Making a Difference

I can hardly believe we are two months into 2006! This past year holds memories for all of us, good as well as bad. Most of us remember 2005 as the year of the hurricane, as Katrina, Rita, and Wilma, among others, ravaged much of the South, including the city of New Orleans, and Mississippi and South Florida. We will also remember the high gas and energy prices these disasters brought with them. As I look at 2005 and these tragic events, I prefer to remember the positive things. I will remember how our nation came together to assist those in need. I will remember those who selflessly gave of their time and money, and even risked their own lives to help others survive. I will remember the pictures and faces of those involved in rescues, and the expressions of gratitude on the faces of those who had lost so much. I will remember all of those who made a difference!

As Kappa Psi brothers, we too made a difference in 2005 as we joined the cause to assist those hurricane victims, and answered the call to arms of our newly created Disaster Management Committee. From coast to coast, we all joined the crusade to assist our fellow man, to help those who most desperately needed it. We helped to give hope to those who had none. We did make a difference.

As we begin 2006, always remember that each of us has the ability to make a difference. In big things and in small, none of us are insignificant. What each of us does matters! Our future is what we make it, because we create it. Our efforts as Provinces, chapters, Grad chapters, and most especially as individuals, help create Kappa Psi's future. Each of us are important, each of can make a difference in our chapters, in our Provinces and in Kappa Psi as a whole. In 2005 we grew as a Fraternity, both in size as we welcomed Delta Psi chapter, as well as in character, as we came together toward a common goal. What does 2006 hold? It will be what we all make it. Make a difference!

Wishing you all the best for a great 2006!

Fraternally,

How is Your Vision?

What is your vision for the future of our Fraternity? This is a question that is asked by many organizations like ours, large and small, professional or social, on a daily basis. They are all concerned about the future of their organizations, but some have more trouble determining the best steps and paths to accomplish goals and long-range plans. They all want to be successful, but some take a less than successful route to accomplishing goals, plans, and dreams for their organizations. Why are some successful while others are less than stellar in the achievement of their goals, and some even fail? I believe that it is the limits of their vision that holds them back.

Our vision is limited by a number of factors. The environment in which we work and live plays a part in our limited vision. It is limited by our personalities and life experiences. This is why vision is so different for everyone. The environment around us affects our vision by making it difficult to see beyond our present state. Trauma in chapters and dilemmas of life sometimes do not let us see what is the best course of action.

This places a limit on our vision.

Customs also affect our vision. If we do something the same way simply because it has always been done that way, are we really going to let a new thought or idea have a real chance to succeed? Probably not, as we need new perspectives, and ideas to solve problems or to grow and move forward. This is important because the past also helps us evaluate what we see in determining our plans and vision for the future.

Events also affect us in our vision. Events in the life of an organization can lead us to see a new way or path that can change our vision. Events can also cause us to cling on to the past in an effort not to change our vision. Seeing events in a new and different perspective can and does have a profound effect on our vision.

Some types of vision can lead us to stymied growth or phenomenal success. Myopic vision only lets us see what is happening today and will not let us think about tomorrow. Peripheral vision only lets us see what is happening around us and does not let us focus on central issues that can affect us today and tomorrow. Tunnel vision lets us see only our vision and blocks out all other visions, regardless of worth or merit. Panoramic vision can let us see what is going on today, what is happening around us, other visions and views, and may even let us get a better insight into the future after considering all options.

What kind of vision do you have? Think about it. This is one area that you can learn to change. You can learn to value others' visions and views, even if different from your own. You can learn to understand and value different perspectives that differ from yours. You can learn to see things in different colors and shades, not always black and white. Others have good ideas and plans also, not just yourself. Give them a chance to succeed.

Vision is not always what we look at, but what we actually see.

Here is to a New Year with new visions.

Remembrances

Remembrances will be a series of articles written by Past National Officers of the Fraternity. It will appear frequently, but not on a regular basis. The purpose of this series is to let the members of Kappa Psi see what the Fraternity was like when some of our Past Officers were in leadership roles. I hope this is an enjoyable trip down memory lane. —Johnny Porter, Editor of the MASK

By Dewey Garner, Grand Regent 1979–83

I was initiated into Beta Rho chapter of Kappa Psi in the spring of 1962. One year later as regent, I met my first national officer. Grand Regent Herman Forslund came from Corvallis, Oregon, to Oxford, Mississippi, for a chapter visitation. I was impressed. He was polite and friendly—a real gentleman. Little did I realize I would never visit with him in person again. I last communicated with Herman by mail almost 20 years later when I was serving as Grand Regent and he had terminal cancer.

Following graduation in May 1964, I had virtually no involvement with Kappa Psi until I returned to graduate school at The University of Mississippi in the fall of 1966. For four years I attended most of Beta Rho's chapter functions, frequently bringing three distinguished KY brothers with me: our former dean for 33 years, Dr. Elmer Hammond, an initiate of Beta Psi chapter at the University of Wisconsin; Dr. Austin Dodge, long-time GCD of Beta Rho and an initiate of Eta chapter at the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy & Science; and Dr. Mynard Quimby, Editor of THE MASK from 1947–55. All three of these distinguished leaders in pharmacy were my mentors, although I did not realize the significance at that moment in time.

Maynard, an initiate of Mu chapter at Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, lived up the street from the brother who I believe contributed more to our Fraternity than any other individual: Preston Eldridge Jr. You can read of him in the Legends section of The History of Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity. Every time I saw Ray Gosselin, president of the Massachusetts College of Pharmacy, he asked about the well-being of Maynard. They respected and admired each other.

In August of 1972, at the age of 31, I attended my very first Grand Council Convention. It had been almost 10 years since I had met my first and only national officer in the Fraternity. This was the second event that had a dramatic impact on my life as a KY brother. The first was my Initiation Ceremony. I developed many lifetime friendships from this week at the Kenner Inn in New Orleans. Norm Campbell was elected Grand Regent and he appointed as a graduate representative on the Executive Committee a few months later. That was the first of what would become 14 years of service for me as a member of Alpha chapter.

My association with Kappa Psi is a bit unusual in that I never held an office at the Province level. The first time I held a national office coincided with my attendance at my very first Province assembly. I do not state this fact with pride. Like many of our collegiate chapters at some time in their history, Beta Rho was not "tuned in" to Fraternity activities outside our own domain. I realize now I missed out on a decade of Fraternity brotherhood at the regional and national level. Attempting to "catch up" on lost opportunities, I have attended 38 Province assemblies and 18 consecutive Grand Council Conventions. (No, I have not caught Brother Norm yet, nor do I seem to be gaining any ground.)

Your Editor, Johnny Porter, asked that I share with you some of my recollections during my tenure as your Grand Regent. I was elected Grand Regent at the 39th Grand Council Convention, frequently referred to as the Centennial Convention, at the famous five-star resort, Marriott's Camelback Inn, in Scottsdale, Arizona, in August of 1979. I concluded two terms of office at the 41st GCC at the Landmark Resort Hotel in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina, in August 1983. During these four years, I became considerably more knowledgeable of this organization and more appreciative of brothers' contributions to its success. It was during these years that I became motivated to update the history of the Fraternity.

Until you assume the role of Grand Regent, I do not believe you can really comprehend the respect that the Brotherhood has for the office—not the individual who carries the title, but the importance of the office to its membership. I realized early on in my tenure that the Brotherhood expects the Grand Regent to represent the Fraternity at chapter installations, chapter anniversaries, and official Fraternity events at APhA, ASHP, and NCPA. Delegation of the role to other Grand Officers is unacceptable and should rarely occur.

