OF KAPPA PSI PHARMACEUTICAL FRATERNITY

*Christina Askew

Time to Renew and Reimagine

I have always loved the fall as it combines beginning of the school year activities with end of the calendar year traditions. This provides an opportunity for reflection on the past year along with excitement of planning for what the next academic and fraternal year will bring. Reflection and goal setting are even more important this year as we have faced significant changes over the past two years and the future impact of the ongoing COVID-19 pandemic is still not clear.

This fall brings the majority of our chapters back to campus but with continued adjustment of events and activities. The structure and restrictions for chapters continue to look different across the country and are also different from the settings we all returned to last fall. Virtual classes and meetings remain, combined with smaller in person events with pandemic restrictions. While steps are being taken to return to normal activities, we face the reality that the path ahead will look different from at any point in the past. This is the opportunity to shape the future with renewed energy and work towards new goals. Finding ways to embrace our history while we take new steps will play an important role in being successful. We meet both of these goals by embracing our ideals.

Our chapters have found ways to keep professional and philanthropic events at the forefront despite the challenges of the pandemic. Looking to the future, we need to plan for new opportunities for fellowship and create the processes to safely meet outside our chapters. Now is the time to discuss opportunities to plan and attend events for your chapter members for the upcoming two to three years. Which activities help you grow professionally, improve your chapter, or create the future of Kappa Psi? Attending Province Assemblies and the Grand Council Convention have always taken some planning and some willingness to step out of my comfort zone but I've gained so much from those experiences throughout the years. Like many of our graduate members, it's the fellowship at our in-person events that I have missed most since the pandemic began and most look forward to resuming. We don't yet know many of the answers we need to return to having our events but reimagining them for our future needs is the most important step we can take now to prepare for a strong Kappa Psi experience.

Chapters revamp and return to traditional events

Brothers,

Traditions in Kappa Psi run deep. The pandemic forced us as an organization to cancel or rethink how we could hold on to our traditions while staying safe from the COVID-19 virus. During the pandemic, our chapters found creative ways to hold events and continue our traditions virtually and incorporated new ways to function. Some hosted modified events that went so well, they plan to continue with the modified versions. Other in person traditions like GCC and Province assemblies have been postponed or went virtual until a time we can all gather together. This fall semester has looked different on each campus, as some brothers have returned to in-person classes and recruitment while others are still working in the virtual world. The one tradition that has remained constant throughout the pandemic is our brotherhood and our willingness to be there for each other and serve our communities. The bonds between brothers run deep and will not be broken.

Brothers support from around the globe.

On March 15, 1992, a non-profit organization was established called the Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Foundation to provide educational, leadership, financial assistance, and other charitable functions for Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity.

Seven graduate brothers met during the 1992 American Pharmaceutical Association annual meeting in San Diego at the San Diego Marriott and approved by-laws and elected officers, with Dr. Norman A. Campbell being elected as the first president. The Foundation was officially incorporated on February 16, 1993, in Wilmington, Delaware. Subsequently, the Foundation was granted a tax-exempt status from the Internal Revenue Service under Section 501(c)(3) of the IRS Code.

The purposes and objectives of the Foundation are exclusively charitable, scientific, education and literary. As stipulated in the Foundation by-laws, the specific objectives of the Foundation include:

- Assist in the education of selected qualified students of pharmacy and other qualified students through financial aid and scholarship programs.
- Foster the educational goals (scholarship and scientific research) of Kappa Psi Pharmaceutical Fraternity, Inc.
- Encourage the advancement of the practice of pharmacy through the rendition of continuing educational services for the benefit of pharmacists, other health care professionals and the general public.
- Provide opportunities for the advancement of new pharmacy developments through the financial support of research, and to convey this knowledge to members of the profession and the general public.
- Promote the improvement of the general welfare of the community through the support of pharmacy outreach programs by chapters, such as medication counseling programs, drug abuse and poison control lectures and health programs for the elderly.
- Assist Kappa Psi members and other professionals who are chemically impaired by serving as a resource for the distribution of brochures and other literature.
- Other 501(c)(3) activities as deemed appropriate by the Board of Directors.

