BACK TO SCHOOL

Working together: a to-do list

Brothers of Kappa Psi,

As we begin this new semester, I thought I would share some thoughts with you regarding how we can work together over the next couple of semesters for a productive year of activities. Here they are. I hope they help:

1. Remember to plan your semester's events as soon as possible. It is always a good idea for your chapter officers to meet at the beginning of the new year as well. Think about what needs to be done each semester and make your calendar our now.

2. Take time to analyze each event you add to your calendar. How successful was this event last year? What improvements could be made, or should we consider a completely different event? Whether a social, community or professional project, each activity should be rigorously analyzed and updated. Remember that perfection is a process over time, not a specific endpoint.

3. Make sure you keep up with your national paperwork for Kappa Psi. You will see other information in this issue of The MASK that we have a new Executive Director, Scott Long. Everything will work much more smoothly for everyone if you take time to complete the forms in the fall packet and return the requested information by the required date. Also, make a quick note of The Central Office's new address, phone numbers and e-mail addresses to assure timely responses.

4. Make sure your chapter is active over the upcoming semesters within your province. Your provinces need your input and participation, and they are a great place to learn how to make your chapter stronger.

5. Put articles in every issue of The MASK. We constantly hear from graduate members of Kappa Psi that they were disappointed not to be able to keep up with their collegiate chapter's activities in The MASK. There are four issues of The MASK each year, and the deadlines are published within each issue. We all want to know what you are doing, and we need your articles for a historical account of Kappa Psi's activities.

6. Try to include some activities which involve both your collegiate and graduate brothers. The interaction between graduate and collegiate brothers is invaluable to the growth of both chapters, but it is sometimes difficult to schedule such an event. Plan early to make sure you get as much participation as possible from both groups.

7. Take some time to think about your chapter's future. How will your future leaders know what works best, and how will they tap into what you know about Kappa Psi? (Keep good notes and records!) Also, what plans need to be made NOW to make Kappa Psi successful three, five or ten years from now? Strategic planning is a must for our future existence!

8. Keep your eyes out for upcoming information on the next Grand Council Convention scheduled for August 2001 in Ft. Lauderdale, Florida. We are hoping for a record turnout, and have some great ideas for a successful meeting. We will be making more announcements in the weeks ahead.

I hope this list helps focus your chapter on what needs to be done over the next two semesters and beyond. I wish you all well, and hope to see you at a province meeting, APhA, ASHP, or a chapter visitation over the next few months. Until then, take care.

Fraternally,

Brian Reisetter, R.Ph., M.B.A.
Grand Regent

P.S. Let's all add one more item to the list. Most of you have had some contact with Brother Robert Magarian over the last 20 years as our Executive Director. Take a minute to send him a note, or give him a call to wish him well and thank him for his years of service. He deserves it. Thanks Bob!

Kappa Psi at the APhA Meeting

by Anthony Palmieri III,
Grand Historian

The 2000 APhA meeting was held in Washington DC. As usual the Kappa Psi reception was a highlight for the Brothers in attendance. This was the opportunity to meet International Officers and interact with Brothers from other chapters to discuss mutual concerns. Over 500 Brothers were in attendance at the reception on Sunday to honor Brother Varro “Tip” Tyler who was recognized by Kappa Psi for his lifelong contributions to our profession. Brother Tyler is an internationally recognized expert on herbal medicines and has written the premier text on pharmacognosy as well as numerous lay texts on herbals. He is a published author on the history of pharmacy and pharmaceutical education trends. He has also made considerable contributions to pharmacy education serving as Dean at Purdue and as a Professor of Pharmacognosy. Brother Tyler spoke fondly of his days as an undergraduate and his meeting many of the Kappa Psi legends. Brother Tip told many touching stories of how his early mentors

The Pharmacy Fraternities held a breakfast at the APhA meeting in Washington, D.C., March 13, 2000 to honor Bob and Charmaine Magarian and new Executive Director, Scott Long.

Scott Long and John Grossomanides share a laugh.

were the legends of Kappa Psi. It is the highest honor that Brother Tyler received at the reception, the A. Richard Bliss, Jr. Citation of Appreciation.

All of the international officers were in attendance at the exhibit booth as were outgoing Executive Director Robert Magarian and new Executive Director Scott Long. To ensure a smooth transition of the Central Office, Bob, Scott and all of the international officers spent long hours together. Over 300 Brothers signed in at the exhibit hall where they were introduced, many for the first time, to the international officers. Be sure to attend the next Kappa Psi reception at the 2001 APhA meeting in San Francisco.

Forty-seven years devoted to pharmacy

Albert M. White, or as he is better known, Dean White or Coach White, is a native of Derby, Connecticut. He attended the University of Connecticut College of Pharmacy, receiving his B.S. in 1948. Al continued as an instructor at the university and studied for and received an M.S. degree in pharmacy in 1952. In a letter of inquiry to then Dean Francis J. O'Brien in late April 1952, regarding a position, Al listed all his many teaching responsibilities and an interesting note that he had coached the college of pharmacy's basketball team.

Dean O'Brien was a man of action. Two days later, he asked if Al could visit on a Saturday or Sunday. On a small 3 x 5 card affixed to correspondence with Dean White he noted, called at college May 24 (a Saturday). Good appearance—language, good prefers mfg—salary—offered $3,200, $500 for basketball. Will let me know about June 1. So started the relationship of Al White and Albany College of Pharmacy some 47 years ago.

During that 47 years ('52-'99), Al not only was a successful "coach" and athletic director, he also assumed responsibility for introduction of many new courses from physical pharmacy to the implementation of a program in clinical pharmacy with the hiring and placing of the first of the new wave of clinical faculty. He instituted a summer clinical pharmacy education program to introduce practioners to this new concept in patient-oriented pharmacy. Al was writing in professional journals about this new form of practice and the changes in education that needed to accompany it in 1962.

With the frenetic pace of events during the academic year and the constant need to change, we easily lose our historic prospective and forget to thank those who started us on our journey. Twenty to twenty-five years ago, when the Al White's of pharmacy were trying to introduce clinical pharmacy services to our institutions and education programs, there was considerable resistance from the medical community, but even more so, from the pharmacy community, including its students and educators. It is not unusual, as any challenge to the "way it has always been done" is always met with skepticism and resistance. This recognition is our way of thanking you Al, for your persistence, vision and patience, and yes, for your stubbornness.

Dean White's Retirement

Since 1952, Albert M. White has been a fixture at the Albany College of Pharmacy. After 47 years of tireless service, Dean White announced his retirement from the college, effective January 1, 2000. Over the years, he has worn many hats at the college, from professor to basketball coach to Dean of Student Affairs, and in each position he has left a lasting legacy.