Selecting specific memories to reflect upon is difficult because there are so many. I treasure the time I was able to spend in the homes of Frank Eby and Nick Fenney, along with their wives Dorothy and Anne. Frank and Nick, together with Ray Kelley, were committed to service to Kappa Psi during its time of greatest revival and expansion following the conclusion of World War II. Their wise counsel and encouragement meant much to me throughout my time as Grand Regent. You can read of the significant contributions of each of these three brothers in The Legends of Kappa Psi.

Grand Regent Glen Speradio always included as a highlight of his term in office being greeted by a host of brothers at a train station in the wee hours of the morning. I shared a similar experience in October 1979 at a reception hosted by the brothers of Gamma Theta chapter at the University of Missouri in Kansas City. They welcomed me with a skit to the lyrics of the Broadway Musical Hello, Dolly! substituting the words "Hello, Dewey." Most of the participants were pledges of the chapter, each of whom had their canes and straw caddies. These brothers, along with GCD William Yost and his lovely wife, made my visit so special.

I will share a couple of thoughts relative to the collection of data for the history book. Someone posed the question: Who would I most like to interview from the past? Unquestionably, my choice would be Preston Woodnut Eldridge Jr. I believe he, and only he, could answer virtually any question I could raise about the first 50 years of Kappa Psi history—save one: Who was the author of the Kappa Psi Ritual? That answer could probably be obtained only from David Smith, the father of F. Harvey, our Founder, or perhaps the author is unknown.

The other question frequently asked of me: If you were to add the resumé of another brother to the Legends section, who might that be? Probably Dr. Heber Youngken Sr. He was the individual most responsible for holding the Fraternity together throughout the Great Depression.

So many fond memories of previous GCCs, Province assemblies, Executive Committee meetings, chapter installations, and the brothers who made them significant. I will save the rest for another day. All you have to do is get me started.

E Epsilon University of Minnesota

Founded 4/30/1928

College of Pharmacy
5-130 Weaver Densford Hall
308 Harvard St. S.E.
Minneapolis, MN 55455-0343

We are very excited to welcome 16 new brothers to our Fraternity. On November 16, Carol Albin, Audrey Andersen, Emily Bakker, Kassy Bartelme, Tricia Braun, Josh Gatzke, Kirsten Horn, Elizabeth Lauer, Samantha Lee, Jenny Lyon, Adele Mischel, Annie Nguyen, Anna Nguyen, Jessica Nguyen, Nancy Quinones, and Rachel Ryu officially became brothers of Epsilon chapter. As always, we enjoyed getting to know our new brothers during the entire initiation process. They are a great group of people with lots of enthusiasm and have already added a lot to our chapter.

We had a busy semester with our philanthropy projects. Epsilon brothers volunteered at the Diabetes Expo at the Minneapolis Convention Center on October 15. The expo went very well. The pharmacists we worked with were impressed with our skills at taking blood pressure, checking cholesterol, and educating patients about diabetes. On November 4, several brothers helped prepare dinner at the Ronald McDonald House close to campus. We always look forward to this event.

Every Monday night, several brothers volunteer at the Phillips Neighborhood Clinic (PNC) to dispense medications and educate patients on their prescriptions. There was a silent auction to raise money for the PNC on November 2, which was a huge success. More than $7,000 was raised for the clinic, and several brothers were actively involved in making this auction a success.

We continue to give STI talks to high school students as requested by our contacts at local high schools. We gave nine talks at high schools last semester to raise awareness of sexually transmitted infections. This is our longest-standing philanthropy project.

Our volleyball team completed the season with a record of 3-4. We may not have made it to the playoffs, but we had fun trying. We look at this past semester of volleyball as a warm up for what will no doubt be a successful spring semester. We'll keep you updated.

We had our dinner meeting on November 9 at a great restaurant in Minneapolis called Tiburon. It was a fun night with great food and catching up with our brothers. Many people attended, including Minnesota Graduate chapter brothers and Epsilon chapter brothers.

Ξ Xi Ohio State University

Founded 5/21/1925

College of Pharmacy
500 W. 12th Ave.
Columbus, OH 43210-1291

The brothers of Xi chapter are extremely excited about their new pledge class. The pledges have been involved in weekly meetings where they have been taught about the history and values of Kappa Psi. In addition, they have been getting to know the active brothers through interviews, social events, dinners out with brothers, and pledge projects. Our nine pledges are very enthusiastic about Kappa Psi and will be a great addition to our chapter and brotherhood.

Xi continued its service work last quarter with the American Cancer Society's Making Strides Against Breast Cancer walk and dinner at the Unverfurther house. We participated in the Special Olympics aquatics meet in December.

Xi has also tried to become more involved in professional events. Many of our brothers are now certified by the Central Ohio Diabetes

Association and have been participating in diabetes screenings.

Finally, we are happy to announce that Dr. William Hayton is our new faculty advisor. Dr. Hayton was initiated into Beta Omicron and has been a brother since the 1960s. He has held several positions, including regent of Beta Omicron, GCD of Beta Pi for nearly 10 years, and satrap of Province X. We thank him for his continued commitment to Kappa Psi.

A big thanks goes out to the brothers of Beta Upsilon who made the trip to Purdue to help with Initiation. It would have been difficult without them, and we really appreciate all they did! Other events from the past semester include the annual pledge vs. active flag football game (which the actives, of course, won), a faculty luncheon, participation in various fund-raisers for hurricane and tornado victims, and brotherhood Halloween and Christmas socials. Spring semester brings our annual ski trip and the Province V assembly.

Σ Sigma University of Maryland

Founded 3/27/1924

School of Pharmacy
20 N. Pine Street
Baltimore, MD 21201

Sigma chapter added 31 brothers to our roster during Initiation in early November. Pledge masters for this year are second-year brother Tina Kasliwal and third-year Larisa Rollins. Pledge president is neophyte Lisa Wohl. Pledge activities have included a study night, a scavenger hunt, and the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Walk in October in downtown Baltimore. At the race, neophytes volunteered at the information table and the finish line. A combined running and walking team of Sigma brothers was organized by team leader and second-year brother Afua Addo-Abedi.

For their yearly service event, neophytes volunteered to prepare dinner at Hope Lodge, a living facility for outpatient cancer patients being treated at Baltimore-area hospitals. Sigma brothers and neophytes joined together for a fun-filled evening during the annual Big-Little Dinner. Our Halloween activity included the yearly boogram candy bag fund-raiser.

Sigma brothers participated in the bone marrow drive sponsored by the Students of Maryland Public Health Association, headed by third-year brother Amol Joshi. This event involved screening for potential bone marrow matching donors.

The university welcomed three pharmacy students from Xavier University in hurricane-torn New Orleans. To help with disaster relief efforts, Sigma chapter organized a fund-raiser at Pizzeria Uno in Baltimore's Inner Harbor. Twenty per cent of the proceeds went to aid those displaced by Hurricane Katrina.

Second-year brother and historian Jae Ryu created a website chronicling Sigma brothers' activities and events through photos. Sigma

X Chi University of Illinois

Founded 2/2/1910

833 S. Wood Street

While keeping up with their responsibilities as students, Chi brothers still found time to reach out to the community. Brothers volunteered at the Greater Chicago Food Depository by sorting pounds and pounds of perishable items that were sent to soup kitchens, pantries, shelters, and adult and child care facilities in the Chicagoland area. Other brothers donated food and prepared bagged lunches for the Lincoln Park Community Shelter.

Chi chapter continues to visit children each week at University of Illinois-Chicago Medical Center's pediatrics ward to read books to the children and work on arts and crafts projects. During Thanksgiving break, brothers helped create a Thanksgiving to remember for the families of children in the pediatrics ward.

Chi chapter continues to fundraise by working concession stands at Chicago Bears games, and holding school bake sales and other money-makers to help offset costs of spring semester's philanthropy projects, spring formal, and our first UIC Kappa Psi alumni dinner. We would like thank our alumni for all their support, and we look forward to our alumni dinner this spring.

