chi hosted a tubing party for the university's pharmacy fraternities and held our spring formal. We have started making plans for our 75th anniversary in 2005.

We would also like to congratulate Marc Dzradosi on qualifying for the 2004 Olympics in the triple jump. We all wish him the best of luck.

—Erin Pender

Gamma Zeta

Samford University

For community service, we held a blood drive and collected stuffed animals for children at the children's hospital.

For fund raising, we sold drug cards and T-shirts.

The brothers of Gamma Zeta hosted a McWhorter School of Pharmacy semiformal.

Gamma Zeta is also making plans to host the Province meeting next January.

We hold brotherhood activities each month to try to form tighter bonds between all of our brothers.

Gamma Eta

University of Montana

Gamma Eta elected new officers as follows: Beth Rasmussen, regent; Glenn Kulzer, vice regent; Gianna Brusati, secretary; Crystal Chilson, corresponding secretary; Greg Weller, treasurer; Andy Hintzpeter, chaplain; Tara Bolte and Brooke Skalsky, co-historians; Matt Evens, sergeant at arms; Jared Mattson and Ryan Burfeind, co-social chairs; Nick Link, D.S.A.C representative; Angie Nygaard and Jason Miley, Province X delegates; and Rebecca Hoffman and Justin Jonart, co-philanthropy chairs.

For fund raising, we sold caffeine mugs and held a quilt raffle.

Several Gamma Eta brothers attended the annual Province X assembly, hosted by Beta Pi, in Spokane,

Gamma Iota

University of Buffalo

Gamma Iota would like to congratulate the 12 new brothers initiated into our chapter: Amanda Boeckel, Lucas Bryk, Joe Couto, Correy Goodwin, Kwaku Marfo, Wen Li, Todd Ordan, Kerri Peterson, Lisa Smith, Niki Wahl, Steve Webster, and Regina Will.

For community service, we participated in a diabetes walk, wellness clinics, and the Buffalo News Kids Day, where we sold newspapers to raise money for Children's Hospital. Gamma Iota brothers collected toys for the Toys for Tots program and then held a party. Washington. We caught up on everything that the other chapters were doing, passed 17 resolutions, and elected new Province officers as follows: Matt Dickson, immediate past satrap; Jared Mattson, satrap; and Brooke Skalsky, secretary/treasurer. Many Province X traditions were continued, including Pez requests and the Room 561 social award, presented to Tana Mathis, Hilary Krass, and Amanda Turley, for hosting many hours of fellowship in their room. Jared Mattson, newly elected satrap, led the polar bear tradition at the nearest body of frozen water. An amazing time was had by all brothers, and we are looking forward to next year's conclave in Seattle, hosted by Beta Omicron.

We held our annual semiformal Christmas party for the school of pharmacy and allied health sciences. The festivities included a delicious five-course turkey dinner with all the trimmings, an appearance by Santa (Brother Dough Coffin) and a night of dancing.

exchange, where Santa and two of his elves entertained the kids and the kids at heart.

Our chapter also started a newsletter that will be published four times a year. Two issues have been completed and we hope to continue this project.

Gamma Kappa

University of South Dakota

We have two new pledges who are quickly learning the ways of Kappa Psi.

We held numerous free blood pressure screenings for the public at a pharmacy. Several brothers traveled to Pierre, our state capital, to help out with Legislative Days. Blood pressure, blood glucose, and cholesterol screenings were given to legislators and lobbyists free of charge. Gamma Kappa set up a booth at the annual SDSU Wellness Fair, where we also conducted cholesterol screenings. We also handed out yellow ribbons to pharmacy students, faculty, and staff in support of our troops.

Dr. Bruce Currie, a faculty brother, is honored with a farewell party before he moves to California. His Gamma Kappa brothers will miss him!

Gamma Pi St. Louis College of Pharmacy

Gamma Pi inducted new officers who are eager to help improve our chapter.

We held a blood drive that helped the American Red Cross in a time of need, delivered flowers on Valentine's Day, and sold tickets to a hockey game. We also decorated a children's shelter for St. Patrick's Day.

Gamma Pi brothers have been busy traveling, visiting Mu chapter, as well as attending the Province IV assembly in Georgia and our Province VII assembly in Dallas. Melissa O'Neill was elected vice satrap, and our chapter received the Chapter of the Year and Man Mile awards.

Socially, we are making plans for our annual float trip in July and homecoming activities.