One of the initial goals of the Foundation was to develop a scholarship program to help deserving Kappa Psi brothers to complete their pharmacy education and become contributing members of the pharmacy profession. This goal was first realized in 1995 when the first two scholarships were awarded in the amount of $500 each. Since that time, the Foundation has grown and now contributes $12-14,000 in scholarships every year to deserving collegiate brothers. The annual 5K run is one way the Foundation raises money to help support its goals, the Fraternity, and our profession. ■

In-person classes have resumed this fall semester and our second-year (P2) and third-year (P3) brothers have finally all corralled together on campus. Although first-year (P1) pharmacy students cannot rush in the fall, our P3 brothers met with them and encouraged them to take on student executive positions as well as aim for leadership positions within the SOP. During the autumnal Rush Week, we introduced interested P1s at our Pizza Lunch and connected with P4s and newly-licensed alumni brothers at our Rush Dinner at Buffalo Wild Wings.

We will continue efforts at our main philanthropy, the Center for Healthy Hearts, in October and will also provide medical screenings and other clinical services to the people at Caritas, a shelter that provides aid to those dealing with homelessness in the Metro Richmond area.

It has been an exciting start to the year. We were able to transition back to an in-person recruitment season again and hosted events like trivia night, a cookout, and a PY1 success panel. We had a great time getting to know all of the rushees and had such wonderful turnout at all of our events. We are excited to share that we are welcoming 28 pledges!

Aside from recruitment, we have continued to be involved in a variety of activities. At our annual flu shot clinic in August, our brothers worked with CVS to immunize 30 pharmacy students. Our chaplain has been organizing several philanthropic events, like a virtual 5K race to help fundraise for Reach Out and Read.

It has been a year since we lost our Brother Zayan Shamayeen and our chapter came together to hold a candlelight celebration to honor his life. He will always be in the hearts of our brothers.

We look forward to welcoming back our alumni for Alumni Weekend!

ΓΦ Gamma Phi

University of Georgia

Founded 5/23/1951

gammaphi@kappapsi.org

We have taken eight new pledges this season, each of whom have a bright future ahead of them. We held three different rush events that included kayaking down the Broad River, an alumni roundtable, and a Braves game.

Brothers have continued to volunteer at several vaccine clinics this semester. With the demand for both the COVID and flu vaccines, many of us have been busy. So far, we have been to sorority houses and assisted living homes to administer these vaccines. We take pride in our community work and will continue volunteering throughout the semester.

In September, a few Gamma Phi brothers attended the National Black MBA Association Conference in Chicago. Brothers Mohit Kumar, Kobby Amoah, and David Yi are currently completing their MBA dual degrees along with their Pharm.Ds. To kick off the school year, we put together a "P1 breakfast" to get to know the first-year pharmacy students. This tradition was not able to happen in 2020 due to COVID regulations. Our brothers had the best time getting to know the new pharmacy students and giving some advice on what to expect for the new year. We also served breakfast to some of the pharmacy staff who work at the university. It was so exciting getting to participate in this after a year of having to do almost everything virtually.

Upsilon PY2 and PY3 active brothers make it to the first in-person meeting of the semester since the pandemic.

Starting at the beginning of August, we had a “Back to School Supplies Drive,” teaming up with the Robin Paige Boys and Girls Club in Harnett County. The club currently serves 85 children per day. (More on page 24)

Last year, our chapter created book boxes that were placed throughout our community. Our service chair thought this would be an amazing idea to tie back to our philanthropy, Reach Out and Read. Once the book boxes were set up, we filled them with 10–20 books that any child could take home. We were so excited to be able to provide these books for anyone who needed them. To keep up this service project, we made it a goal to refill the book boxes monthly.

To kick off the semester and celebrate the first day of school, we hosted a brotherhood event at Goodfellas Pizzeria in Lexington. We were excited to all be back together and catch up after the summer break!

We thought the start of the new school year was the perfect excuse to get some new merch and we all wore our shirts to our first chapter meeting of the semester. It was exciting to have our first in-person chapter meeting since the pandemic. We hosted a variety of recruitment events and ended up recruiting 49 new members!

Our brothers got together at the Seaton Center on campus for a volleyball and basketball tournament. It was a fun way to relieve some stress after the first round of block exams. This was the first official event after extending bids to our new members.

This last year was a rollercoaster ride for us. COVID-19 impacted our lives in a tremendous way, but our brothers made sure to make a bigger impact. Many of us volunteered at COVID-19 clinics and even got the chance to administer the vaccine! The pandemic might not have been the best thing to happen but it sure did bring us closer and we kept our Brotherhood strong!

We recently started holding our meetings in person again. We completed Rush Week and held events such as bowling, cards night, and even ice cream and pancakes night. We had interested potential pledges and a strong showing from our active brothers at each of our events.