As the semester came to an end, Chi chapter celebrated the holidays with a potluck at our weekly general body meeting. We also remembered the semester with a slideshow, had a Secret Santa gift exchange, and enjoyed good food and good company.

Ψ Psi University of Tennessee

Founded 10/9/1925

College of Pharmacy
31 S. Barksdale
Memphis, TN 38104

The brothers of Psi chapter had a busy semester. Big brothers were selected for each of our pledges, and they were all treated to four gift days with different themes. After the last gift day, we had the annual Big Brother Reveal at Dr. Stephan Foster's farm. Dr. Foster is one of our dedicated faculty advisors.

We completed two annual fund-raising events. Our Kappa Psi Date Auction raised more than $1,500, and our Tennessee Pharmacy T-shirt/sweatshirt fund-raiser raised more than $2,000.

Psi chapter co-hosted a Halloween party with another organization on campus.

Construction has once again begun on the Kappa Psi house in Memphis. The newest improvements will be a new garage, a new gable, and a revamped second-floor porch.

Psi brothers got into the holiday spirit by preparing Thanksgiving baskets for less-fortunate members of the community. We also had a potluck Thanksgiving dinner at the house to socialize before everyone went home for the holiday.

*University of California

1499-5th Ave.
San Francisco, CA 94122

Beta Gamma chapter had a busy fall quarter, filled with events that allowed brothers to get acquainted with both first-year students and graduate brothers. Our amazing rush coordinators, Kim Messenger and Sarah Stearns, worked extra hard throughout the fall quarter to plan a plethora of exciting events, including an ice-skating trip, an internship night, and our annual Halloween party, where all in attendance had a frighteningly awesome time! These activities served to inform first-year pharmacy students about Kappa Psi values and membership benefits. Brothers were also able to mingle with our Beta Gamma alumni at the UCSF homecoming celebration where Kappa Psi memorabilia, scarves, hats, and toothpick holders were sold. Our hard work paid off when we received pledge cards from 38 pharmacy students. Our new pledges and current brothers then joined together for a Kappa Psi "family" potluck Thanksgiving dinner at the Beta Gamma fraternity house.

Continuing our efforts to help the victims of hurricanes Rita and Katrina, Beta Gamma chapter held a Thanksgiving canned food and clothing fund-raiser, in conjunction with SNPhA. We are looking forward to an eventful winter quarter

BE Beta Epsilon

University of Rhode Island

Founded 5/17/1911

College of Pharmacy
41 Lower College Rd.
Kingston, RI 02881-0801

Beta Epsilon had a busy first semester. We recruited 16 great pledges. We also sponsored a clothing drive and donated more than 500 pounds of clothes. On October 28, brothers Daniel Lefkowitz, Patrick Dougherty, Matt Andolfo, Jon Weiner, Steve Rolfe, Wes Zemrak, Mike Paquette, Ken Correia, and Chris Paciullo helped out with the college of pharmacy's Medicare Part-D Outreach Program, where we visited several pharmacies in Rhode Island, counseled people on the new Medicare prescription drug plans, and received media and news coverage.

Brothers Mike Paquette, Ken Correia, and Nate Charpentier attended a conference at Brown University that included information and learning sessions on stress and drug abuse. Several brothers, including faculty brother Dr. Jef Bratberg, participated in and helped raise more than $1,600 for the college of pharmacy's fund-raisers for the American Cancer Society's Breast Cancer Walk.

Brothers Heath Morrill, Jason Witter, Ted Doyle, Patrick Dougherty, Mike Medouris, Rob Szostek, Dan Sturm, Brian MacDonald, Jon Weiner, Mike Paquette, Wes Zemrak, Mark Kasabuski, and Daniel Lefkowitz volunteered to work the silent auction tables at a Special Olympics charity dinner. All of the brothers who helped at the dinner found it to be very worthwhile and can't wait to help out with future charity fundraisers.

Our fall intramural flag football and soccer teams made it to the playoffs. Our intramural basketball team got off to a strong start and is so far undefeated. During our pledges vs. brothers football game, the brothers defeated the pledges, with a final score of 49-14. All of the brothers who played in the game were impressed at how well the pledges competed.

Beta Epsilon brothers who attended the Province I meeting in Albany had a terrific time. They enjoyed volunteering at the breakfast at the Ronald McDonald House and have asked the rest of the brothers to help set up a charitable event with the Providence Ronald McDonald House.

The brothers of Beta Epsilon would like to extend our thanks to faculty brother Dr. Jef Bratberg for his contributions to the Hurricane Katrina relief effort last semester. Dr. Bratberg was deployed twice to Louisiana with the Rhode Island-1 Disaster Medical Assistance Team to help the tremendous number of victims of the national disaster. Even while deployed, Dr. Bratberg continued to head the infectious disease core curriculum for the college of pharmacy. We acknowledge all that Dr. Bratberg has done and look to him as a role model within Kappa Psi.

We'd also like to congratulate Brother Christopher Morrison on being elected homecoming king for 2005. Our chapter nominated Chris for the position, after which he had to write essays about his most memorable experience at URI, what lesson he learned from the experience, and who has been the most influential person in his life during his college career and why. Chris was judged on his essays, his extracurricular activities, and his GPA. He was then interviewed by alumni representatives. Chris won the title by having the most votes from students throughout the university. Last year, Brother Mark Kasabuski was elected homecoming king, so this year was the second year in a row that a Kappa Psi brother won the title. We hope to keep this trend going and will try our hardest next year to have another brother elected king.

For spring semester, we're setting up dates to volunteer at the Providence Ronald McDonald House and for Habitat for Humanity. There are also ideas about holding a Kappa Psi Date Auction. We'll be working with the URI Diversity House on a car raffle for a hurricane relief fund-raiser. Finally, brothers are looking forward to the Province I spring assembly in Boston.

BH Beta Eta University of West Virginia

Beta Eta brothers spent a great deal of time volunteering with various organizations throughout the community. We participated in the Light the Night Walk for the Leukemia & Lymphoma Society, cooked and served dinner at a homeless shelter, and sorted donated clothes for Christian Help. We also enjoyed volunteering at our local hospice center. We delivered homemade blankets, stuffed envelopes, and volunteered at the Light up a Life event.

Our annual trip to Rich's Fright Farm was a blast. Brothers also spent time together at various potluck dinners and at a tailgate for one of the WVU football games. In January, we went on a ski trip. Brothers are anxiously waiting to initiate our large pledge class into Beta Eta chapter.

39 pledges, the largest pledge class in Beta Kappa history! We threw a fun and successful 5:01 Party to celebrate the end of rush. For the first time, we held a formal Pledge Induction Ceremony, created by our regent, Dave Julian. In addition to weekly meetings for our pledges, brothers had many fun activities planned to get to know this large pledge class. These activities included a Round Robin event, a trip to Fright Farm, and our annual Big-Little Dinner at the Spaghetti Warehouse.

On December 1, we initiated FPC 2005, Beta Kappa's largest pledge class ever. Congratulations to our new brothers: Katie Bacci, Nicole Boulos, Amber Bryski, Amy Chang, Rachel Collins, Sandeep Devabhaktuni, Sapna Doshi, Steve Emert, Liz Forsberg, Rachel Hannibal, Chelsey Hoffman, Ashley Holzworth, Jovonne Jones, Lauren Jones, Tim Kaylor, Nicole Kiliany, Gretchen Kreckel, Mindy Martin, Christina Mazur, Courtney Mills, Jihoon Moon, Beta Kappa is now 82 brothers strong, the largest it has ever been.

hosted by Delta Epsilon here in Pittsburgh. During the banquet, Beta Kappa was awarded Province II Chapter of the Year, an honor Beta Kappa has now held four years in a row. Beta Kappa also won the award for Best Slideshow. The chapter as whole, as well as Brother Chris Miller specifically, was recognized for the hard work they put in during GCC last summer. Province was a great time. Thanks for all your hard work, Delta Epsilon!