On a sad note, brother Dr. Byron Barnes passed away February 24, 2004. He pledged Kappa Psi in 1949. He was the dean emeritus at the St. Louis College of Pharmacy and was respected in his field.

Gamma Upsilon University of Arizona

Gamma Upsilon chapter participated in our school's Patient Experience, where health science students experienced the difficulties patients deal with on a daily basis.

Several brothers went to the Province meeting in Phoenix, hosted by Midwestern University.

Socially, Gamma Upsilon brothers enjoyed bowling.

—Ian Mikami

Gamma Phi University of Georgia

Gamma Phi elected new officers as follows: Stephen Faires, regent; Michael Wynne, vice regent; Nicholas Bland, secretary; Josh Canavan, treasurer; Matt Wood, pledge master; Clay Cooper, parliamentarian; Joey Burg, sergeant at arms; Chandler Greene, chaplain; and Anthony Pepin, alumni affairs. Gamma Phi brothers have faith in these dedicated new officers and feel that they can only lead us to bigger and better things.

We held our annual Kappa Psi Grinch party. Admission to the party was a toy that was donated to the Marine Corps' Toys for Tots program. Gamma Phi brothers and fellow pharmacy students came together to celebrate the holiday season and watch both the classic and new versions of the Dr. Seuss tale. We all had fun, but more importantly, we collected 100 toys for children who might otherwise not have had anything to open on Christmas. We also held a blood drive and collected nearly 40 pints of blood.

Gamma Phi had the honor of hosting the Province IV assembly. Brothers were treated to a welcoming party at the Kappa Psi house before business meetings. New Province officers were elected, and a number of topics of concern were both discussed and resolved. All chapters presented their entertaining slide shows to give brothers a taste of Kappa Psi at all the different schools. The Province Reception and Awards Ceremony were held at the exquisite Foundry Inn in Athens. Exiting satrap and Gamma Phi brother Beauman Dick conducted the festivities, and we were all honored by the presence of Grand Regent Anthony Palmieri and Grand Ritualist Becky Nowak.

Gamma Phi hosted a welcome-back party for all UGA pharmacy students. We raised almost $200 to aid a fellow pharmacy student from Missouri who was recently diagnosed with colon cancer. The brothers of Gamma Phi hope this small contribution will help our friend beat this terrible disease.

—James Kilgore

Gamma Chi

Ferris State University

Gamma Chi rush activities included broomball, snow football, and board games. We then initiated two new brothers, Kathryn Sanderson and Christopher Gepfey, and have four associate brothers.

Gamma Chi brothers volunteered at the Special Olympics' Poly Hockey Tournament in Lansing, Michigan. We held our annual Big Brothers Big Sisters Halloween party for neighborhood kids, complete with costumes, pumpkin carving, and a haunted house. Brothers also volunteered at the Ferris State University Winter Job Fair, the Big Brothers Big Sisters Bowl for Kid's Sake, and the Walk for Warmth, benefitting the March of Dimes. We also had a Big Brothers Big Sisters Easter party and sponsored a blood drive with the Association of Clinical Laboratory Sciences.

For Thanksgiving, we invited our advisors, professors, and friends to Thanksgiving dinner.

—Lindsey Berlinghoff

Delta Delta

University of Houston

Delta Delta initiated 18 new brothers. Thanks to our pledge master, Anuja Parikh, and pledge trainers, Leyva Olivares and Jeena Jacob.

Our chapter worked with children at the Houston Children's Museum of Art and helped build a house for Habitat for Humanity.

Delta Delta chapter, along with Delta Theta, will co-host Province in spring 2005 in Houston. For more information, check out our Web site at www.geocities.com/stugatsa/

Our spring formal was held at the J.W. Marriott Hotel.

—Pejmon Afshar

Delta Epsilon

Duquesne University

Delta Epsilon held a toy drive for Children's Hospital, a coat drive for the homeless, and Daffodil Days.

Delta Epsilon chapter is proud to announce that two of our brothers were elected to office in Province II. Amy Jawdy is our new satrap and Kelly Fee is historian. They have each held several offices in our chapter and are consistent in their Kappa Psi commitments.

—Autumn Bryan

Delta Zeta

The University of Iowa

Delta Zeta brothers danced for 24 hours at The University of Iowa's 10th annual Dance Marathon to raise money for families of cancer patients. This year, $625,758.10 was raised. Some of our brothers volunteered to work security during this event. We also continue to serve meals at the Ronald McDonald House.