We also participated in the P1 cookout, which is where all the pharmacy organizations present a little about themselves to the incoming pharmacy students. We gained a lot of interest from this as well.

This semester, we are planning to volunteer at Drug Take Back Day, hold a vaccine clinic, and clean our stretch of highway on Interstate 475.

semester. Our Wild West-themed rush season has been a huge success! We began the semester by welcoming our brothers and potential rushees with our annual cookout. The first official rush event consisted of bowling and pizza that gave us the feeling of getting a strike! We took a break from our studies to give our creative side a chance to shine with some tie-dye and S'mores. All we have to say is... good thing we are future pharmacists. Our third rush event doubled as a philanthropy event. We honored our Midwestern roots and held the ultimate cornhole tournament, where $240 was raised for Reach Out and Read! Our rush season ended with a Grand Slam cheering on our home team at a Cincinnati Reds game! All in all, Beta Phi had a very successful rush season and we are excited to have 26 bids that were accepted this year!

We teamed up with our school's APhA-ASP chapter to host a month-long competition for Walktober. Each day, participants have the opportunity to donate a meal to those in need by either taking 10,000 steps or exercising for 30 minutes a day. The team with the most meals donated wins! Our brothers have also shown support in the community by donating blood at multiple blood drive events. Beta Phi is organizing an event to make care packages for the homeless in October.

We look forward to "seeing" our brothers across the Great Lakes at the 2021 fall Province. While we are not hosting this event in person, we are excited to have the opportunity to hopefully host next fall in 2022!

Our chapter returned to campus in August with great excitement as Ohio Northern University achieved an 80 percent vaccination rate on campus and continued in-person education and resumed in-person extracurricular activities. We met virtually during the summer to keep in touch with brothers we greatly missed and to prepare for the return to campus, as many in-person activities had not been held in over a year. With that being said, we jumped right into recruitment season as classes began.

Our brothers made up 12 of the 54 individuals serving as Orientation Leaders (OL) for the university this year. OLs assist new students with their arrival to campus and guide them through their first few days of living away from home. We were able to establish relationships with many of the new students while spreading knowledge about the Fraternity and increasing our already strong brotherhood bonds. While there are many events held throughout the five days of Welcome Weekend, the most important and useful is Welcome Fest. The Welcome Fest is like a career fair of student organizations that allows students to see what all is offered at Ohio Northern and it is where Kappa Psi recruitment begins!

Our officer of recruitment, Veronica Butts, hosted five rush events with a wide range of activities. We first held an information night, then jumped right into our first event of sand volleyball. This is a brother favorite as it allows us to be competitive with each other while meeting new people! From there, we incorporated the number one enticing agent for college students—food! We served pancakes and had a cookout. Brothers and rushees gave back through our dog toy and Project Linus events. We made and donated more than 30 dog toys to a local shelter and 25 blankets to Project Linus. Through this process, we gained 15 promising pledges.

A team of brothers competed in the annual Founders Mud Volleyball tournament, getting really dirty and making great memories. Thanks to our officer of social affairs, Katie Reeder, and officer of professional affairs, Scott Mitsko, brothers have had plenty of social and professional opportunities.

Ferris State University

In September, Gamma Chi chapter worked hard to ensure the success of their first blood drive of the semester, bringing many donations and saving more than 100 lives. Still trying to keep the community healthy, many of the brothers have been administering COVID-19 tests and vaccines. We as a group have been encouraging all the brothers to get vaccinated along with the entire campus community.

Everyone had a blast at several outdoor recruitment events. Even though we were outside during the two weeks, the weather was nice for the most part. As a chapter, we can now have in-person meetings along with gatherings with less restrictions, are still participating in intramural sports, and are hopeful to have in-person brother nights. We have come so far during these challenging times, but Gamma Chi will always prosper.

Despite the challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic, our chapter had a very successful year. Our brothers have been working hard all summer quarter, both inside and outside of the classroom. This July, our newly elected executive board members filled their positions and immediately got to work!

We had a great time kicking off the summer quarter at the Sullivan University College of Pharmacy PY-1 Organization Fair on July 29.

At the conclusion of our chapter meeting on August 17, we gathered for a dinner event at a local restaurant in Louisville. Events like this are especially important to the chapter because it gives us the opportunity to develop personal relationships and further display the values of Kappa Psi.