Sergeant-at-arms LeeAnne Snow has worked hard to make more athletic activities available for Beta Kappa brothers. We played volleyball on Wednesdays for most of the semester. We will be holding our first Kappa Psi Racquetball Tourney, with proceeds going to the Red Cross. A Kappa Psi Frisbee Club also meets on Fridays during lunch to play on a lawn near school.

Every Sunday, you will find Beta Kappa brothers volunteering at several of the Family Houses in Pittsburgh. In early October, several brothers traveled to Grad Brother Stacey Schaffer's farm to help assemble her corn maze. This is an annual event for us that allows us to raise some money and keep in contact with a grad.

Beta Kappa has much to look forward to! While no one is ever excited for spring semester to start, we held our annual ski trip to Seven Springs in January to make it a little easier to come back to school.

The brothers of Beta Upsilon had a wonderful time hosting midyear for Province V and would like to thank all brothers who attended. In November, we initiated 22 brothers and took them to Union Jacks in celebration. We are also proud to announce that 28 of our brothers received their white coats.

We continued the tradition of a Halloween party for Big Brothers Big Sisters. The event hosted about 30 Big and Little pairs. The party included crafts, games, snacks, and even a haunted room. As a chapter, we went trick-or-treating for canned goods in the Butler neighborhood for the Lighthouse Mission and collected around 100 cans. We also received training on the new Medicare D program to help seniors within the community.

Brothers Elliot Richardson and China Collins of Gamma Zeta chapter hand out care packages to the first-year students during orientation.

Beta Psi brothers spent an evening preparing a home-cooked taco dinner for residents at the Ronald McDonald House. Several brothers also helped set up tents for the Mad City Beer and Wine Festival to benefit cystic fibrosis research. Later in the month, several athletic Kappa Psi brothers participated in the Jingle Bell Run, a holiday tradition on campus where participants run a race with bells on their shoes to benefit our local arthritis foundation. These events are creating great opportunities to serve our communities while somewhat serving as social events to further promote brotherhood.

We hosted a Badger homecoming game and pre-game brunch at our house. A large portion of our graduate chapter attended the celebration, and collegiate brothers were then able to attend their meeting that same day. We also completed the pledge season with a fun-filled banquet and dance after initiating our two junior actives.

To foster relations with our school of pharmacy, we had a holiday party at our house and invited the dean and associate dean of students to tour the house and celebrate the holiday season. We had an evening of making gingerbread houses, decorating a tree, enjoying favorite holiday treats, and gift-wrapping. We wrapped gifts for a family of three that we adopted through the Salvation Army. To raise money for this cause, we sold "Get Out of Dressing Up Free" coupons to classmates so we didn't have to dress up for our final week of pharmacotherapy laboratory. We organize the coupon fund-raiser each semester to raise money for charity, and this activity proves to be a successful way to get the school involved in our cause.

Also to improve relations with the school of pharmacy, we are planning to design a new pharmaceutical bulletin board in the lobby of our school to make sure students don't miss out on learning about new drugs to treat disease states we have studied in school.

Our last few months can pretty much be summed up in one word: CONCLAVE! It was a lot of work and fun putting on the fall conclave. Friday night consisted of checking in, goody bags, Hillbilly Hoedown, and midnight pizza. Saturday morning came too quickly for many, but those who made it had a successful meeting. A slideshow from GCC was the highlight of the morning, along with reports from each school. Saturday night's buffet dinner was accompanied by keynote speaker Sean Higgins, Grand Vice Regent. The night ended with a good ol' Halloween party where many different costumes were displayed. Some of the best costumes were the blonde biker chick, the Incredibles, Batman, the Smurfs, and the Gilligan's Island crew.

After a full weekend of conclave, our chapter will focus on replenishing our funds with fund raising at Yonkers, getting our 32 new initiates involved, and the Hoops for Healing basketball tournament. October was a busy month of fellowship. Our biannual Adopt-A-Highway cleanup and social was a big success, as well as our annual food collection and donation project that we like to call "Trick or Treat for the Poverello Food Center," a homeless shelter in Missoula. In addition, each year a couple of brothers sit on the board for the Juvenile Diabetes Research Foundation Texas Hold'em Tournament fund-raiser. Several brothers got donations, played in the tournament, helped serve, and organized the event. The one-day event raised more than $40,000 for the JDRF.

As always, our chapter hosted tailgates to kick off each Grizzly home football game. Homecoming once again was our biggest game, and we welcomed several Gamma Eta graduates and Grizzly Grad brothers with warm chili, hot chocolate, and school spirit. Our chapter celebrated Halloween with our annual costume party that included everything from teachers to trolls! Everyone agreed it was a great time.

Donations were collected at chapter meetings and sent to Iota chapter to help with hurricane relief. Gamma Kappa brothers cleaned up three miles of beautiful Highway 14, running east of Brookings. Unfortunately, nothing too exciting was found in the ditches. Volunteers working on the local Habitat for Humanity House were served a hearty meal of sloppy joes,

More than 20 brothers traveled to Omaha to attend Province VIII's fall conclave, hosted by Gamma Epsilon. We would like to congratulate and thank Gamma Epsilon for hosting such a great conclave. All of our brothers had an outstanding time. Gamma Kappa took home the Golden Peanut for the second straight time with a chapter report based loosely on Celebrity Jeopardy. All of the chapter reports were great and entertaining. Let's keep up the good work, Province VIII! Patty Baldwin of Gamma Kappa was awarded a Collegiate Development award for her active ness in our Fraternity.

Socially, brothers continued to be a big part of each other's lives. We had an official movie night at the local theatre. Brothers who live in the house invited students from the college of pharmacy over for a Thanksgiving spaghetti feed. Everyone ate til they were pleasantly full.

The room had flashes of vibrant colors against blue-tinted low light. Behind the DJ booth was a projection screen of music videos.

Athleticism is a strong point for the brothers of Gamma Nu. Our intramural flag football team went undefeated in the regular season but lost in the A League semifinals. Our intramural bowling team was the champion of the 2005 bowling

It's been an exciting semester for all of us in Gamma. We've been having a great time and are enjoying plenty of participation from our members, even in the face of some hectic schedules.

Our chapter celebrated a great success in membership as we initiated 25 enthusiastic pledges on November 18. Following the Initiation Ceremony, we had a blast at The Keys nightclub in Tucson where dancing, drinks, and great company helped end the night with a bang. The pledges made us proud last semester with their participation in several activities. Our annual Photo Hunt, a modified scavenger hunt where we take photos instead of other people's property, was a lot of fun and gave the teams a chance to show their creativity in some oddball situations. In addition to creativity, the pledges had a chance to show off their sense of humor during our annual Halloween party as they performed hilarious skits to demonstrate various pharmacologically-related health products. Definitely no room for shyness there! The pledges also put on a car wash that brought in some welcome cash that will help with chapter functions.

Homecoming was a great success this year, not only because our team actually won for once. The opportunity to meet Kappa Psi alumni is always a nice surprise. The alumni were also generous in their support as they bought Kappa Psi T-shirts while visiting and sharing some memories.

Another memory that won't soon be forgotten is last semester's return of slushball. We took advantage of our day off from school on Veterans' Day to play a friendly game. In the end, everyone had a good time and we were able to stumble off the field in one piece.