For fund raising, we made ice cream cones at Carver Hawkeye Arena during wrestling meets and a cheer-leading competition, and sold breakfast two mornings each week in the pharmacy building. We held our Evening at Diamond Dave's, where we host, bus tables, wash dishes, and wait tables at Diamond Dave's restaurant, in addition to holding a silent auction and raffle. Brothers also sold University of Iowa and college of pharmacy fleeces to students.

Delta Zeta also finds time to relax and socialize over pizza.

Delta Iota

Florida A&M University

Delta Iota brothers invited Brother Michael Thompson, PharmD, to speak at a seminar "HIV/AIDS 101: What you thought you knew, but didn't," co-hosted with Kappa Alpha Psi Fraternity, Inc.

Delta Iota hosted Women's Appreciation Day in conjunction with Kappa Epsilon during their Founders' Week, just before Valentine's Day. The ladies met all of the brothers and then indulged themselves with back and hand rubs, strawberries and whipped cream, cake, sparkling cider, and carnations.

We attended the Province IV assembly in Athens, Georgia, hosted by Gamma Phi. This trip was an especially memorable weekend as our newest brothers experienced brotherhood and what it means to be in Kappa Psi on more than just the local level. William Woolfork was elected Province satrap, and we wish him the best of luck.

Our annual Scarlet and Cadet Gray Ball was held at the Doubletree Hotel. The evening included limo shuttles to and from the hotel from our new pharmacy building, dinner, a live band, as well as a disc jockey.

—Nick Brown

Delta Kappa Howard University

For community service, Delta Kappa brothers handed out candy bags to kids at the Howard University Daycare Center. We supported Rho Chi at the NBC-4 Health Show at the new Washington Convention Center. We helped Kappa Epsilon and Phi Delta Chi fraternities with a canned food drive for the homeless shelter in Washington, D.C. Delta Kappa also attended a Howard University Pre-Pharmacy Club meeting, where we encouraged students to become pharmacists and explained the importance of pharmacists in our society today.

We also advised them on details of the admissions process.

For fund raising, we sold silver key chains, engraved with an HU Rx logo. We are proud because almost everyone in pharmacy school now owns a key chain.

Delta Kappa brothers Adesola Adejuwon, Kamaria Brown, and Ramsi Bethany were welcomed into Who's Who. Congratulations to our brothers on the Dean's List: Tricia Muhammad, Nicole Thorpe, Alanna Farrell, Adora Nwankwo, Kamaria Brown, Leah Smith, and Awanna Carroll. Kamaria Brown was also nominated as the most outstanding member of Phi Lambda Sigma.

Delta Kappa held its 16th annual Fall Kappa Psi Week. The week began with a pharmacy career seminar with Dr. Wutoh, one of our professors, on the different areas of pharmacy. The next morning, we had a Wake Up with Kappa Psi breakfast for pharmacy school students and staff, provided by McDonald's. The following day we had an interesting meeting and lunch, where we emphasized the need to become a brother of a challenging fraternity like Kappa Psi. On the last day, we had a Halloween pizza party for the students.

—Olive Ayime
—Cheryl Gilbreath

Delta Lambda Campbell University

Delta Lambda held several rush activities and now has three pledges. We also elected new officers.

We sold tickets to our annual taco dinner to benefit the Falcon's Children's Home. We also participated in roadside cleanups, pharmacy school entrance interviews, and bake sales.

Many of our brothers are serving as big brothers and big sisters to undergraduates in the Pre-Pharmacy Club.

Delta Kappa is proud of the 2003 GCC Rite-Aid Pharmacy Jeopardy winners—the Province III Team, San Diego, 2003.

Erin Eades, Brian Cooke, Gene Clemente, and Eli Sutherland received Brother of the Month awards.

Socially, we went to a Carolina Hurricanes game and held a Super Bowl party. Four Delta Lambda brothers were engaged over Christmas break: Eric Hulin and Kelly Reigel, and Matthew Dunham and Aleesha Carpenter.

—Aleesha Carpenter

Delta Omicron Wilkes University

We had a rush party at Rodano's Pizza. The pizza and wings were awesome, but sadly, no pledges.

Delta Omicron successfully finished facilitating our first Smoking Cessation Clinic, sponsored by the American Lung Association. Everyone who attended the clinic has quit smoking. Our chapter worked hard on this program. Several brothers were also certified in the Open Airways program, sponsored by the American Lung Association. These brothers can go and teach elementary students about asthma.