NEW CENTRAL OFFICE OPENS

The new Central Office opened in Weatherford, Oklahoma on July 5, 2000. Brother Scott Long greeted the arrival of the moving van from Oklahoma City this past June with looks of relief. It had finally arrived and he was ready to begin the process of unpacking, setting up, rearranging and finding all of the lost things.

Executive Director Magarian and the entire staff helped in the process, from packing up and shipping, to helping Dr. Long unpack and set up. Dr. Magarian and Charmaine spent several days with new Executive Director Long and his new staff explaining and leading them through the long task of getting ready for that first official phone call and function. All in all it was a process that went rather smoothly and The Central Office is now up and running. Congratulations to new Executive Director Long and his staff and good luck in the

Chapter Chartered

On April 16, 2000, the Georgia Graduate chapter was officially chartered, and joined the active ranks of Kappa Psi chapters. The ceremony took place at the Gamma Phi house in Athens, Georgia, and was attended by many collegiate brothers from Gamma Phi, and charter members of the graduate chapter.

The charter was most appropriately presented to Georgia Grad Regent B. Kevin Woody, by Grand Counselor and Gamma Phi alumnus, Dr. Tim Eley. Also in attendance were Dave Maszkiewicz, graduate member-at-large and Province IV supervisor, James Oester, Province IV Satrap, Marjorie Showalter, Province IV secretary-treasurer, and Beliah Luther, Province IV historian.

After the chartering, brothers gathered for a social hour at the house and Satrap Oester presented a gift to the grad chapter welcoming them to Province IV. A good time was had by all in attendance.

The Saturday before the chartering, visiting brothers had the opportunity to explore the fine points of Athens, including wine tasting, the cultural shopping districts and watching some local artists at work.

A great deal of congratulations go out to all who, through their hard work and dedication, made this chartering possible.

Those graduates in the Atlanta/Athens area, or anywhere in Georgia for that matter, are urged to join our new chapter. Those interested should contact Steve Purvis, chapter secretary, at 310 River Lodge Dr., Ellijay, GA 30540, by phone at 706-635-2231 or e-mail at spurvis@ellijay.com. Dues are $25 per year and anyone is welcome to join.

Bob:

What a pleasant surprise! I am very honored by this nice recognition, although I must admit I kind of wish I was still at school enjoying those brothers in my pledge class, with whom I've tried to maintain a lifelong relationship (Bruce Hook, Bob Martinek and Frank Wright). Because of my membership in Kappa Psi, I also got to meet and enjoy brothers in grad school and at the pharmaceutical companies in which I practiced my professional and personal life. The emphasis on scholarship, industry, sobriety and fellowship greatly influenced me as a young man and was never ignored nor forgotten. And this cannot be overemphasized and should be always highlighted to our new and yet-to-pledge members. It is the real strength of Kappa Psi.

I've watched with great interest as our fraternity has continued to grow and flourish. I must admit, however, that the inclusion of women in a fraternity at first 'confused' me (my Latin training suggested otherwise), but after a few minutes I decided it sure would have been nice to include coeds when I first joined—it sure has improved chapter eye appeal. I am also impressed with the focus on professional service and outreach on the part of fraternity members. Along those lines, I wonder if the national office could sponsor an annual competition that would recognize (if it doesn't already do so) the chapter(s) that has(have) undertaken a novel/unique service project that further improves individual health knowledge and awareness in their community. I know there's a lot of untapped imagination and drive in our young people and the need for society to see good things happening is even more important in these days of school shootings, etc.

Again, thanks for the citation

Sincerely,

Bill Tillman, PhD (Gamma, 1950)

Epsilon

University of Minnesota

This was a very exciting semester for all of us involved in Kappa Psi. First, we would all like to welcome our newest brothers into the fraternity: Sara Novak, Krys Ogado, Andrew Schmutzler and Ali Toumadj. They have already contributed so much to the fraternity in the short time they have been here.

On the other end of the perspective, we were excited to see the fourth year's graduate. Congratulations to Tracy Anderson, Jeremy Behl, Nichole Carpenter, Mike Haag, Stephanie Im, Rob Konen, Nicole Kruger, Irene Lu, Sisiri Metharonarath, Juki Ng, Johnnie Reglos, Sandra Schinn, Michelle Simpson and Don Terhaar. We expect great things from all these people.

We had another successful year with all of our projects as well. We continued to give STI talks to metro-area high schools. At every school, the students and teachers welcomed us and were willing to learn all they could on the subject. We also had our fundraiser for the Make-A-Wish Foundation (the annual bowl-a-thon) as well as cooking breakfast for the Ronald McDonald House on a Saturday morning.

We want to send a special thanks out to everyone that attended the millennium bash up here in Minnesota. Everyone had a great time meeting brothers from across the U.S. and we thank all of you who rang in the New Year with us. We appreciate everyone who came and had a great time with us.

Epsilon chapter also enjoyed our annual trip to Breezy Point resort to relax before the stress of finals. The weekend was filled with fun and excitement and included a bonfire and golf (even though it was only about 55 degrees!) Everyone had a great time and we all look forward to next year when we can go back.

Theta

Medical College of Virginia

Theta chapter enjoyed finishing up the spring semester by initiating 10 new brothers. Under the watchful eye of pledgemaster Leon Shea, the pledges learned the history of Kappa Psi and raised money for a local charity. We would like to congratulate them on their initiation into this great organization. Serve it well! Theta chapter has been working on several projects. We worked with the American Heart Association (AHA), Virginia Blood Services, and Pfizer to complete a phone survey on hypercholesterolemia. Patients were screened at a local YMCA and then followed by telephone to evaluate their course of action when they received their results. We plan to work on a presentation of this material to the Virginia chapter of AHA. Following this, we retired the executive committee and voted in a new group. Theta chapter is now being led by Dave Eades, a rising P-3. Dave is enjoying the Florida sun while his second and third in charge, Mike Elliot and Brian Jones, are doing the dirty work. Mike and Brian, among others, are working on the 2nd annual Kappa Psi golf tournament. Monies generated from this event will benefit our favorite local charity, Richmond Stop Child Abuse Now (SCAN). Lastly, we have begun an e-mail database to increase alumni knowledge of Theta chapter. We hope that this will continue to expand. We can be contacted at ky\_theta@hotmail.com or at www.pharmacy.vcu.edu/kappapsi.

Mu

Massachusetts College of Pharmacy

At the end of the 1999–2000 academic year, Mu chapter looked back on a prosperous year and began preparation for next year. With the addition of eight new brothers, along with the induction of new officers, the chapter looks forward to yet another strong year to come. Congratulations to the new brothers initiated throughout the month of February. They are: Adnan Abdul-Husain, Jorge Delgado, Manvir Dhanjal, Justin Paolino, William Prince, Drilon Saliu, Nate Sessin and Erick Sousa. Mu chapter would like to thank all who participated in the initiation process, and would especially like to thank graduate brothers Frank Petrillo and Joe Giunta for all their time and effort.