On September 9, our chapter hosted a “meet-a-brother” event. Pledge educator Zoe Saulman has plans to kick off Rush Week with three events,

Still amid a pandemic, our brothers have adapted to the challenges of COVID. As future pharmacists, we have been positive and innovative with how best to proceed with our services and activities while keeping our brothers and the community we serve as safe as possible. Having three campuses across Tennessee allows our brothers to serve people throughout the state. Psi brothers have been working hard to help our communities by setting up COVID/flu vaccination clinics, donation drives, and fundraisers.

Our chapter sponsored a diversity session hosted by our Office of Inclusion, Equity, and Diversity director, titled “Not Another Diversity Session,” in which our entire Executive Committee and many brothers from all our campuses attended to help us become more aware and accepting of the unique experiences among our brothers and classmates and embrace the cultures they represent. We also organized a fundraiser sponsored by Chipotle as well as having social events on all three campuses. We made some noise at a Sounds game in Nashville and cheered on our Volunteers at our tailgate event in Knoxville. We are looking forward to having a triple-combo social event with our neighboring chapters: Epsilon Kappa of Belmont University and Epsilon Lambda of Lipscomb University.

This year, we were able to have our classic rush events (Kappa Psi Field Day, a joint Trivia Night, and Golf and Games) while still following CDC, state and local, and school guidelines and restrictions. We are proud to welcome 50 new pledges who, despite current events, wanted to come out and join our chapter and serve the community. This year, we celebrated Bid Day with Taco Tuesday at our house. Kappa Psi cookout in September at alumni brother Dr. Reisetter's house. This was the last of Beta Rho's rush events, so current brothers were able to meet potential new brothers who were rushing.

Treasurer Tate Pepper was this year's "grill master." Current brothers and those rushing were able to sit around and get to know each other better while the food was being grilled. In addition, there was cornhole for everyone to play and football games to watch on the TV.

Potential new brother Victoria Green said, "I really enjoyed myself this past weekend at the Kappa Psi cookout! I was nervous at first to attend the event, but once there, I was able to meet, hold great conversations, and play games with other students also interested in joining the organization. The food was delicious. Overall, it was a great experience!"

Reagan Page, another potential new brother, said her favorite part of the event was watching new friends play cornhole.

Everyone present was thankful to enjoy this time together in person. Beta Rho was able to put on a great final rush event and all who attended the cookout had a great time.

Due to the pandemic, Chi chapter has implemented a mix of virtual and in-person rush events this year. The rushing season kicked off with a TikTok-themed video and a variety of events such as the Picnic at the Park, Professional Panel, and Game Night. As rushing comes to a close, we pinned a new class of 32 enthusiastic pledges. The rushing season this year varied much from last year due to these unprecedented times. As last year's Pledge of the Year, Brother Justin Chhoeun said, "Last year, I enjoyed getting to meet with all the actives personally one on one with no distractions over Zoom, but this year is an exhilarating feeling because you can finally meet them all around the campus." This is a new chapter in the book as the new class of pledges and active brothers will have the opportunity to participate in traditional in-person programs such as the formal presentations as well as the fiercely competitive field day.

Even though philanthropy events have been difficult to orchestrate due to the school's policies, our professional chair will be hosting a Reach Out and Read event and a book drive fundraiser. The books will be donated to pediatric units for children and brothers will have a chance to write a short message inside the cover of the book. Our fall White Coat fundraiser has concluded, and it provided students with a professional and polished look to impress their preceptors.

The semester is off to a great start. We hosted two rush events: Operation Water Balloon Toss and Popsicles and Lawn Games. We had a great turnout for both.

Our Fraternal Relations Committee co-hosted a kickball tournament and lawn game social with Phi Delta Chi and Lambda Kappa Sigma. We also had numerous giveback events, including one at Chipotle and one at Nutrition Hub. Both are hot spots near the campus and we had great turnout from brothers, students, and community members.

The chapter celebrated alongside our P1 brothers who received their white coats in early September.

We look forward to hosting roundtables later this month. These are great opportunities for brothers to hear from pharmacists and residents of various hospitals from the surrounding Indy area. These facilitated discussions are always very educational for our members and we appreciate hearing from those who are volunteering their time and expertise for us!

We are very excited to virtually host the MAP Province this upcoming fall 2021. Our MAP Committee remains busy planning to host. We hope to see everyone there!