The brothers of Delta Omicron would like to thank Beta Omega for hosting the Province II assembly. Thanks for all of your hard work in making the meeting, parties, and banquet a blast.

We held our annual spaghetti dinner and meeting. We have some great cooks in our chapter. We also had a St. Patrick's Day party.

—Freda Luckenbaugh

Delta Sigma Midwestern University, Glendale

After finishing a busy rush schedule, Delta Sigma initiated 31 new brothers. They are: Luis Amparan, Roberto Ansaldo, Yumi Averill, Michelle Boeck, Yenna Bui, David Chan, Peter Chang, Christina Cung, Joe Estrada, Jamie Fishburn, JoAnn Franko, Samantha Gimbel, Lindsay Huxtable, Rick Johnson, Keith Kolimaga, Violetta Kotsifis, Michelle Lambert, Viet Le, Samantha Low, Payal Makadia, Amy Miller, Bao Nguyen, Lindsey Obradovich, Josh Rolin, Inger Scott, Brooke Steefes, Kristy

Straw, John Weber, Jennifer Williams, Seth Williams, and Jessica Wilts. Our new brothers were initiated a few weeks prior to the Province IX assembly hosted by our chapter. This gave our new brothers the opportunity to meet brothers from around the Province. The pledge period was a great success, thanks to George Dooling, Beth Gura, and the Rush Committee.

For fund raising, brothers sold pharmacy drug cards. This annual fund-raiser involves selling cards for the top 200 drugs, top IV drugs, and common nonprescription drugs.

We were honored and proud to host the Province IX assembly. Our brothers were delighted to bring home the Outstanding Chapter Report award. At the closing banquet, Dr. Craig Johnston presented official Kappa Psi recognition pins to Michelle Lemanski and Kristl Tom for the dedication and hard work put into coordinating the

Delta Upsilon Palm Beach Atlantic University

The Province IV meeting in Athens was the first opportunity for some of

Delta Kappa brothers John Davensbourg and Adesola Adejuwon man the Phi Lambda Sigma Honorary booth during Howard University's Pharmacy School Organization Fair. (Of course, complete with Kappa Psi badge and T-shirt!)

That's the spirit! Delta Upsilon brothers show their Kappa Psi pride at the Province IV meeting in Athens, Georgia.

Delta Phi

University of California, San Diego

Delta Phi chapter has been working hard to develop our new brotherhood by creating the process for our first pledges. Our chaplain and vice regent have been guiding the first pledge class through the learning process of what being a brother in Kappa Psi is all about. Starting new traditions and developing bonds for life are what Delta Phi chapter has been focused on.

As for our brothers, we have been helping each other through a rough academic year. Thanks to the support of each other, we are all going to get through it and then help the class through the tough second year at the UCSD School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences.

—Dan Ford

Boston Graduate

Boston Graduate chapter assisted Mu with its pledging activities and would like to congratulate and welcome the chapter's newest collegiate brothers.

With a shortage of Kappa Psi activities in our region, the brothers of Boston Graduate chapter embraced the opportunity for another road trip. We have become masters of the rented minivan and can advise that a Dodge Caravan is less roomy and less ventilated than a Chevy Venture. Our minivan took us to the Province II assembly in Philadelphia. We learned in West Virginia that Province II knows how to throw a party, and they did not disappoint us this time around. Once again, we would like to thank the brothers of Province II for the invitation and another great time. We are looking forward to the Province I assembly in Albany and Mu's annual smoker, where we will be awarding the first Boston Graduate scholarship in quite some time.

—David R. Caristi

Minnesota Graduate

The Minnesota Graduate chapter has been working with Epsilon on some of their philanthropy projects. For example, we are available to answer any questions they might have while volunteering at the Phillips Neighborhood Clinic on Monday evenings.

Many of our brothers are attending other Province assemblies.

Socially, we set aside brotherhood time by scheduling a dinner theatre night out.

The next Minnesota Graduate chapter meeting will be held at Christy Askew's house on May 20, 2004. If you are interested in attending or becoming a member of Minnesota Graduate, please contact Becky Nowak at bjnowak@exite.com

Montana Graduate

Montana graduates supported Gamma Eta brothers traveling to Kappa Psi meetings. The graduates offered Province X assembly registration scholarships to Gamma Eta brothers to attend this year's meeting in Spokane, Washington. As a result, in part, 26 collegiate brothers attended the meeting and learned more about brotherhood outside of their chapter. Thanks to brothers like Ellyn Grant for this type of support. Grizzly Graduate was also in attendance at the meeting, including Drew Poplaski, Randal Adair, and Craig Johnston. Brother Randal helped shuttle brothers to and from the activities around and out of town, and offered his home to help those who wanted to leave for other meetings from Spokane to save money.