On April 29, Mu chapter held our annual "smoker" at Anthony's Restaurant in Malden, Massachusetts. It was a great success with over 50 brothers in attendance, including graduate brothers, as well as Massachusetts

Rho University of Kansas

The Rho chapter at the University of Kansas wrapped up the '99-'00 school year with elections just before finals. Congratulations to the new officers: regent, Sherry Zerr; vice-regent, Jason Moore; secretary, Marla Henne; treasurer, Amanda Teel; chaplain, Julie Miller; sergeant-at-arms, Lindsay Michalcik; and historian, Elizabeth Sebranek.

Since Marla and Amanda were both reelected to their prospective offices, we will especially benefit from their leadership skills.

As most brothers welcomed the break from classes with a balance of summer internships and vacations, they did get a chance to relax together July 14-16. Together with the Gamma Pi chapter from the St. Louis College of Pharmacy, several KU Kappa Psi members enjoyed a float trip in eastern Missouri.

Chi University of Illinois

In April, Chi chapter received a service award from Rush Presbyterian St. Luke's Medical Center and the Department of Therapeutic Recreation at Johnston R. Bowman Center. The award was to recognize and honor Kappa Psi for five years and 500 hours of services dedicated for volunteering to spend time with the elders in Bowman Center.

standing and accepting the many responsibilities as officers. The 12 officers met once a month over the summer to plan a thrilling upcoming academic year.

Thanks to brother Kimberly Gaasrud's brilliant idea, our chapter started the millennium with a new long-term goal. Raising funds for the chapter's house! The funds will not only be donated from alumni, but also from brothers who will be graduating in the years to come.

Beta Epsilon University of Rhode Island

Last semester we successfully held a drug fair in which 18 companies came and set up booths. We also spent time bonding as bothers at various activities such as a Celtics game. We are planning for the fall the first job fair for pharmacists at URI.

—Matthew Lacroix

Beta Kappa University of Pittsburgh

Things have been going great here at the University of Pittsburgh. We initiated a new brother, Addie Tyler, at the end of spring term and celebrated the graduation of seven Kappa Psi brothers, Sima Bajpayee, Lopa Joshi, Creighton Moorehead, Tracy Ohmer, Krista Scardina, Amy Smulski and Kyrsten Zubrod. As a chapter, we enjoyed many activities including senior gifts night, the end of the year party and the formal, held at the Top of the Triangle.

Over the summer, we had a wonderful time hosting the three bikers, Dave, Jake and Justin on their valiant ride across the U.S.A. We also enjoyed a fun-filled day at the annual "summer get together" held this year at the home of brother and new pledgemaster, Becky Godesky. The day involved swimming, pool volleyball, a cookout and a famous raffle by GCD Dave Maszkiewicz. We look forward to the upcoming fall term and are hoping that it brings us a new pledge class of great brothers to be.

—Debra Davis

Beta Nu Creighton University

Beta Nu is proud to announce the new officers for the 2000/2001 school year: Kurt Wargo, regent; Erika Klus, first vice-regent; Miya Franssen, second vice-regent; Melissa Swan, treasurer; Mike Arora, sergeant-at-arms; Jenny Bean, assistant sergeant-at-arms; Stephanie Stephenson, historian; Isaiah Springer, chaplain; and Chris Holewinski, parliamentarian. Brother Laura Hogan is our temporarily-appointed secretary until we resume classes this fall.

This spring we held our annual charity golf tournament. It was a great success with around 40 teams of golfers. We raised over $1,000 for the Child Saving Institute (CSI). To thank us, CSI invited several brothers to attend their annual banquet and be recognized for our efforts.

We had a great turnout of brothers for the spring conclave with nearly half of our active brothers attending. Our spring banquet to induct new officers included a great night of socializing with brothers, friends and alumni. After the school year ended, the Beta Nu and Beta Chi brothers got together for another halfway party in Anita, Iowa. For those who attended, it was a great way to end the year!

We are looking forward to next year. The Beta Nu chapter has already been trying to make plans to have combined activities with the Gamma Epsilon brothers during the fall semester.

—Stephanie Stephenson

Beta Sigma North Dakota State University

In April, eight brothers attended the North Dakota Pharmaceutical Association Convention. Paul (P.T.) Carlson was named Pharmacist of the Year. Congratulations!

We are very happy to report that because of alumni support our remodeling project has begun. At this point, the main floor is being remodeled to add more bedrooms. The kitchen is also being refurbished. Unfortunately, in June, Fargo was hit by a large rain storm that flooded the city. Most of the bedrooms and main floor suffered some damage due to a leaky roof. The basement also took on some water. We have spent a lot of time and energy cleaning up the mess.

We are looking forward to rush this fall. We have been making plans for rush events, sent out a letter to freshmen and will help out at summer orientation. Low membership in recent years has been a problem for our chapter. Hopefully, the combination of a beautifully-remodeled house and an effective fall rush will help us overcome this rough period and emerge a stronger chapter.

—Tracie Demianiuk

Beta Phi University of Cincinnati

We hosted an end-of-the-quarter luau at our house, which was attended by 150 people from the College of Pharmacy. All the brothers enjoyed a cookout and danced the night away to music played by a DJ from a local radio station, Kiss 107.1 FM. Many of the professors also joined us at the festivity and helped our fellow seniors celebrate their upcoming graduation.

At the Beta Nu Spring Banquet, Brothers stand next to their big brothers. L to R: Isaiah (Spike) Springer next to big brother Stephanie Stephenson next to big brother Jami Schell.

In addition, the first-year brothers completed their annual project by landscaping the yard at our Kappa Psi Fraternity house. From hedge trimming to mowing the grass in the rain on a Sunday afternoon, the yard was transformed.

Our vice-regent, Jen Donatelli, also helped to host our annual blood drive, which invited students and faculty to give the gift of life to people in the Cincinnati area. Way to go Jen and to those who donated blood to this needy cause!

Now that the long-awaited summer break is underway, the brothers of Beta Phi are excited about the upcoming year and hope to raise some money during these summer months to prepare for another successful year for UC's Beta Phi chapter of Kappa Psi.

Beta Chi

Drake University

The spring semester finally came to a close at Drake University and 15 Beta Chi brothers graduated in May. Among them was Katie Cubria, who won the National Counseling Competition. Brothers gathered together and celebrated her great accomplishment with a party. Brian Reisetter, Beta Chi alum, joined the festivities and presented Katie with a certificate of recognition for her achievements.