Outside of Tucson, Gamma Upsilon was proud to send eight representatives to the October 8 Province IX meeting in San Diego. We had a great time, and as all of us were first-timers, we welcomed the opportunity to meet many amazing people while getting involved in the functions of the Province as a whole. We were thrilled when our chapter was honored with an award for most improved attendance. I'm sure we're not the only ones looking forward to the next Province meeting in Las Vegas.

We're looking forward to continuing this year's successes with our annual fund-raiser for cancer research. It won't be easy to top last year's donation of $2,000, but I know we're up for the challenge. We will also continue to sell Kappa Psi T-shirts and possibly create some new ones. In the mean time, each class will be racking its brains to come up with the best idea for our annual theme party competition. Last year, the first-year students celebrated the victory with their Old Men and School Girls get-together. We'll have to see who takes home the trophy this year.

We held a Swing Dance for a Cure night where we taught a swing dancing class and asked for donations, with all proceeds going to pediatrics. We also held a stuffed animal drive and donated stuffed animals to the children at the local hospital.

Delta Theta welcomed the new first-year professional students to pharmacy school. We hosted our annual barbecue and served chips, hot dogs, and hamburgers. We worked willingly with the faculty and students on a community service project, gathering food, clothing, and supplies to aid the Katrina victims.

We sold pharmacy handbags to our students, along with T-shirts designed and created by Theta brothers. Both fund-raiser items boosted our Fraternity sales.

Socially, brothers had a blast at our mixer at the Double Tree Hotel. The team played games, ate pizza, and enjoyed brotherhood bonding.

Washington, D.C. 20059

Being located in the wonderful city of Washington, D.C., the brothers of Delta Kappa chapter have taken advantage of community service opportunities that are available throughout the area. Delta Kappa participated in projects such as the AIDS Walk, Helping Hands at a local nursing home facility, the CVS Health Fair at the Washington Convention Center, an educational children's program to inform them of the importance of taking care of themselves, a Medicare Part D program at Howard University Hospital to inform the elderly on the changes and their best options.

We are focused on continuing Kappa Psi's legacy at Howard University by continually getting more students interested in Kappa Psi. To do this, Delta Kappa holds Delta Theta brothers from Texas Southern.

Kappa Psi Week. There were flyers and event announcements all around the school of pharmacy telling students where they could come and get to know the brothers of the Fraternity. Many new first-year pharmacy students and others came out to learn about Kappa Psi. Some events included a skit night, a meet-and-greet potluck dinner social, a breakfast brunch, and an interest meeting. Toward the end of the semester, pledge masters Whitni Bennett and Keyani Dedmon handed out the applications so Delta Kappa could begin their 2006 intake process to further increase our chapter.

The brothers of Delta Kappa have also worked together to raise money for the chapter. The most successful fund-raiser was selling Joe Corbi's, a company that makes pizza kits, soft pretzels, sweet rolls, calzones, cheesy bread, and cookies. Brothers sold within the school of pharmacy, and many brothers took their smiling sale faces to their families, their jobs, and their churches. Delta Kappa also developed an All I Want for Christmas fund-raiser and sold raffle tickets for three prizes: a wall-mountable CD player, a DVD player, and a 1GB jump drive.

Brothers of Delta Mu are pleased to have welcomed several new members this year, and we recently completed the election of many promising new officers. Brothers have been volunteering for a soup kitchen in downtown Vancouver, and we are continuing to raise money for charity through our recycling program.

During the Christmas season, Delta Mu brothers volunteered to wrap presents in support of the Multiple Sclerosis Society of Canada. We sent many boxes of Christmas presents overseas through Operation Christmas Child and Samaritan's Purse. In the coming months, brothers plan to raise money to sponsor a child overseas, design UBC pharmacy T-shirts, and continue to volunteer for worthy causes, such as this spring's MS walk.

Delta Nu brothers have accomplished a great deal during our first quarter at Midwestern, but we still have lots to do the rest of the year. In light of all the natural disasters this year, we focused our fund-raising efforts to support the victims of and volunteers in the various relief efforts. In conjunction with Walgreens and the other colleges of Midwestern, we were able to raise thousands and thousands of dollars for the Hurricane Katrina fund. Not only did we raise mon-tary funds, but we also helped by sending food, medical supplies, and clothing.

Our pledging season came to an end when we initiated the Mu pledge class. These pledges showed a lot of enthusiasm, hard work, integrity, and commitment this year, so we threw them a toga party at Tina Horsky's house, our newly elected GCD. Our pledges are a great group, and we look forward to their membership in Kappa Psi.

There are a number of Delta Nu brothers who will be attending the ASHP midyear convention in Las Vegas, so we hope to see the rest of you out there.

The brothers of Delta Rho excitedly welcomed 19 new brothers to our chapter. The pledges did a great job during Interrogation Night, which was held in late October. They all pulled together and learned the information about our Fraternity. Special thanks to pledge master Joy Ferris who put a lot of time into getting the pledges ready. Afterward, brothers and pledges got to relax and enjoy dinner together.

We had a great time participating in the Asthma Walk in Ft. Lauderdale and raised more than $300. We also held another road cleanup after finals.

If there's one way to describe the past few months for Delta Sigma chapter, it's "full of change." Our third-year brothers left for their final rotations and we had a brand new class of prospective individuals. We started the quarter on a great note when several brothers attended the Province IX assembly in San Diego. It was a fun-filled and educational weekend for everyone. The assembly meeting itself was very productive while the banquet and social allowed the entire Province to come together and reflect on previous activities. Our chapter was very excited to take home two awards. We reclaimed the Lapiz Taquitos award for the most creative chapter report and received the Publishers award for continual efforts and representation in The MASK.

We would like to congratulate Jessica Wilson, Heather Scheckler, Megan May, Natalie Reed, Patrick Wehmeier, Reed Hall, and Jeff O'Connel for being inducted into Rho Chi Honor Society for their outstanding academic achievements. In addition, we would like to recognize Jeff O'Connel and Jessica Wilson as the newest Phi Lambda Sigma members for their admirable leadership skills.

On November 19, the Zeta class hosted a chapter-wide garage sale. Our brothers all donated items and the money made was donated to the victims of Hurricane Katrina. Later that evening, several of these same brothers dressed up disco and spent the night at a local roller-skating rink. The entire day will remain a great memory for the chapter.

Delta Sigma is excited to begin our official pledge events. Throughout January and February, many new students will take part in a scavenger hunt, improvisation skits, a Kappa Psi history lesson and quiz, pledge manuals, pinning, a welcome dinner, interviews, and initiation into this prominent Fraternity. We are confident that these students will prove to be great assets to Delta Sigma and Kappa Psi as a whole.

To top off all of these exciting new changes, we are trying to implement a tutoring program for our fellow brothers who may need a little extra help with their classes. This has been a widely accepted idea, especially for the new class of students who are anticipating their initiation into Kappa Psi.

Delta Tau chapter has been multiplying. We initiated 45 brothers into our small chapter on October 28, of which 43 individuals were pharmacy students and two were faculty members. Our Initiation Ceremony was an exciting evening filled with Ritual, friendship and memories. After the ceremony, many of us went to dinner at the Grand Lux Café at the Venetian Hotel and Casino on the famous Las Vegas Strip.

Delta Tau chapter brothers enjoyed cooking hotdogs and hamburgers at a tailgating party at a UNLV vs University of Utah football game in October. Delta Tau brothers enjoyed good food and a great game.

Delta Tau regent Jeff Mandel, vice regent Emily Maier, past regent Chris Hightower, and Grand Council Deputy Allison Welder had a blast at the Province IX meeting in San Diego. While in town, they were able to converse and meet brothers from all across our Province.

We also had our first full member meeting with our new brothers and a special visitor from Des Moines. Brother Dena Kroska, Province VII secretary, came to visit while completing a rotation at the University Medical Center in Las Vegas.