This year has been an interesting one due to all the adjustments we had to make in our daily lives for COVID. Fortunately, once again we have gladly begun our rushing and pledging process in person. It has been an adjustment period, as some of our brothers did their rushing and pledging completely virtually and are still new to the in-person procedures. COVID restrictions have required us to improvise for the rushing process and ritual. It was nice to see the brothers who rushed online appreciate what "normal" pledging looks like. Our new brothers provided us with fresh ideas of how procedures could be made more enriching for our pledges. Having an amazing e-board, we have been able to keep on track while providing an optimal experience for our new pledges.

participation by our active brothers even with COVID restrictions. Once again, our brothers really took the initiative to go out in Rockford and get involved to raise awareness of ALS. We will also be volunteering at a food bank in Rockford.

During our chapter's adjustment to the pandemic, some of our social events were being held online via Zoom/Google Meets, like game or movie night. Many of our brothers felt like this was a great idea for some future social events. It provides us a way to be together even when some of us are long distances away and otherwise could not make it to our social events. We are planning to have a movie night social held through Zoom/GroupMe in October. Being able to hold in-person events again, we are excited to be having our first Kappa Psi kickball social!

We are ecstatic to be back in person at the University of Maryland School of Pharmacy. At the end of August, our immediate past regent, Minh Ta, partnered up with our school's American Pharmacists Association to help donate items to Afghan refugees who are moving to the area. Donations from our school and the city of Baltimore were collected over a few weeks. With the help of Brothers Julie Jeong and Emily Ly, they were able to transport several boxes of toiletries, feminine hygiene products, and school supplies to the Adventist Community Services of Greater Washington (ACSGW). The members of the ACSGW were overwhelmed by our support. We are so proud to have brothers who exemplify service and are so willing to give back to their community.

NFL games are now running again at full capacity in the stadiums, which means our brothers are busy working in the concession stands! At the first regular season game, Brothers Paul Badua, Pearl Li, Emily Ly, and Evan Shockey were able to rake in $600 in five hours.

Not only are we meeting the new first-year pharmacy students, but we are finally physically getting to meet and socialize with our second-year brothers who joined last year when we were on Zoom. We started the semester with our annual Back-to-School Kappa Psi Beta Eta Social. It turned out to be a success and really kicked our year off strong.

Our many rush events included Pizza with the Bros, Game Night, Primanti Bros with the Bros, and a lunch at Mountain State. In the middle of our pledging process, we hosted a study night, a speed dating event, and a scavenger hunt. The speed dating event is primarily for our brothers to get to know our new pledges so later in the semester they can become a Big/Little pair. For our scavenger hunt, we sent the pledges across our Morgantown campus to participate in different challenges, including getting a picture with a furry friend and snapping a photo with a pharmacist. It was a beautiful day for the event and our pledges really enjoyed it. One of our next pledge events is a Halloween movie and pumpkin painting. We think this will be a great way to take a break from a stressful week and bond with our classmates.

At our past meeting, 55 brothers received awards for scholarship honors based on their academic GPAs last school year. This was an exciting achievement and it is great motivation to keep up all of the hard work for the current school year.

Coming up, we have our annual trip to Fright Farm and a Halloween Social. Before we take off to Fright Farm, we will host our Big/Little Night which seems to be a favorite event every

Poem by Amanda Kan (Beta Kappa)

Give me a hand
And shake mine
Chatter and crooked name tags
A sea of faces, foreign but kind

Give me a hand
To find my way
In a maze of blue and glass and wood
Relief, that face I met the other day

Give me your hand
To stop the spins
My thoughts turning, racing, scrambling
Don't stress, you say, you got this

Give me your hand
When I reach a low
Drawing these lines, straight on smooth
Colors not gray, but scarlet so

Give me your hands
To support me through
You never judged
But were there steady, grounded, my crew

Take my hand
When your smile is small
The truth masked and concealed
As you stand tall

Take my hand
When your shoulders shake too
Sharing our struggles
I am not strong, but I'll be for you

Take our hands
If times are tough
Strength in numbers
Combined, there is more than enough

Take our hands
That you gave to me
Take many, take 99
Take whatever you need

And where you grow strong, I may turn weak
And when you fall, my arms will reach
Lend me your hand, fellow bros
As mine are always yours.

arms Jack Corey, we became affiliated with the University of Pittsburgh Student Organization Resource Center, but this brought about a lot of change. Beta Kappa changed terminology such as “pledges” to “new member candidates” in order to make the chapter seem more embracing. Social chair Katie McGraw coordinated a potluck where brothers were more than excited to finally see each other beyond a screen. Chapter liaisons Amanda Chiaravalle and Caroline McKenna developed three recruitment events, encouraging the incoming P1s and P2s who were unable to participate the previous year to join. The chapter liaisons ensured there would be virtual options for those who were uncomfortable with in-person events. Thanks to their hard work and our brothers’ welcoming attitude, we were able to bring in 30 new candidates!