Beta Chi also organized hypertension screenings as well as participated in a bingo session with the homeless. Brothers volunteered their time at the juvenile diabetes walk in March and, later in the spring, went bowling to "strike out colitis."

In April, brothers participated in the Drake relays and all of the festivities. Beta Chi actives and alumnae enjoyed street painting, relay events and all the merriment. That weekend we also organized a barbecue event and a miniature golf excursion for alumnae and actives.

The semester came to a close with our annual awards banquet. Faculty, actives and guests came together and shared an Italian feast. Jennifer Livingston was presented with the Brian Reisetter Outstanding Active of the Year award. This year's pledge class decided the John Deathridge award for Most Outstanding Pledge belonged to Shawna Brooks. These awards, as well as faculty and senior gifts, were presented at the banquet.

Beta Omega

Temple University

Is it hot out or is it just Beta Omega? We are in the midst of some very exciting times up here in beautiful North Philadelphia. Between the continuation of the renovations on our chapter house, to the festivities in celebrating the graduation of nine fine, new Beta Omega graduates, we have been quite busy. The most recent graduates are David Bialek, Brian Baker, Chris Betz, Chaz Andolina, Paul Singh, Chen Oeur, John Lewin, Steve Nguyen and Elio Gould. They will be continually sought after for their support and ever-present dedication to Beta Omega.

Some activities from the last half of the semester included our annual semi-formal in which almost 40 brothers and guests gathered, broke bread, and danced the night away. Special thanks to Dr. Nick Farina, Beta Omega graduate, class of 1973, for his helping hand in the preparation of such a blissful evening. Also, special thanks to the two delightful brothers from Beta Eta chapter who traveled all the way from West Virginia and contributed in their own special way to the enchanting atmosphere.

We hosted several socials, including a 70's party and a joint social with Temple's rugby team, for whom brothers Kevin Hennessy and Tom Tomcanin play for. Both socials enabled it's partygoers the opportunity for some good, clean and safe fun, all of which Beta Omega strongly supports.

Beta Omega was also proud to host the three brothers from Gamma Eta who are riding their bikes across North America to raise money for Diabetes research. Beta Omega was happy enough to have raised $500 and donated it to these three daring adventurers. They should be commended for their hard work, perseverance and generosity. We should all look to them as a source of pride as they progress slowly, but surely across this vast continent in representation of Kappa Psi.

We hope to see everyone up here at Temple University for fall's Province II meeting. It will be held during the weekend of November 4th, so mark your calendars NOW! You've heard all the stories about the Beta Omega chapter, now come and experience us. It will be a rocking time and we hope to see you all in Philly on November 4th! For information on the upcoming province meeting, contact Kevin Hennessy at kbhnessy@astro.temple.edu.

Delta Gamma Auburn University

Spring quarter for the Kappa Psi brothers was filled with many exciting activities to conclude the 1999–2000 school year. In April, the Delta Gamma brothers held their annual riverboat formal on the Alabama River in Montgomery. Despite the chilly weather, the brothers and their dates enjoyed an evening away from the stresses of school, filled with dancing and fellowship. The fundraiser for spring quarter, “niffer’s night,” was a special night set aside in which brother’s and fellow students of Auburn University enjoyed dinner at a local restaurant called Niffer’s Place. A certain percentage of each person’s meal expense was donated to the American Cancer Society. This May, Delta Gamma was also the host for the Province IV annual mid-year meeting. Brothers provided visiting chapters a tour of Auburn and an enjoyable dinner.

The newly-elected and initiated officers for the 2000–2001 school year are as follows: regent, LeAnne Burkett; vice-regent, Chris Matthews; secretary, Katie Holloway; treasurer, Michelle Elkins; sergeant-at-arms, Scott Cornelius; head pledge trainer, Melanie Lowe; pledge trainers, Nicole Tucker, Zenobia Berry, Carrie Thornton, Anna Johnson, Vanessa Rikard, Brandon Boswell, Melissa Sanders and Eileen Zeenah; historian, Melissa Sanders; chaplain, Amanda Emfinger; student council representatives, LeAnne Burkett and Eileen Zeenah; and the alternate student council representative, Crissy Holmes. Several officers met with the grand council deputy, Dr. Shauna Buring, at a local restaurant to begin planning exciting brotherhood and charitable events for the upcoming year.

Delta Kappa Howard University

So many things have happened this past semester! The Howard University School of Pharmacy, Nursing and Allied Health Sciences moved its graduation ceremony off campus for the first time in years. Newly-appointed Dean, brother Pedro Lecca, decided to have the ceremony at Martin’s Crosswinds in Greenbelt, Maryland. The elegant and elaborate venue provided a great place for graduates, friends and family.

Congratulations to all of Delta Kappa’s

new doctors of pharmacy: Shary Jones, Yvette Ward, Karen Smithe, Torri Thomas, Kinsley Agyemang, Gladstone Attipoe, Kwame Kyerematen-Afrani, Theresa Nguyen, Anthony Brew, Tselanie Jones, Uzoamaka Nwachuku, Maxwell Mens, Peter Okojie, Megna Mantri, Sankung Sise, Jay Gill, Garrett Ford, Cathy Crumel and Kim Moseley. Congratulations also go out to Jay Gill, Garrett Ford, Yvette Ward, Karen Smithe and Theresa Nguyen as recipients of special class awards voted on by faculty, staff and pharmaceutical companies.

In April, two brothers were inducted into the Rho Chi Pharmacy Honor Society. Sylvia Harrison and Peter Beckford joined previous brothers Elizabeth Hargett, Stella Kim, Tory Taylor, and academic advisor Dr. Joseph Ofofu, in the illustrious society. The ceremony was held at the Channel Inn restaurant in Washington, D.C. The keynote speaker was Dean Pedro Lecca. Sylvia Harrison and Peter Beckford were later elected president and vice-president, respectively, for the 2000–2001 academic year.

Also in April, Delta Kappa added 11 versatile and intelligent pharmacy students to the oldest and largest pharmaceutical fraternity! They are: Sylvia Harrison, Yolanne Hines, Zakia Corria-McDow, Nadine Wynter, Kizzy Steward, Stephanie Ragin, Bryan Scott, Hanan Saleh, Erin Andrews, Jennifer Anim and Cheryl Gilbreath. May we all benefit from their ideas and wisdom.

The night was filled with good spirits as well as fond memories for our new doctors of pharmacy. The rest of us still in school hope that we can follow in their footsteps and continue the tradition of leadership and excellence in pharmacy at Delta Kappa.