Stephanie Janson, past Gamma Eta regent, lives in Phoenix and offered her new home as an oasis to brothers attending the Province IX meeting in Glendale, Arizona.

Any Montana Graduate brother not receiving e-mail notices about Gamma Eta and Montana Graduate should send an e-mail to Dr. Johnston, secretary of Montana Graduate, at ratdr@selway.umt.edu to be added to the lists.

To all brothers of Kappa Psi, whenever you are in Western Montana, give us a call and you will be guaranteed hospitality.

Pacific Graduate

Several Pacific Graduate chapter brothers joined collegiate brothers, potential pledges, and pharmacists at the San Joaquin Pharmacists Association Crab Feed. Those in attendance were: Dr. Satinder Sandhu; Adam and Beth Kaye; Greg and Sarah Umeda; Richard Abood; Patrick Catania; Thanh Nguyen; Gabe and Leanne Leung; Samuel Hodges and his fiancé, Laurie Wong; David Mitchell; Ross and Iris Chang; Michael Cuellar; Tom Maez; Eric Gupta; Derrick Egi; and Donald Floriddia. There was also a $5,000 raffle. It was a great success for the association as well as the Fraternity.

The graduate chapter made a strong showing at the Gamma Nu rush chapter dinner. For the first time, dinner took place at Brookside Country Club in the Mount Diablo Room. The room was filled with nearly 100 alumni, brothers, their guests, and potential pledges. Collegiate Brother Leland Ibarra put the show together, while Jon Nakao, Gamma Nu regent, introduced each collegiate and alumni member in his speech. Having each one stand, he told the potentials that before them was the past, the present, and the future of Kappa Psi. Brother Gupta also said that every person who attended the dinner had a reason for showing interest in the Fraternity, but the ability to exist in a group and accomplish more than they could individually was the key. The message was clear: You can join Kappa Psi for any number of reasons, but it is the sense of brotherhood that will overshadow the rest.

The final speaker of the night was Dr. Michael Pastrick, a brother and former mayor of Concord, California. He talked about members of local and national committees who are brothers of Kappa Psi, helping our profession in some capacity.

Also in attendance that evening were Dr. Gupta; Dr. Pastrick and his wife, Nora; Roger Santos; Sunny Bains; Jag Jaspal; Ryan Taal; Peter Koo; Mitch Nagao; David and Cecil Mitchell; Gabe and Leanne Leung; Kevin Okuni; Samuel Hodges and his fiancé, Laurie

Wong; Roland Lee; Greg and Sarah Umeda; Pat Chan; Brad Hanna; Robert and Janice Halliwell; Adam and Beth Kaye; Patrick Cantania; Scott Spears; Michael Cuellar; Ominder Mehta; Derrick Egi; Kenny Morin and his fiancé, Stacey Thompson; Chris Amaral; and Donald Floriddia.

Besides eating, Pacific Graduate chapter is working on bringing out issues of our dormant newsletter to bring back some of our lost alumni.

Province II

Risk management has always been a priority in Province II, and we will be redistributing our risk management educational CD. Graduate relations is working to foster active pledges in hopes that they will carry on as active brothers for many years to come.

As a Province, we served the community at local free clinics and raised money for Wes McIntyre.

Nearly 100 brothers made the arduous journey through snow and fog to the City of Brotherly Love for what proved to be an excellent weekend filled with fellowship and celebration of brotherhood. Brothers from Beta Eta, Beta Kappa, Beta Omega, Delta Epsilon, Delta Omicron, Pittsburgh Graduate, Pocono Graduate, Boston Graduate, and Philadelphia Graduate attended this Province assembly, hosted by Beta Omega. Dave Maszkiewicz, Becky Nowak, Andy Frasco, and Erick Sousa attended from the Executive Office, as well as Province II supervisor Tracy Anderson-Haag.

On Friday evening, Beta Omega opened their doors and threw a great party in their North Philadelphia house. Brothers caught up with one another, played games, danced, and went through Beta Omega scrapbooks dating back to the '70s. On Saturday, we went to the Holiday Inn in the Historic District to conduct business, elect new officers, and have a banquet. All chapters and Province officers had been hard at work since the last time they met in West Virginia. Beta Eta made all of the chapters copies of the slide shows presented at the fall Province so brothers who could not attend could stay informed as to what is going on in the Province.