Membership candidate educators Andrew Williams and Tina Zhang have started the new membership process by recording lectures on Google Classrooms and ensuring that each of the membership candidates are comfortable with the process. We will continue to keep checking any changes in regulations and policies and plan on adjusting accordingly. The in-person process is a new experience for many in the chapter.

The Beta Chi chapter has been hard at work. As this semester started, we had a couple of fundraising events where we cleaned up Principal Park to raise money for our chapter!

Events can be held in person and things are getting back to what we are used to! We were able to hold most of our rush events in person, with one event online. We had a great turnout and handed out 15 bids!

Pledge season has begun for our chapter, and we have hosted multiple, successful events in order to introduce both the school and our organization to our pledges. We organized a scavenger hunt around the pharmacy school to allow the pledges to orient themselves to the numerous resources, study areas, relevant offices, and cafés that will soon turn into staples in their lives as they progress through pharmacy school. We also held a tie blanket event where brothers and potential pledges alike were able to get to know each other as they made blankets to donate to a local children's hospital. Current pledges have also been assigned a "parent" who can guide them as they move through the pledging process.

Moving forward, we have various activities planned for the professional development of our brothers. A virtual roundtable is being created, where brothers on their APPE year can share tips on how to handle the stress of APPE site selection and the rigorous APPE year in general. Later, we plan to organize an internship roundtable, where those who have done internships can talk about their experiences and provide tips for the application process.

Fall provides the perfect backdrop for social activities and we plan on taking advantage of it. Activities such as apple picking, visits to a pumpkin patch, and a spooky movie night have been planned as well as hosting a tailgate party during the UW-Madison

We are thrilled to finally have the chance to be back together again AND IN PERSON! We're attending class together, meeting new pledges, going to events and happy to Mask up wherever we go. Going back to in-person classes wasn't a struggle for many at Delta Zeta, as we finally are getting to enjoy our new College of Pharmacy that opened for us in spring 2020. Just like many chapters, our brothers are finally getting back on our feet and off our computers and although we're unable to spend time together in person for Northern Plains Province assembly, we're more than grateful to be able to see our Delta Zeta brothers every day at the college.

We were SO excited to be able to welcome 16 new pledges during pledge pinning last week. We had some fantastic rush events created by our chaplain and four pledge trainers. We held an ice cream social for our first rush event. We also got to enjoy our COP's largest lecture room to grab some snacks and play trivia in teams with Iowa-themed questions. On top of this, we decided to "professionally speed date" some individuals interested in pledging while enjoying pizza at the college, grabbing some coffee at Press Coffee in Iowa City, and finished off rush by letting everyone know why we love Kappa Psi while enjoying sub sandwiches. Our pledges are in full swing creating their own philanthropy, fundraising, and social events and working hard to create a gift for the chapter!

So far this semester, we've been celebrating our brothers with Brother of the Week. Although we haven't had too many chapter meetings yet this year, we've definitely had some memorable ones. We got to have an Iowa Grad brother, Dr. Pamela Wiltfang, present to us about vaccines (and not only COVID vaccines!); her presentation was a great refresher! We had a P4 student panel to talk about rotations and we have our career roundtable with the Iowa Graduate chapter and Beta Chi coming up. We're so grateful to have such an active and helpful graduate chapter and appreciate all the time we can get with them. Our fundraising chair set up a sale of Iowa Pharmacy baseball caps to the whole college. We've been cooking meals for families staying at the Ronald McDonald House in Iowa City and are thankful to be able to help these families again as this wasn't always an option during the pandemic. We're also holding a clothing drive at the college in hopes of donating to the Iowa City Shelter House. Additionally, we've had a few social events: one including trivia at a great local dwelling and a movie night turned TV show where brothers gathered at the college to watch "Loki" and enjoy some pizza while taking a break from studying.

Our chapter was one of the top performing chapters last year! And not only did we have one, but TWO brothers who received collegiate chapter awards. Abbey Schwery, now graduated, won the Scholastic Achievement Award. P3 Brother Emily Steimel received the Member Spotlight Award for outstanding work with Kappa Psi.