Delta Lambda Campbell University

Another semester has ended here at the creek. Although we still mourn the loss of our past regent, Brian Harrington, Delta Lambda has come together strong and accomplished a lot last semester. Our semi-annual blood drive was a success, as was the annual taco salad dinner, which raised money for the recently-established Brian Harrington Memorial Scholarship. Several other fundraisers held over the semester also contributed to this fund, and we participated in service projects like trash pickup to help beautify the community. One of our greatest accomplishments was initiating six new brothers this spring: Obi Achumba, Corey Cain, Chelsea Cooper, Alicia Franks, Megan Stafford and Al Tunnell. Their pledge period was shorter than some in the past, but pledgemaster Amanda Greenwood, and assistant pledgemasters Matt Montgomery and Chris Bennett, did a superb job of instructing them in the order. We still managed to have a good time with them, including kidnapping the pledges for midnight bowling.

As always, our annual cadet ball in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina was a blast. There is no better remedy for the pharmacy school blues than a little fun in the sun, and we had no problem keeping the party going after the sun went down. As with years past, our weekend included a golf tournament and two nights of dancing, as well as a formal dinner. This year's theme, Mardi Gras and Bourbon Street, was more than a state of mind.

Megan Stafford has stepped up as our first vice-regent in charge of upcoming rush events for fall. She has many new ideas to help next year's P-1's make the right decision to rush Kappa Psi. We look forward to having a great turnout and large pledge class.

Delta Xi Shenandoah University

Shenandoah University graduated its first pharmacy class on May 13, 2000. The hooding ceremony proved to be a very emotional one for all involved. Among the first graduating class from Bernard J. Dunn School of Pharmacy at S.U. were the 33 charting brothers of Delta Xi. The remaining brothers of Delta Xi would like to extend a very heartfelt congratulations to our brothers who are now out on their own putting all the lessons learned in the classroom to practical use. The past four years for these brothers were very trying at times, not only from the amount of work that comes from pharmacy education, but from the fact that they were the first class in a brand new school. The graduates of the class of 2000 were basically the "guinea pigs" for a developing program and a new institution. Our best wishes for a very successful future go out to the following Delta Xi brothers: Todd Addington, Michelle Barringer, Chris Bolling, Tracy Burns, Nicki Carter, Tina Castillo, Audrey Chastain, John Claridge, Justin Cornett, Janet Craig, John Duc, Bob Duvall, Bryson Fitch, JoDee Gadreau, Wendy Hylton, Christy Jenkins, Jackie Kelly, Laura Myers, Willis Pang, Hina Patel, Keith Pirolozzi, LeAnn Prozniewski, Mila-Jane Raganit, Juamy Salinas, Scott Secrest, Jennie Sowers, Teresa Sterling, Maryam Tabatabai, Julie Tipton, Dawn Truong, Heather Walbert, Janyce Rogers Walker and Monica Zeballos. Good Luck to you all!

Gamma Kappa

South Dakota State University

As for this last year, it was a very exciting year for our chapter. We went coed in the fall of 1999 and inducted 20 new members over the course of the school year, quintupling the number of members that we inducted over the previous year!

Our new officers elected in April are: Jeremy Fejfar, regent; Alison Gleysteen, vice-regent; Sara Murray, secretary; Sheila Zweifel, treasurer; Jenny Lewis and Allison Schatzke, co-pledgemasters; Michael Carbonneau, historian/webmaster; Jerri Knippling, social/conclave chairperson; Amy Paradis, chaplain; Landen Sanderson, professional meetings chairperson; and Gary Van Riper, grand council deputy.

We also hosted our first "glory days" event in the spring. This event was an opportunity to invite all of our alumni back to the house, and it went over great! While we worked on some spring cleaning, we caught up on all the stories from the good old days, and filled them in on some new ones. Everyone had a great time, and we're planning on doing it again next spring.

We're also working diligently on planning for the Province VIII conclave, which we'll be hosting October 27-28 at SDSU in Brookings, South Dakota. If anyone has any tips or ideas to make our conclave go more smoothly, we'd be glad to hear them.

We've also been working on our website at www.sdstate.edu/wkps/http/ky.html. We're trying to get a complete list of all Kappa Psi chapters, and the web addresses of those with websites, to include them on our site. We currently have the most complete list that I've seen posted online, but we'd like to have a complete and updated list. Please send any information you may have to us at Gamma\_Kappa@hotmail.com.

cy school. The brothers of Delta Omicron would like to congratulate all of the 2000 graduates and wish them the best in the future.

Delta Omicron has been involved in many philanthropic projects. For Christmas, we gave $400 to an "adopted" family to brighten their holidays with gifts and food. We also donated $250 to both the Volunteer Services at Wilkes University and to the American Diabetes Association. The money for the ADA was given to Dave Mountain and brothers during their trip through Wilkes-Barre on their way to the west coast.

We were also busy with social events and pledging. During the spring semester, we inducted Cheryl Campenni, Brooke Farley, Melissa Gapinski, Michelle Macumber, Sara Pourshahriari and Andy Tomlinson into the brotherhood.

We also had our annual baseball outing at Lackawanna Stadium with the Pocono Graduate chapter. One of the highlights of the year was our first senior dinner dance. This was the first year we had graduating seniors. It was nice to see them all come back from their rotations to celebrate with us and get their graduation gifts. We will miss those brothers who graduated in the year 2000. Good luck in the future and never forget your brothers.

Finally, we held our first awards luncheon at the end of the semester. Dave Nockley and Charlotte Puglia were awarded the Fellowship award, Alyse Bauman received the Industry award, Scott Bolestra and Tony Fazzi were awarded with the Sobriety award, and Rich Pokrifka and Rodney Craig were awarded with the High Ideals award. The Asklepius Key was given to Heather Brown and Jeff Compton received the F. Harvey Smith award. Also, over 50 scholarship awards were given. Congratulations to all the award winners. We are looking forward to our annual summer picnic and the beginning of the fall semester.

Gamma Nu University of the Pacific

We kicked off our summer semester with the election of the 2000-2001 officers. Next year's officers are: Thien Nguyen, regent; Rick Mann, first vice-regent; Rane Shoji, second vice-regent; Tola Seng, historian; Reid Kodani, recording secretary; Cary Feng, corresponding secretary; Mike Culler, sergeant-at-arms; and Daryl Kunihiro, chaplain. These officers will be leading Gamma Nu into the new era of Kappa Psi at UOP.

Our annual luau fundraiser at Ross Chang's Hawaiian resort was once again a huge success! Proudly, the brothers came together and sold all the tickets and raised the money to operate Gamma Nu next year. Thanks to everyone, especially Thanh Nguyen, for making sure the job got done, Ross Chang for letting us party at his wonderful house, and Rick Mann who brought the whole shebang together.

We anticipate fall 2000 to bring more great things to Gamma Nu. The brothers and Pacific Grad anticipate the remodeling of our aging house to be done by then. This remodeling will provide the brothers more space and an updated facility. Great things lay ahead for Gamma Nu in the 2000-2001 school year, for the brotherhood is strong!