The newly elected Province officers are: Amy Jawdy of Delta Epsilon, satrap; Vince Hartzell of Delta Omicron, vice satrap; Adam Bell of Beta Kappa, secretary; Luke Moyer of Beta Omega, treasurer; Kelly Fee of Delta Epsilon, historian; and Amanda Berens of Beta Eta, chaplain. Southwestern Graduate

Southwestern Graduate chapter recorded a number of firsts in Dallas. Our chapter became the first graduate chapter to solely sponsor a Province meeting. The meeting was also the first where online meeting registration was extensively used. More than 170 brothers attended the meeting. An especially large number, considering that the host chapter had only five brothers in attendance.

The highlight of the meeting was, once again, Brother E. Ben Welch's presentation of the Southwestern Graduate chapter report "SWGC World Tour #4." Brothers enjoyed the photos of various SWGC brothers on their tour, including the limo pickup, which was their main mode of transportation. We would like to thank all brothers for attending the Province VII meeting in Dallas and hope to see you all in Houston in 2005.

Many thanks to the brothers of Beta Omega for a glorious weekend. In addition, thank you, Kevin Hennesy and Michael Cinque of ExcelleRx, for sponsoring the wine and cheese, as well as sharing a new practice opportunity with the brothers. We look forward to our next assembly at Beta Kappa in the fall.

Beta Eta went on a ski trip, Beta Kappa made valentines for kids at the Children's Hospital, and Beta Omega raised money for Special Olympics. The brothers of Delta Epsilon have four prospective pledges and just had a busy Pharmacy Week at Duquesne. Delta Omicron set up a smoking cessation clinic.

Province IV

Province IV continued working with the American Red Cross, our philanthropy, and almost every chapter has participated in one way or another.

From Minnesota to Auburn, New York to the Bahamas, brothers gathered in Athens, Georgia, for a great time, Province IV style. We would like to send a special thanks to Grand Regent Anthony Palmieri, Grand Ritualist Becky Nowak, Minnesota Graduate, Psi, and Gamma Pi for attending our annual Province IV meeting. We would like to welcome our new supervisor, Lou Diorio. Gamma Phi was a wonderful host and everyone had a good time. Gamma Psi was named Province IV Chapter of the Year.

We really appreciate all of the work our officers have done in the past year. Congratulations to our new officers: William Woolfork, satrap; Alan Mumford, vice satrap; Doug Drummond, secretary/treasurer; Kali Jernigan, historian; P.J. Laucka, parliamentarian; and Gabe McLemore, chaplain.

Delta Upsilon will host our interim meeting in June. We hope you will join us for a good time in West Palm Beach.

Province V

Our chapters are still working on philanthropy projects with the Special Olympics, including the Bobblehead Dave dolls. You can find more information regarding the bobblehead doll by visiting www.geocities.com/bobblebeaddave. Another valuable source of information is the Province V Yahoo! listserve, which you can join by visiting <http://groups.yahoo.com/group/KappaPsiProvince5/>. This is an excellent method of communication within the Province, and we welcome brothers from other provinces to join and stay up-to-date on exciting activities in Province V.

Province V held its annual Province meeting in Madison, Wisconsin, hosted by Beta Psi.

Province VII

The Province VII assembly was held in Dallas. The Southwestern Graduate chapter hosted the meeting and this is the first time a graduate chapter has hosted a meeting. More than 165 brothers from 10 collegiate chapters and three graduate chapters were in attendance. Also in attendance were Anthony Palmieri, Grand Regent; Becky Nowak, Grand Ritualist; Andrew Frasco, graduate member at large; Johnny Porter, Editor of THE MASK; Ben Welch, Webmaster; Scott Long, Executive Director; and Robert Magarian, past Executive Director. Thanks for showing your support for Province VII.

Shawn Gautreux, vice satrap, who was filling in as satrap, called Saturday morning's meeting to order. The meeting commenced with Province officer, Grand Officer, and chapter reports that were entertaining, encouraging, and informative. Anthony Palmieri took a moment to honor many of the dignitaries who came from Province VII, including Ken Roberts, Dewey Garner, Pat Wells, Johnny Porter, Scott Long, Robert Magarian, E. Ben Welch, and Dr. Leonard Naeger. He then led us in singing "Happy Birthday to You" for Kappa Psi, and charged every chapter with donating $125 to the Kappa Psi Society in honor of our 125th anniversary.