We're busy planning the Province IX meeting. We hope all of you will come out and visit fun-filled Las Vegas.

Delta Phi chapter had the honor of hosting the Province meeting and social at La Jolla Brewing Company during fall quarter. The night was filled with fun and brotherhood, and was deemed a success by all who attended, including our rushees. Delta Phi looks forward to hosting more Fraternity events in the future.

Our chapter was pleased to have 35 students pledge our Fraternity this year. Pledge activities included decoding Greek messages, instructing the pledges in activities and our history, a community service hypertension screening, and a pledge-planned party for the active brothers, among other activities. The Pinning Ceremony was held on November 28 with a special multicultural celebration known as HannaKwanaRamadas Eve planned for after the ceremony. Our pledges were invited to the Pinning Ceremony and celebration by carefully made "golden tickets" placed inside Kappa Psi candy bars that were in their mailboxes. The celebration was Willy Wonka-themed, complete with a chocolate fountain and dipping foods. Active brothers were also invited to the celebration by different golden tickets.

Delta Phi set up a tutoring service especially for second-year students for the organ physiology class. Tutoring is also available to students who are not brothers, although preference will go to brothers. In addition, we designed new chapter T-shirts for the active brothers so we can continue to show pride in our organization.

Delta Phi is happy to be continually growing in size and brotherhood, and we greatly look forward to a prosperous winter quarter where we can both solidify our traditions and establish new ones.

As mentioned in the last MASK article, we had two individuals going through the pledging process. We are happy to announce that both Chris Cundiff and Igor Kleiner were successful in completing the rigorous Mu Omicron Pi pledging process. They were initiated into the Fraternity on November 18. They are looking forward to meeting brothers in Province V at the meeting in Big Rapids.

In light of Halloween festivities, we decided to open our house to the pharmacy school for a Halloween party where we provided the food and refreshments. It was a wonderful success and we are planning to have more get-togethers with our classmates in the future. Our upcoming events will be posted on our website, www.orgsites.com/mi/kappaspis. All chapters are welcome to attend.

During the holiday season, we believe it's one of the most important times to give back to the community. Therefore, every Thanksgiving and Christmas, the brothers of Mu Omicron Pi volunteer at St. Theodore's Church to help in St. Vincent DePaul's Food Drive for the needy.

Ada Graduate

In October, Ada Grad held our annual homecoming meeting in conjunction with the Ohio Northern homecoming festivities. Although the turnout was small, we were able to have a productive meeting and enjoy in the fellowship of Kappa Psi. We also would like to congratulate Brother Justin Coby on winning the Craig A. Boyce Brotherhood Award.

Delta Sigma brothers are excited to recapture the "Lapiz Taquitos" award for the most creative chapter report at the Province IX assembly in San Diego.

In November, we met at Brother Bob Hope's house to plan future meetings and activities for Ada Grad. We discussed moving the meetings around the state of Ohio rather than just meeting in Ada or Columbus. We also discussed trying to plan social activities around the meetings and just have gatherings such as sporting events or golf outings.

Arizona Graduate

Brothers traveled to beautiful San Diego to attend the Province IX interim assembly in October. Brothers flew in early Friday and enjoyed lunch at Daphne's Greek Café with other brothers who arrived early. The afternoon was spent scouting the area and relaxing. Brothers met visiting brothers, Radar and Craig Burkin, and walked to Rock Bottom for dinner. Then, a couple brothers joined the festivities at the Pacific Beach Bar and Grill. Despite a long night, brothers arrived bright and early Saturday morning for the assembly. During the assembly, our chapter was designated the permanent archive chapter. Following the assembly, brothers enjoyed the dinner banquet and post-banquet festivities. On Sunday, brothers visited Sea World before returning to Phoenix. We were very pleased with the attendance and success of the assembly. We would like to commend the assembly coordinators, Linda Ngo and Sanaz Farhadian, and Delta Phi chapter for their outstanding work.

Weeks after returning from San Diego, brothers Bonita Shin and Brett Rathi traveled to Province II and Province VIII, respectively, to officially kick off their supervisory roles. Brother Bonita made her debut in Pittsburgh, and Brother Brett made his debut in Omaha.

Brothers continue to support Arizona's two collegiate chapters, Gamma Upsilon and Delta Sigma. Brothers joined Gamma Upsilon for a sloshball game on Veteran's Day. And we're looking forward to participating in Delta Sigma's upcoming pledge events. We cannot wait to reunite with the rest of Province IX at the next province assembly in Las Vegas in March.

Boston Graduate

It's cold up here in the North, and as usual, we Boston guys are doing our best to get away from it. It all started in sunny San Diego where a few of us, including Grand Historian Claudio Faria made the trip for the Province IX meeting. It was a very successful meeting, and we all had a great time. Another bonus of the weekend was that we got to reunite with Sam Barbat who just left Boston after graduation and returned home to California. We definitely miss Sam, and it was great to see him. Our next adventure was out to Omaha for the Province VIII meeting. Not only was it strange for a group of guys to be in Nebraska, but it just happened to be on Halloween weekend. Despite some strange advice we received from a psychic while at the EC dinner, we had a blast and realized how much fun we can have outside the city. We were also graced with the presence of Province I satrap Josh Gagnon who also made the trip and shared a room with us. It is always nice to travel to other Provinces and see how the Fraternity functions in other parts of the country.

Our own Province I meeting was held in Albany, New York. A successful meeting was held, with almost every P1 chapter present, and a good time was had by all. Brothers took part in serving breakfast at the Ronald McDonald House and then all went out for dinner after the meeting. We would like to thank newly appointed P1 supervisor Tracy Anderson-Haag and her crew for making the trip to Albany. Tracy is a tremendous asset to Kappa Psi, and we all look forward to working with her over the next few years. Our next venture is to the ASHP midyear meeting in Las Vegas. We are not sure if we are going to have much fun in Vegas, but we will give it our best shot.

Grand Historian Claudio Faria just began a new job with Schering-Plough, and Boston Graduate regent Jason Tremblay just began a new job in Hartford, Connecticut, working for Yale University. Also, past Boston Graduate regent Frank Petrillo passed his bar exam and is now ready to practice law. Congratulations to all of you, and good luck with your new positions.

Montana Graduate

As probably the next to last article written by me as Montana Graduate historian, I want to personally thank Grizzly Graduate brothers Frank Nash, Kelcey, and Nancy Diemert, Dave Forbes, Teri Ogg, and Heidi Kuiper for their support at the Gamma Eta tailgate experiences this year. It was great to see these brothers after time away. Also, help is needed as both Teri Ogg and Heidi Kuiper are reaching out to try to get more of the Oregon area grads involved with Portland Graduate chapter.

Brother Ed Cole is now on a National Committee, and part of his outreach on the Longevity Committee is to restore those chapters that serve graduate brothers. Brothers Heidi and Teri will be helping him attract the former collegiate brothers who are now graduated and living in the Oregon area. If you are in the Oregon area, please e-mail Terri Ogg at teri_ogg@hotmail.com. I hope that many brothers in the Oregon area will help brothers Ed, Teri, and Heidi in this endeavor. We look forward to seeing many of you at the Province X meeting in Missoula over President's Day weekend, February 17-20. This will also be the last meeting that I will be attending from Province X before my move to Province IX, so I hope to see many former Gamma Eta and Beta Pi brothers there.

Pacific Graduate

During the fall and early winter months, the brothers of Pacific Grad were actively helping Gamma Nu be the best they can. From just hanging out with them and potential brothers after chapter meetings to parties and formal gatherings, the alumni did what they could to show their support.