—Thien Nguyen

Gamma Sigma University of Florida

The brothers of Gamma Sigma would like to congratulate its 1999-2000 graduates: Jon-Alan Ames, Jeff Anderson, J. Michael Bennett, Doug Kennedy and Anthony Richards. These brothers are responsible for keeping the traditions alive after a tough period in the chapter's history. The chapter that was down to only a handful of active brothers three to four years ago has again grown to an active brotherhood of more than 40 brothers. These guys really set a good example of what it means to be a Kappa Psi brother.

The spring 2000 semester ended with a series of successful events. We were able to raise over $1,300 for the March of Dimes this year with the help of Kappa Epsilon. Our golf tournament also raised a lot of money for the local Children's Miracle Network. The end-of-the-semester '70s party, open to all college of pharmacy students and guests, had hundreds in attendance, most wearing costumes. John Ellison was awarded this year's Gamma Sigma scholarship. A new updated constitution was approved and sent up the hill to the Greek Council. Several brothers aided the college by helping set up for spring graduation ceremonies. Finally, a summer activity was held which was a mid-year brother trip to Tampa. We visited Busch Gardens and several other tourist attractions on this weekend trip.

The brothers of Gamma Sigma are looking forward to the fall 2000 semester with a lot of excitement. Some of the planned events include the traditional "disorientation party" to be held the first weekend of the semester for all of the college of pharmacy, and a joint Kappa Psi and Kappa Epsilon river tubing trip at Ginnie Springs. Rush events begin with a flag football game and a barbecue and will last for several days. Other rush events planned are an informational meeting, Joe's Deli dinner, Kasbor's chicken wings night, bowling at Alley Catz and a warm-up for the first Florida Gators football home game of the year.

Service projects planned for the fall include: an alumni presentation to the college on alcohol abuse, a brother presentation to on-campus Greeks on substance abuse, the annual children's hospital Halloween candy drive, a Thanksgiving food drive, a winter clothing drive and an adopt-a-highway road clean up.

—Scott Wink

Gamma Chi Ferris State University

It has been a productive year for the brothers of Gamma Chi. In January, we initiated six new brothers. Congratulations to Adam Dutkiewicz, Eric Halverson, Stephanie Krol, Michelle Loftus, Kathy Morin and Amanda Pletcher.

Many of our events during the winter semester focused on brotherhood. On Valentine's Day, we had a spaghetti dinner and exchanged valentines. For our winter formal, we took a road trip to visit one of our alumni, brother Matt Mosley. Then, in March, we traveled to Buffalo, New York for the Province V convention. Our dedication to Kappa Psi had shown through when we won the travelling trophy. We would like to say thank you to Gamma Iota for all of their hard work, we had a great time!

In April, we held our annual big brother/big sister Easter party. The children and Kappa Psi's enjoyed themselves with games, candy and lots of fun. And to help the elderly, we held a brown bag at our local Wal-Mart.

To end the semester, we had our annual end-of-the-world party. It marked the beginning of summer vacation for some and for the others it was a one-week vacation from school. It was a perfect day for volleyball, kickball, cold drinks and a barbecue.

Gamma Omega University of Arkansas

We would first like to congratulate our brothers who graduated on May 20, 2000. They are: Chris Allbritton, Justin Boyd, John Brehmer, Aaron Brown, Ryan Case, Rob Christian, Clay Patrick and Keith Rubottom.

Gamma Omega would also like to congratulate brothers Aaron Brown, Clay Patrick, Keith Rubottom, Brian Canada, Rhonda Caudell and Jill Wolf on their recent marriages.

The annual float trip was a success again this year! The Spring River near Hardy, Arkansas was the site chosen for the weekend of camping and festivities.

Many of us attended the Arkansas Pharmacists Association Annual Convention in Little Rock, Arkansas held June 8–11, 2000. This was a wonderful opportunity for us to meet some of the professional leaders in our state.

Gamma Omega appreciates all the help and support that Dr. William McIntyre and Dr. Kim Fifer have given this chapter over the last year.

—Sara Beth Richardson

Gamma Pi St. Louis College of Pharmacy

Greetings brothers. The summer months were definitely months to remember. Upon completion of a very lengthy renovation of the house and pool, the Gamma Pi house is now once again in full swing. A very sincere thank you goes out to all of the brothers who donated their precious time. The job was definitely a success, as is demonstrated by the new letters in the bottom of the pool.

The latest news on brother Tommy Smith, who had fallen ill to a vicious strain of meningitis this past New Year's, is good news. He is out of the hospital and all over town! He is making wonderful progress and surpassing all of his personal and physician's goals.

New officers were elected just before school let out. In addition to the current officers, the newly-elected officers are: regent, Isabella Lombardo; vice-regent, fundraising, Kathy Wheeler; vice-regent, professional, Melissa O'Neill; vice-regent, social, Michelle Welling; pledge-masters, Kara Hug and Grady Saxton; and IFC officer, Cheri Wilkening.

Also, a new office was created. The new regent-elect is Ben Calcaterra.

Montana Graduate

As Independence Day approaches at the time of this writing, Montana Grad is busy with many projects. One of the most time consuming and rewarding is the millennial ride for diabetes.

The three riders (Gamma Eta brothers) have already accumulated enough wonderful stories for a book about their adventures and successes with this project. We will be constructing a video of the total event to present at the 50th Grand Council Convention to be held next August in Ft. Lauderdale.

For updates on the progress of the millennial ride for diabetes, check out the website at www.treasurestate.com/GammaEta.

One of our brothers initiated in Gamma Eta over 50 years ago died this year after serving his profession and the fraternity extremely well. Warren Amole served for the last several years of his life as the president of the Montana Board of Pharmacy. We were very pleased when our Dean, brother Dr. Dave Forbes, dedicated one of the display cases in our new Skaggs Building to the memory of brother Amole and all of his achievements. If any of you are ever in the Missoula area please stop in and see the record of brother Amole and his dedication to his profession.

The Province X meeting this year will be in Vancouver, B.C. on February 16–19, 2001. We hope many of you can attend.

—Craig A. Johnston

Pacific Graduate

In this issue, your graduate chapter secretary reports to you from the lovely beaches of Thailand. I expect to see Leonardo any day now. I spent last week in Bangkok. Bath and Body Works has nothing on the sponges in Bangkok . . . my skin has never been so clean. The food is excellent, there are some beautiful sights here and the people are friendly everywhere!

Closer to home, the Pacific Graduate chapter met on Sunday June 4th to make plans for remodeling the house. The tentative plan is to begin construction in July.