We are excited to announce 10 new pledges are joining our chapter (close to one-third of the PD1 class)! This fall, we also held our Adopt-a-Beach cleanup along Lake Superior and

Time flies when you're having fun, especially when you're spending time with family. Selena Gaud, our current ritualist, has been diligent about creating events to actively engage with students who are interested in pledging Kappa Psi. We started off with a few social events, the most notable being our first-ever Coffee with Kappa Psi, followed by Pizza and Pie with Kappa Psi!

Many brothers attended Pharmacy Society of Wisconsin's (PSW) Annual Meeting and were able to spend time with graduate brothers and fourth-year brothers. It was a great experience which most of us at Zeta Theta look forward to each year. It was masterfully planned and the ability to network with preceptors and residents was invaluable. It was also just truly a great weekend to bond with brothers!

Milwaukee has an arcade bar, Up-Down, and Nathan "Croc" Schieldt, our Social Committee head, planned a trip downtown for some friendly competition and good vibes. At Up-Down, we were able to battle it out with fellow brothers at Pac-Man, Killer Queen, and Skee-Ball all while jamming to the ever-present '80s music blasting through the stereo. The only thing we needed to really complete the night was the cast of "Stranger Things" to join us. Also staying on the throwback theme, Nathan Grimmer, our Auditing Committee head, hosted a very demanding and diverse math challenge for all of us. It was a throwback to the minute tests we all had in grade school and junior high except this time with a twist—you only had 30 seconds

The Iowa Grad chapter hosted a Virtual Career Roundtable on March 24 with collegiate brothers from the Beta Chi and Delta Zeta chapters via Zoom. It featured pre-selected career path specific breakout sessions led by grad brothers. This was followed by an open forum discussion covering general professional development and tips for successfully transitioning from collegiate to graduate involvement in Kappa Psi. It was a great way to virtually connect and build more bonds with our collegiate brothers. We plan on making this a recurring event. In fact, our next Career Roundtable will be on October 4!

Next Assembly:

February 18–20, 2022

hosted by Epsilon Chi in Salt Lake City, Utah

College chapters: Beta Omicron, Beta Pi, Gamma Eta, Delta Mu, Epsilon Xi, Epsilon Pi, Epsilon Chi, Zeta Omicron

Graduate chapters: Idaho Graduate, Montana Graduate, Palouse Graduate, Portland Graduate, Seattle Graduate, Utah Graduate, Vancouver Graduate

We kicked off the autumn season with our fall Province assembly hosted by the Beta Omicron chapter in Seattle. A huge thank-you to the brothers of Beta Omicron, the Province Planning Committee as well as our Vice Satrap Alex who made this event possible. On the first night, the Province assembly started with a few social events including Four Corners and Gartic Phone (a mix of Telephone and Pictionary). Lots of laughter was shared during Gartic Phone, looking at the different drawings the brothers created. On day two, Graduate Brothers David Lee, Alex To, Dana Bojorquez, Michelle Hatchett, Steph Byrne, Johnny Wong, Justin Fernando, Isabelle Wong, and Julie Akers provided insight on their experiences as well as the profession of pharmacy during the pharmacy roundtable event. Following the roundtable, the donation stream was a huge hit which was hosted by Satrap Judy Huynh and Beta Omicron Brother Vida Ordonez. The donation stream allowed participants to buy raffle tickets to win awesome prizes such as a polaroid printer, a record player and a Bluetooth speaker! While the Province assembly was held online, Treasurer Ha Phi flew to Seattle to support the Beta Omicron brothers!

We also had our second annual Snack Attack Province-wide snack exchange. Fifty brothers participated and were matched up with a different brother to exchange a snack pack and include a card introducing themselves. Many different types of snacks were exchanged including sweets, savory snacks, and even instant coffee!

Reach Out and Read continues to be a philanthropy challenge for our Province. In addition to reading a children's book, Treasurer Ha Phi even created and illustrated her own book to share for this challenge. For our September philanthropy challenge, we encouraged brothers to enjoy the outdoors and take a break away from the stressful pharmacy. We had a total of 45 pictures submitted from 21 different brothers on their adventures outdoors. All sorts of outdoor activities were seen from hiking, jet skiing, kayaking, running, and even the Washington State Fair.

As many restrictions regarding in-person activities are lifted, we are excited to see the excitement of in-person rush and pledging events across the different collegiate chapters. We cannot wait to welcome the new brothers into our Province and to our Fraternity in these upcoming months! Hopefully, we would be able to meet everyone in person for our winter assembly.