Becky Nowak gave information about the next GCC in Pittsburgh and encouraged everyone to begin planning now. She is working on a program to print copies of the revised Ritual book and make sure each chapter has adequate copies. Copies of the Ritual are also available on DVD. She invited everyone to visit the Kappa Psi booth at the APhA meeting in Seattle and attend the Kappa Psi reception. Lastly, she reminded everyone to mail in chapter progress reports.

Andrew Frasco encouraged every chapter to make an effort to find their graduates and keep them involved, not only for money, but also networking and more old-school brotherhood. He also updated us on the status of the Bobblehead Dave project. Melissa O'Neill, historian, gave a short slide show of Province VII brothers at GCC. Ben Calcaterra, webmaster, is working hard to get Gamma Gamma back on track. Jenny Donaldson, Province VII supervisor, enlightened the Province with a short workshop on risk management. Pfizer sponsored lunch, with a CE provided by Bethany Boyd, "Current Issues in the U.S. Pharmaceuticals Market."

The following committees met after lunch: Legislative, Time/Place, Resolutions, Auditing, and Awards. The third general session included committee reports and a long election process. The Province VII officers for 2004–2005 are: Shawn Gautreux, satrap; Melissa O'Neill, vice satrap;

Andrew Hilterbran, secretary/treasurer; ShaCarla Watkins, historian; Dawn LaFleur, chaplain; and Ben Calcaterra, Webmaster.

The Province donated $500 to the Wes McIntyre Fund, and Gamma Theta brothers collected several hundred dollars for the fund during the banquet. Gamma Pi also donated more than $250 to the fund.

On Saturday evening, a banquet dinner at the Radisson was held and included the induction of officers, awards, and a raffle. Gamma Pi chapter was awarded Chapter of the Year and Man-Mile. They had 30 brothers in attendance who all traveled more than 600 miles. Psi chapter was awarded Most Improved Chapter. Following the banquet, brothers went out to explore the city. About 50 brothers ended up at the Lizard Lounge and were even announced on Wild 100.3 FM. The weekend ended Sunday morning with coffee for the ride home.

Province VII would like to thank the Southwestern Graduate chapter for all of their hard work in hosting the event, especially Johnny Porter. We would also like to thank the sponsors and contributors for the weekend: Dr. Leonard Naeger, Eckerd Drug, K-Mart, Pfizer, Southwestern Graduate Chapter, and Walgreens. The Province VII Executive Committee would like to thank everyone who attended this year's meeting. We hope you had a great meeting. The next Province VII meeting will be in April 2005 in Houston. The meeting is being co-chaired by Delta Delta and Delta Theta.

Province X

The Province X convention was hosted by Beta Pi in Spokane, Washington.

The weekend began on Friday evening when brothers from Beta Omicron, Beta Pi, Gamma Eta, and Delta Mu were reunited and introduced to new brothers. Festivities began with dinner, followed by a night out on the town in Spokane. Brothers enjoyed socializing and dancing, and also had the opportunity to meet with our new supervisor from Arizona, Bonita Shin.

On Saturday morning, following the traditional Ritual opening, Province X meetings officially began. Officer reports and welcoming was followed by the discussion of Rituals and the history of Kappa Psi. The importance of fellowship, industry, sobriety, and high ideals was stressed, and all chapters resolved to endeavor to increase education and the incorporation of Rituals in their chapters. After round-table discussions, chapter reports, and committee and officer nominations, the meeting was adjourned for the day and brothers switched into ski gear.

Activities were then moved to Mount Spokane, where brothers enjoyed a night of skiing and playing games in the lodge. While at first a heavy fog threatened to spoil the fun, it soon lifted and the hard-core skiers had several good runs. Other brothers were quite content to remain indoors with card games and socializing to keep them entertained for the duration. The fellowship and brotherhood continued back at the hotel that evening.

Sunday's activities started with a general business meeting. Committee reports and officer elections were the highlights of the morning. The anniversary banquet was held that evening with the installation of new officers and award presentations. Province X brothers welcomed their new executive board: Jared Mattson, Garrish, chaplain. We also thanked outgoing officers Matt Dickson, immediate past satrap; Valerie Hunter, vice satrap; Beth Rasmussen, secretary/treasurer; Bridget Moynihan, historian; and Jaime Curelas, chaplain, for an excellent convention. Awards were presented to the outgoing officers, as well as Best Chapter Report to Beta Pi, the Travel Award to Delta Mu, and the Most Hospitable Room to the Gamma Eta girls. To celebrate the fact that all of our chapters are coed, all the girls in attendance were presented a long-stemmed red rose to show appreciation for the diversity they add to our Fraternity.