Also on the agenda, was the fall wine tour, which will be held September 9th in Sonoma County. The traditional spring wine tour was moved because half of the graduate chapter was in Oahu for the wedding of brothers Peter Koo and Sandra Yamaguchi (Beta Gamma). Congratulations Mr. Regent and Mrs. Koo.

Also coming this fall will be the Pacific Graduate Southern California event. This will be held on September 30th at the home of brother Kim Phung in El Cajon. This is the first Southern California event in two years and it promises to rival our summer luau.

As always, please e-mail me with your Gamma Nu/ Pacific Graduate news. Come July many of us will be celebrating with brother Patrick Gramata, who will be marrying Linh Tran (UOP class of 1998). Congratulations to Pat and Linh.

Also, feel free to e-mail in Japan. I will include anything you would like to disseminate to our readers. Besides, it's like an island out here, and I'd love to hear about news in the states.

Chris Snow is pursuing his Pharm.D degree at MCP and living in the Cape. We also wish to congratulate Josh Spooner on his election to the Province I vice-satrap position.

The PGC once again showed its strength on the softball diamond by beating Beta Epsilon in the annual grad vs. undergrad game, 10-9. This year's game, which had the largest turnout in its history, featured great offense from Jim Capone, John Grossomanides and Brian Musiak. Also contributing big hits for the grads were Bob Tortalani, Jim Melfi, Steve Hunter, Scott Jacobson and Karl Kehrlle. Steve Edwards provided the defense, pitching for Dr. Norman Campbell, who could not attend this time. The rivalry was set aside after the game as we joined the brothers from Beta Epsilon for a pizza party.

Province I

Each chapter in Province I has been busy, but this has not stopped the province from working as a whole. This past spring, Province I held its annual shamrock sale and raised over $300 for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

Also this spring, the Province I meeting was hosted by the Beta Delta chapter at Albany College of Pharmacy. Several issues were discussed at the meeting. Brother Josh Spooner submitted a rough draft of the Province I history book that talks about the history of each chapter.

Province III

The Delta Xi chapter at Shenandoah University held their first Province III meeting the weekend of March 31st through April 2nd. There were many months of preparation involved, but the way we were praised and how everything turned out, you would think Delta Xi were pros at hosting the annual meeting. On Friday night, the events got underway by checking in to the local Holiday Inn. Brothers from Gamma Xi, Delta Kappa, South Carolina Graduate chapter, Delta Lambda and Theta were all in attendance. That evening's activities included the initiation of Delta Xi's 19 pledges followed by a welcoming party. Johnny Porter, along with Dr. Rodney Carter, Delta Xi's GCD, and brothers from Delta Kappa, Gamma Xi and South Carolina Graduate chapter, all helped out in making the new brothers feel welcome to the brotherhood of Kappa Psi.

Saturday morning, the brothers were greeted with coffee, juice and doughnuts. After breakfast, the province meeting was held and consisted of various tasks, votes and the election and installation of new officers as follows: Tommy Martincic, satrap, Rick James, vice-satrap, and Thadd Hirschy, chaplain. That night took Province III to the outskirts of Charles Town, West Virginia, where the brothers indulged in a night of eating, talking and betting on the horse races. The brothers sat around and ate a huge buffet dinner, discussed how much money they had lost, and which horse or slot machine to bet on to make it all back. The fifth horse race was sponsored by Delta Xi and named Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity—In Memory of Brian Harrington. The regent of Delta Lambda, along with host chairman Michael Harris, presented the trophy to the winning jockey and owners. Many brothers weren't very lucky that night, but no one complained and everyone had a great time. On behalf of Delta Xi, we would like to thank all of the chapters and officers who attended and made Delta Xi's first Province III meeting very successful and unforgettable. We are already looking forward to next year's meeting!

Province IV

Province IV has been busy this semester. We would like to start by welcoming a new chapter to our province. Georgia Graduate was chartered on April 16th at the Gamma Phi house in Athens, Georgia. In May, Auburn hosted the mid-year meeting on their campus. Most of the chapters were represented.

Some of the brothers took a walking tour and participated in some of the Auburn tradition, including dinner at Noodle's Italian restaurant. The meeting took place the next day with many brothers present to input ideas for projects. The next mid-year meeting will be held in Gainesville, Florida, and hosted by Gamma Sigma. Our next meeting will be January 19–21 in Fort Lauderdale, Florida. All brothers are welcome to attend.

Province VIII

Due to the millennium in Minnesota party this past New Year's (which was a wonderful success), a full year has passed between Province VIII meetings. After much anticipation, conclave finally convened in Coralville, Iowa on March 31–April 2, hosted by our Delta Zeta brothers. On Friday evening, brothers were "up all night, dancing in the dark" at the pajama theme party. Reunions and brotherhood were enjoyed by all. On Saturday morning, the business of the weekend began as the meeting was called to order by satrap Dawn Erdman. All Province VIII chapters were represented at the meeting, with a total registry of 129. Three national officers were in attendance: Brian Reisetter, Grand Regent; Tony Palmieri, Grand Historian; and Greg Speicher, Collegiate Member-at-Large. All national and province officers gave short reports, as well as the chairperson for the graduate development committee, brother Chrisann Rauzi. The meeting continued on with chapter reports from the province. As always, the reports were both informative and entertaining. Much time was devoted to our Gamma Eta brothers and the millennial ride for diabetes. The province voted on donating $1,000 to this worthy cause. Individual chapters were also encouraged to fundraise for this event. Elections were also held resulting in Becky Nowak as satrap, Tracy Anderson as historian, and Peter James as chaplain. Following a banquet dinner on Saturday night, the toga party brought out togas of all shapes, colors and sizes and fellowship continued late into the night.

Our next Province VIII assembly will be hosted by our Gamma Kappa brothers in Brookings, South Dakota on October 27-29.

—Tracy Anderson

Province IX

The brothers of the Gamma Nu chapter would like to thank brother Derrick Egi for planning the activities for this year's Province IX meeting. We know how much time he sacrificed to make things run smoothly, especially when midterms were just around the corner.

The Gamma Nu chapter hosted this year's Province IX meeting in Stockton, California. In attendance were the Gamma Nu, Pacific Graduate, Gamma Rho and Beta Gamma chapters. Congratulations to all the newly-elected Province IX officers. They are: satrap, Mike Cuellar; vice-satrap, Dave Hong; secretary/treasurer, Ky San; historian, Shaun Flores; and chaplain, Harris of the Gamma Rho chapter. The Gamma Nu brothers took all other offices. Special thanks to Craig Johnston, grand counselor, and Brian Furbush, grand regent, for reminding us what our focus and goals for the meeting should be. Brian was also kind enough to share with us his jail time stories of bodybuilding.