On December 8, a gathering of brothers joined the Province at its meeting in San Diego, the first for Delta Phi chapter. The night before, the brothers who made the trip joined a group of brothers from the area for dinner at Rei Do Gado, a Brazilian barbecue restaurant. Dr's Michael Cuellar, Ominder Mehta, Brett Sloan, Leland Ibarra, Brandon Okaneku, Mike Evangelista, Henry Chan, Richard Chong, and Chris Woo devoured pounds of meat off skewers while being served by Brazilian waitresses. Then they ventured to PB Bar and Grill for more bonding with the brothers and the rest of the Province.

The next day during the assembly and the social event, brothers Derrick Egi, Eric Gupta, Andy Morales, Dany Khloth, Bennett Blancaflor, Mike Evangelista, Brandon Okaneku, Michael Cuellar, Ominder Mehta, Leland Ibarra, and Brett Sloan participated in the remainder of the weekend's festivities. The brothers all had a great time bonding with everyone who came out.

Brothers at a workshop during the Province II meeting.

A couple of weeks later, Gamma Nu threw their Halloween Havoc social event. Costumed brothers, potentials, guests, and alumni used the annual event to bond, and unite old and new faces. Alumni brothers in attendance were Brandon Okaneku, Leland Ibarra, Ominder Mehta, Justin Sakaguchi, Reid Kodani, and Mike Evangelista.

Throughout the rest of the season, collegians invited alumni to their meetings, social gatherings, and other events to get to know people who might rush in the spring. Dr. Jeff Joliff joined the Pacific Grad officers for dinner following their officer meeting. Chris Amaral, Gabe Leung, Donald Floriddia, Derrick Egi, and Samuel Hodges met with the Gamma Nu officers to discuss upcoming issues, which included putting together the next newsletter and planning for continued fund raising. Then Jeff joined them for dinner at The Shadows. Basils and The Graduate also played host to a gathering of brothers this fall. Brother Hodges opened his home to any brothers in the area who did not have family around for Thanksgiving. Brother Hodges was once in this predicament, calling Hawaii his home. Going home meant losing precious study time prior to finals. Thanks, Sam, for paying it forward.

We would like to congratulate Beta Kappa on its new FPC 05 class of 39 brothers (the largest in Beta Kappa's history), as well as Delta Epsilon on their FPC 05 class of four new brothers. We would also like to congratulate Beta Kappa on winning both the Province II 2005 Chapter of the Year and Slideshow Presentation awards. Very nice job. We are also proud to report that Pittsburgh Graduate, as well as Beta Kappa and Delta Epsilon, were presented with W. Bruce Philip Certificates of Commendation by Grand Regent Dave Maszkiewicz for conspicuous service to the 52nd GCC, at the same Province II fall assembly, hosted by Delta Epsilon here in Pittsburgh.

We would like to thank brothers Jacque Truance, Beta Kappa, and Kelly Fee, Delta Epsilon, for their service on the Pittsburgh Graduate Executive Board (2004–present), for their service to the Graduate chapter, and for their efforts to help coordinate joint activities. Thanks, ladies. Great job!

Our future plans include “pass the hat” dinner meetings at Beta Kappa and Delta Epsilon, as well as general social activities with our local collegiate chapters. One final note: Congratulations to chapter secretary Dee Hall, and brothers Dr. Brian Potoski and Dr. Scott Mark, for their election to replace Beta Kappa faculty GCD Dr. Terry Schwinghamer, who left Pitt to accept a position at WVU. We wish him well in his new position. Four brothers of Pittsburgh Graduate now serve as GCDs of Beta Kappa: Dr. Deanne Hall, David Maszkiewicz, Dr. Brian Potoski, and Dr. Scott Mark.

Province II held its fall meeting in Pittsburgh at Duquesne University. We had a very successful meeting, during which we also held a silent auction to raise money to donate to the Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund. Our spring meeting is scheduled for March 25 at Wilkes University in Wilkes-Barre, Pennsylvania. Also during our meeting we decorated door hangers, which were donated to a local nursing home for Thanksgiving. Province III

On October 21-22, Province III held our second fall assembly in Richmond Virginia, hosted by Theta chapter. Collegiate chapters in attendance included Theta, Iota, Sigma, Delta Kappa, Delta Lambda, and Delta Xi. The Graduate chapters represented included North Carolina and Virginia Grad. In true Province III fashion, the brothers who were able to make it on Friday got together and had a wonderful time together.

On Saturday, we were welcomed by vice satrap Erica Lauer, while Brother Kevin Thorne gave us a review of the weekend. Grand Ritualist Andrew Frasco informed the assembly that we had some special visitors. Students from the University of Appalachia and Hampton University, who are in the process of chartering two new chapters, joined us for the afternoon session, which included lunch and our philanthropy project. Grand Regent Dave Maszkiewicz reminded us of his platform from the GCC in Pittsburgh: Seeing the Possibilities. This has become the theme for the National Executive Committee. Eight new committees have been established to accomplish the task of “being a little better tomorrow than we are today.” Grand Regent Maszkiewicz urged brothers to think about what we can do to make Kappa Psi better. Brothers were encouraged to contact him or any member of the National Executive Committee with thoughts, concerns, or questions.

Correspondence from Grand Councilor Becky Fahrenbruch was delivered to the assembly by the Grand Ritualist. She requested that the bylaws of each chapter be sent to her by e-mail at bjnorwak@excite.com since the bylaws need her approval before they can become effective. The Grand Ritualist was next to give his report. He informed us that there are four goals he has set for himself during his term. Two of these were addressed in his report. The first was a reminder to all chapters still in possession of the misprinted red Ritual books to return them to him (his address is on the website). The reprinted Ritual will be distributed to each chapter once it is published. The second goal concerns the financial aspect of chapters. He reminded brothers that each chapter that handles more than $25,000 for the year, be it in membership dues, registration fees, merchandise, etc., must submit IRS Form 990.

After the National Officer reports were read, the minutes from the last Province assembly were read by secretary/treasurer Lazaros Pastrikos. This was followed by Province Officer reports, which included a slideshow from the GCC.

As planned, our guests from Appalachia and Hampton joined us for lunch and assisted in preparing our Halloween bags for the Reverse Trick-or-Treat philanthropy project. The weekend continued with an Oktoberfest theme banquet, German menu and all.

Province IV

Province IV is proud to announce a new addition to Kappa Psi Fraternity and Province IV. Delta Omega chapter was chartered at South School of Pharmacy on December 10 in Savannah, Georgia.

Numerous Province IV brothers have done many things to advance the interests of this Fraternity by helping those who were affected by the recent natural disasters. Many brothers set up fund-raisers and clothing drives to send much-needed items to those in need. We also have brothers serving on the newly formed Katrina Relief and Crisis Management Committee to further help those affected.

The brothers of Province IV would like to welcome our new Province supervisor Mike Starvaggi to the community.

Province V

The Province V midyear assembly was held September 31-October 1 in Indianapolis and was hosted by the brothers of Beta Upsilon. More than 100 brothers were in attendance, including Grand Regent Dave Maszkiewicz and Past Grand Regent Brian Reisetter. Province V welcomed our new Province V supervisor, Grand Counselor Becky Fahrenbruch, and our new assistant supervisor, Dr. Elizabeth Poole, at our Saturday meetings. The weekend concluded with a wonderful reception recognizing Beta Upsilon's 75th anniversary. Grand Regent Dave Maszkiewicz presented Beta Upsilon with many wonderful awards to recognize this great achievement.

Over the weekend, brothers held a raffle and raised more than $600 for the Hurricane Katrina Relief Fund and will continue their efforts throughout the year to support those affected by the hurricane.

Dates have been set for the 2006 Province assembly, hosted by Gamma Chi: April 7-9. Hope to see you all there!