We are also very thankful for all the work of the hosting chapter, Beta Pi, and Val Hunter, in preparing for the event. Our new supervisor, Bonita Shin, was excellent to work with, and we feel she will be a tremendous asset to our Province.

Another tradition was continued when brothers swam in the nearest body of water in the annual polar bear swim, this year in a river outside the hotel. The evening concluded with dancing and socializing with brothers, well into the next morning.

Province X has a truly diverse group of brothers who are spread throughout the region from British Columbia, Western Washington, Eastern Washington, and Montana, traveling no less than three hours for our annual meeting. Despite the distance, we are still able to come together in unity through our common bond of brotherhood in Kappa Psi.

We will all meet again next year in Seattle when Beta Omicron hosts the convention.

Changing of the Guard at the Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Foundation, Inc. 1992–2004

Norman A. Campbell, J.D., Ph.D., R.Ph.

Past Grand Regent, Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity (1972–1974)

Past President, Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Foundation, Inc. (1992–2004)

I still can recall vividly the telephone call from the late Brother William R. Smith during his term as Grand Regent. It was on a summer afternoon during the summer of 1990 while I was a relief pharmacist in a community pharmacy. He asked if I could take on the task of “creating a foundation” to generate funds which could be used to support Brothers in meeting their educational expenses. As a pharmacist-lawyer employed in academia, I learned a number of skills via the pro bono route, so I approached this task as a “learning experience” as well.

By 1992 the constitution and by-laws were adopted and the first officers and board of directors were in place. On February 16, 1993, the Foundation was officially incorporated. The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) subsequently granted Section 501(c)(3) status and we began our quest for contributions and initial distribution of scholarships.

As a result of the generosity of individual brothers and number of business entities, we gave the first two scholarships of $500 in 1995. Now, we have awarded $50,000 to 48 brothers through 2003. At the March 2004 meeting of the Foundation’s Board of Directors in Seattle during the APhA Annual Meeting, it was decided to distribute $14,000 in 2004. These allocations will be two named scholarships at $2,500 (The Pfizer and The MME/Reisetter), and six at $1,500. Active negotiations are underway with additional companies concerning support for named scholarships. Firms and individuals wishing to learn more about how to participate in this opportunity should contact Past Grand Regent John Grossomanides, the Foundation Executive Director, at yanni7@yahoo.com.

Many folks have been instrumental in getting this project up and running. Let me first recognize members of the Board of Directors: Brothers Kenneth W. Kirk (Treasurer), Frank E. Cirillo, James T. Doluisio, Salvatore J. Giorgianni (new President 2004–), John Grossomanides (Executive Director), Belinda Hardin, J.

Bruce Laughrey, Scott F. Long (Secretary), Robert A. Magarian (former Secretary), Kenneth B. Roberts, Joseph V. Roney, and the late Raymond A. Gosselin, Jr. The members of the scholarship screening committee have been critical to the selection process and they are: Brothers Donald G. Floriddia, Dewey D. Garner (Chair), and Alan L. Hanson. Their independent review relieves the Board of Directors from potential conflict in deciding recipients. It should be noted all the above are volunteers and receive no compensation or expenses from the Foundation to participate, attend meetings, etc.

While absolute separation between the Fraternity and the Foundation is a requirement to maintain the Foundation’s tax-exempt status, Fraternity policy has benefited the Foundation enormously in the past couple of years. A decision by the Kappa Psi Executive Committee to transfer certain fund category solicitations from the Fraternity to the Foundation has impacted the Foundation’s assets positively in only a short period of time. Most recently, Grand Regent Palmieri encouraged chapters and other Fraternity subunits to celebrate Kappa Psi’s 125th anniversary by making Foundation contributions in the amount of $125. Returns to date indicate very good response. All Directors present at the Board meeting in Seattle were sufficiently impressed by the response to each pledge to participate.

As I pass the symbolic leadership of the Foundation to Brother Giorgianni, I am confident that his leadership will take us to new heights. He and the Board need everyone’s input and support, financial as well as recommendations and ideas. If your employer conducts a matching program for charitable contributions, please consider this option when supporting the Foundation.

On behalf of the 48 brothers you’ve helped to date and those yet to be recipients of Foundation scholarships, I thank you!