After the meeting, we all proceeded to Lodi for a wine-tasting tour. During the tour, we were allowed to go inside of a giant tank used to store wine and sing one of our favorite drinking songs together. At the tasting part of the tour, brother Roger Santos indulged himself indulged himself a little too much and let us all know how proud he was to be Mexican and available for the ladies.

Following the wine tasting tour, we feasted at a Lodi steakhouse for dinner. Afterwards, we headed back to the Kappa Psi house to get our groove on.

Overall, the meeting was a great opportunity for fellow Kappa Psi brothers to get together and have fun. I am sure next year's event in New Mexico will be just as successful.

Millennium In Minnesota Celebration

By Dawn Erdman, Minnesota Grad

Wow—What a PARTY!

What a way to bring in the new century for Kappa Psi with brothers from all over the United States! Minnesota Graduate chapter and Province VIII at the Hilton Hotel near the Mall of America in Bloomington, Minnesota hosted the Millennium in Minnesota celebration on December 31, 1999 through January 2, 2000. The 112 people in attendance were treated to a weekend of dancing, prizes, continuing education, shopping and fun!

The idea of our Kappa Psi brothers joining together on this special date was from our Grand Regent, Brian Reisetter. He had made this suggestion to several of the Minnesota Graduate members in 1997. With the financial help of Province VIII, and the muscle of its graduate development committee (the peanut gallery), the weekend celebration was created into reality. The weekend was developed into an outstanding success due to our corporate partners: Merck, Inc., DuPont Pharmaceuticals, The Walgreen Company, Abbott Laboratories, Bristol-Myers Squibb and Roche Laboratories. Special thanks also go to these companies for helping provide continuing education materials and increasing our knowledge of AIDS and HIV through research.

The weekend started with a bang on Friday night! Our party had exclusive use of the hotel bar for the entire evening. Brothers, dressed in formal tuxedos and party dresses, danced and socialized the entire night until 12 midnight. Balloons and confetti were sent falling to the floor by the tug of a rope by Grand Regent Reisetter, while others were blowing horns and shaking noisemakers to bring in the new millennium. Champagne was served and Grand Regent Reisetter made a toast to our beloved fraternity, reflected on our glorious past, and encouraged the brotherhood to prosper and grow, keeping in mind "The Kappa Psi Experience." The celebration continued in the early morning hours.

On New Year's Day, anticipating none of the brothers would be awake in later morning hours, the continuing education and workshop luncheons started at 1 p.m. The first workshop presentation was on financial planning for collegiates. Marshall Gifford from Northstar Financial Group spoke about how to handle those mounting loans and bills from college, save for the future, and afford those "luxuries" after graduation. A resume writing session was the second workshop conducted by brother Vern Kassekert, district pharmacy supervisor for The Walgreen Company and a member of the Minnesota Board of Pharmacy. This session was used to demonstrate what items are appropriate on a resume and help our brothers get the advantage on the job they most want after graduation.

The graduate brothers attended the two-hour continuing education luncheon given by Dawn Erdman, HIV specialist for The Walgreen Company. The subject matter was on immunology basics, HIV review, and the proper use of HIV drugs in today's practice.

Saturday afternoon was free time for shopping at the Mall of America and/or spending time at the mall's indoor amusement park, Camp Snoopy, where everyone had to ride the indoor roller coaster. Many students sat in the hotel lobby watching their school's football team in one of the many bowl games being broadcast on the large-screen televisions.

A formal banquet was held on Saturday evening. The guest speaker of the evening was Dr. Timothy Eley, our Grand Counselor, who spoke on the subject "What Was Kappa Psi Doing 100 Years Ago Today?" It was a very informative view of our fraternity's history and the realization that information is scarce due to the secrecy of all social activities at the turn of the 20th century. Province VIII wishes to formally thank Dr. Eley for speaking at the millennium celebration!

The banquet was followed by the sound of a deejay and brothers spending time socializing together. For most of the brothers, the evening was short because of early travel times the next morning. Y2K had intimidated some brothers flying from Minnesota to leave early—just in case there were problems!

Special thanks go to Chrisann Rauzi, Dawn Erdman, Sandy Soukup and Helen Baker, all from Minnesota Graduate chapter, for their outstanding effort for making the celebration possible. Grand regent Reisetter recognized these brothers with the Certificate of Commendation at the Province VIII banquet in March.

Farewell . . . But Not Goodbye

The time has come for Charmaine and me to say farewell to the Brotherhood as you Administrative Assistant and Executive Director in The Central Office of the Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity, Inc. But this is not goodbye.

The Central Office in January 1980 consisted only of Charmaine and I and after a few months we got a RSVP helper—free to us—for about six months. This helper, Mary Jean Saterfield, then became a part-time employee for several years until the money was available for us to hire her full time. The office at that time had no computers, no fax, no e-mail, no photocopier, just desks, typewriters and plenty of filing cabinets, and plenty of work.

The Central Office moved three times while in Oklahoma City—first, to the new college of pharmacy building from the house we occupied for three years on 12th Street, and twice within the University of Oklahoma College of Pharmacy building. We went from small rooms to larger ones until finally we ended up in room 17 in the lower level of the pharmacy building.

Now, the office has all the amenities that a modern office could have. The computer era came and the office accepted it with open arms; first one, then two, and finally, three computers. The e-mail was quite an innovation in the office, certainly different from talking on the telephone. Many of you have written us via this new medium. The only disfavoring thing I felt was that many of you quit calling us and we lost the benefit of talking one-on-one. The biggest challenge we faced in all the years was entering the thousands of names and addresses of the alums into our new database program created and refined by my brother, Dr. Edward O'Magarian. At first, we used the help of the Brothers of Beta Sigma and Gamma Omicron to enter the thousands of names. Then our secretary, Linda Sosa, continued the process of entering the names. We had come a long way.

I sat there among those packed cartons during moving day, June 23, 2000, with tears in my eyes, thinking about those years we had with our beloved fraternity. Traveling over the country, meeting so many wonderful brothers, working with so many Grand Regents (Dewey D. Garner, Patrick R. Wells, Kenneth B. Roberts, William R. Smith, Johnny W. Porter, Paul J. Hiller, John Grosso-manides, Brian Furbush and Brian Reisetter) and Brothers on the Executive Committee. They were more than Brothers. I looked around the room, and felt an uneasiness. Our memories were packed in those cartons and the movers were taking them away from us. The Central Office no longer belonged to us. We had lost a friend. Then the feeling of emptiness vanished knowing that this was not goodbye.

After 21-1/2 years, we had made many wonderful friends among you. How could we stay away? I felt better knowing that we would be around as usual, just not as the “mom and pop” couple who operated The Central Office. The memories that this wonderful fraternity had given to us will last a lifetime, and we are grateful for them and for you; for what you had taught us about the Brotherhood and what it means to all of us. Thank you and God Bless you all.