Province VIII

Greetings from your Province VIII brothers! The brothers of Gamma Epsilon chapter at the University of Nebraska Medical Center hosted the Province VIII fall conclave on October 28 and 29. We had a phenomenal 209 brothers, pledges, and guests in attendance at the Holiday Inn Central in Omaha. The weekend started off with a Hoedown theme party. Hillbillies, cowboys, and cowgirls were comin' out of the woodwork.

Saturday morning's business meeting started with the call to order by our satrap, Tracy Anderson-Haag. All graduate and collegiate chapters were present. The Grand officers in attendance were Grand Vice Regent Sean Higgins, Grand Councilor Becky Fahrenbruch, and Grand Historian Claudio Faria. We were even joined by Province VIII supervisor Brett Rathi and assistant Province VIII supervisor Eric Sousa. In addition, we had visitors from all of the Provinces, with the exception of Province X. It was like having GCC all over again!

The business meeting started with a presentation by Chrisann Rauzi for the National Chapter Awards Committee. Some highlights included the numerous awards that Province VIII received at GCC. We had four of eight Province VIII chapters in the top 11 chapters in the nation. Delta Zeta got the Nicholas Fenney Industry Improvement Award, we had five Foundation scholarship winners, 100 percent submission of the Progress Report form, and Minnesota Grad is now number one! Province VIII rocks!

The meeting proceeded with communications from other Provinces, Province officer reports, and committee reports. Highlights include the following: The Health Promotion and Education Committee recommended changing our Province project from blood pressure screenings to cardiovascular health promotion. The Risk Management Committee discussed our Province VIII policy and the importance of risk management within each chapter. A committee was formed to review the Province VIII policy, and they will present the revised policy this spring.

The meeting ended with elections of new Province VIII officers. Meagan Wilson was elected satrap, Jeremy Whalen was elected chaplain, and Deanna McDanel was elected historian.

The Saturday night banquet started with a welcome from the dean of UNMC, Clarence Ueda. Grand Vice Regent Sean Higgins gave a heartfelt and endearing speech on the importance of risk management within Kappa Psi. The award recipients for the evening were: a recognition button for Gamma Epsilon's conclave chair, Amy Eschliman; the Golden Peanut to Gamma Kappa for the most informative and entertaining chapter report for their rendition of Jeopardy; the Traveling Trophy to Beta Nu for the chapter with the highest percentage of active brothers present; Province VIII Graduate Development awards to Jeremy Whalen and Patty Baldwin; and the Keeper of the Hoe, Josh Nielsen, who passed it on to Brian Entinger. Lastly, Meagan Wilson presented immediate past satrap Tracy Anderson-Haag with a gift certificate for her six years of devotion to the Province VIII Executive Committee.

Saturday night ended with a Halloween Ball. The creativity of our brothers exploded as there were so many awesome costumes! Finally, we came together as brothers and were able to donate food items to the Ronald McDonald House and $587 to the Iota chapter Katrina Hurricane Relief Fund. One of our brothers even shaved his head for the cause!

What an awesome weekend! We send a big thanks to Gamma Epsilon. The spring conclave will be held April 21-22 in Omaha, hosted by Beta Nu.

Province IX

Brothers gathered in San Diego for the largest-attended Province IX assembly on record. Brothers from all nine chapters were present, including two GCDs: Michael Dietrich, Delta Sigma, and Allison Welder, Delta Tau. We would like to commend the Delta Phi brothers for hosting the assembly.

Festivities started Friday evening at the Pacific Beach Bar and Grill where brothers celebrated the reunion on the largest patio in San Diego. After a few hours of sleep, brothers met for bagels and lots of coffee at the UCSD Skaggs School of Pharmacy and Pharmaceutical Sciences on Saturday morning. The assembly started when satrap Derrick Egi put the Province gavel's strength to the test.

Province IX was honored and proud to welcome new supervisors

Back row: Rafael Veasy, Meoshia Wafer, Joyce Fender, Julian Vargas, Rajan Desai, Wade Dean, Rex Gueffroy, Peter Palizo.

At the Province V meeting, Grand Regent Dave Maszkiewicz and Grand Counselor Becky Fahrenbruch present regent Neil Ratcliff an award in honor of Beta Upsilon's 75th anniversary.

Cameron Van Dyke and Claudio Faria. We were also pleased to have visiting brothers Craig Burkin, Sam Barbat, Erick Sousa, and Jason Tremblay in attendance. Brothers took a break from business at lunch and were treated to a slideshow of highlights from the 52nd GCC, called Province IX in Pittsburgh.

The assembly adjourned early, which allowed brothers to gather at the hotel for a brotherly game of Texas Hold'em. The dinner and awards presentation was held at the La Jolla Brewery and Restaurant. Delta Phi chapter surprised and impressed the Province by reserving the entire restaurant, which was open only to Kappa Psi brothers. Brothers enjoyed appetizers and food, served buffet-style.

Brothers Linda Ngo and Sanaz Farhadian were presented with Kappa Psi Recognition Pins for their outstanding job in coordinating the assembly. Gamma Nu received the Travelers Award for bringing the most brothers. Delta Sigma received the Lapiz Taquitos Award for the best chapter report. Gamma Upsilon received the Fellow-hood and Brother-ship Award for the most improved attendance. And Beta Gamma and Delta Sigma received Publishers awards for putting together exemplary publications epitomizing Kappa Psi.

The assembly was very successful and we had a lot to celebrate: 100 percent submission of the 2005 chapter reports, 100 percent representation at the 52nd GCC, 100 percent representation in the last two issues of The MASK, and 100 percent attendance at the province assembly. We can't wait to meet again in Las Vegas for our next assembly, which will be held March 3-4. All brothers are welcome to attend. The Spirit of Kappa Psi

As the New Year begins, I think it is an appropriate time to take a moment to reflect on those things we should be thankful for, and to make a wish for better things to come this year.

As always, let us be thankful for our friends and family, and for the good health that we all possess at one time or another. As my drill sergeant in the Air Force was fond of saying, "Cheer up, Airman. It could always be worse." And as I reflect on the many challenges I have faced over the years, from illness to the death of my mother, and from horrible supervisors to getting through pharmacy and graduate school, I find my drill sergeant's statement to be true. It could have been a lot worse. During those challenges, I was fortunate enough to have supportive friends and family, and since my pharmacy school days, I have always been able to count on my Kappa Psi brothers to cheer me up when I was down, and to come through for me when I needed it.

Throughout this New Year, I wish for the spirit of Kappa Psi to continue to shine brightly, and I wish for more graduate brothers to continue to stay connected to their Kappa Psi family. I don't know about you, but when I pledged, I was told that Kappa Psi is for life. And although I didn't consider it a marriage, I understood that "for better or for worse" was part of the commitment of joining Kappa Psi. So if you are a graduate brother who has lost touch with Kappa Psi, contact the closest collegiate or graduate chapter and find out what is going on. The spirit of Kappa Psi survives on the blood and vigor of its members, and as collegiate and graduate brothers fall away from the Fraternity, the brightness and vigor of Kappa Psi begins to diminish.

And for the collegiate brothers, make the graduate brothers feel welcome when they come to events or stop by the house. I know that you may feel uncomfortable talking to someone you don't know. But imagine that they are a long-lost relative who you like or heard good things about, and make them feel welcome. And in that light, I have a wish that at least once a year all collegiate chapters would contact their graduate brothers, by mail or e-mail, just to say hi and see how they are doing. It becomes a pain when the only time graduate brothers hear from their collegiate chapter is when they are asking for a donation. It's very similar to only calling your parents when you are in trouble or need money.

So let us all do our part to keep the Kappa Psi spirit alive. Because yes indeed, things could have been a lot worse. We could have lived our lives without ever knowing the glory that is Kappa Psi.