This past summer, we worked together to host the Northwest fall Province assembly! Due to increasing concerns of the COVID-19 Delta variant, we made the last-minute switch to host an all-virtual assembly to keep our brothers healthy. It followed a retro video game theme that made us reminisce about our childhoods. To kick off the event, Brothers Nanako Miimi and Emma Wu prepared and hosted an ice breaker game called Four Corners! This innovative ice breaker utilized a Google spreadsheet that we could all connect to and answer tough questions like “how much do you agree with this statement: pineapples belong on pizza?”

On the second day of assembly, Judy Huynh and Vida Ordonez hosted a Donation YouTube Livestream! Throughout this stream, brothers from all over the Province completed fun challenges whenever we reached a donation milestone. All proceeds from this donation stream went into FPA costs and to the NWP Scholarships Fund. Big shout-outs to Hilary Pham for completing the ice bucket challenge, Catherine Mai for dancing to Blackpink’s “Kill This Love,” and Judy Huynh for creating an entire dating simulation for the grand $1,000 milestone! We also thank the Northwest Province EC Board and all of our FPA committees for their hard work and flexibility to make this assembly a success. It was touching to see brothers tune in and support one another even in these remote conditions.

As we continued to prepare for the return to campus, our chapter represented our Fraternity at the School of Pharmacy’s Farmer’s Market! This is an event dedicated to the new PY1 students to introduce all of the school’s organizations. Due to limited capacity, only Brothers Hilary Pham, Catherine Mai, and Christia Kim ran the Kappa Psi booth. However, all of our brothers who were there stopped by to show their support. We were excited to see that our Kappa Psi booth had the most traction that day! More than 60 students signed up saying they were interested to rush!

This interest continued on to our first rush event. This Informational Session was offered as a hybrid event to give students the option to attend in person or online through Zoom. Victoria Lam and Jon Nguyen both shared inspirational and heart-warming speeches about their experience with Kappa Psi to give rushees a better idea of the opportunities that await them. We had 107 rushees and brothers attend! This was a true testament to our Pillar of Fellowship that we hope the rushees will soon be able to embrace themselves.

Over the summer, we planned for the School Organizations Fair to welcome our new P1 students. Since we were doing the rush process online last year due to COVID-19, students didn't get much information about Kappa Psi. Therefore, we tried to advertise our professional Fraternity to both P1 and P2 classes. We hosted seven rush events and gave bids to the rushees who attended two rush events.

We hosted a rush event "Game Night" in September and played board games with our rushees to get to know each other. We had another rush event at the Harvest Festival at Forest Grove of our Pacific University main campus. Our brothers volunteered in multiple positions to support the event.

Brother Katherine Tran attended the fall Province assembly virtually. She said, "The fall Province assembly by Beta Omicron this year was fun and lovely. The icebreakers and activities were fun; Gartic Phone was especially hilarious! But what was most enjoyable was getting to meet and talk to other brothers. We opened the 2021–2022 school year with several in-person events including Student Orientation and the Phi Lambda Sigma Club Mixer, which helped introduce our Fraternity to the incoming students in the Pharm.D. program. It was exciting to be able to meet many new people and see who may be interested in rushing. In August, we held the "How to Survive Pharmacy School" Presentation, which was hosted by academic chair Joni Borlongan, with Pisey Lee, Erin Chiang, and Dianne Balmeo as speakers. On August 21, we held our annual Founders Day at English Springs Park in Chino Hills hosted by Erin Chiang. Many collegiate and graduate brothers attended this event where we enjoyed the Hawaiian theme, participated in outside activities, and gave out many prizes in celebration of our chapter. On August 27, we had our first pre-rush at the Western University campus where we held a mini barbecue event, played games, and got to know the potential rushees better.

We held our second pre-rush "Roundtable" where potential rushees had the chance to meet not only our collegiate brothers, but also the alumni. Everyone was able to take part in fun conversations and learn more about different careers in pharmacy. Our last event was "Life Rolls On," which is an annual event with a goal to bring paraplegics back on the surfboard to cruise and rip through the ocean waves. Vivian Luu and Stephanie Bandera volunteered to set up and assemble everything to help prepare for the big day.

Her research included investigating low dose sumac on mitochondrial driven chemoresistance in pancreatic cancer cells. With this research, they are able to test and see how sumac is able to affect pancreatic cancer cells.

Congratulations to James Alexander Domingo Lugtu for being awarded the 2021 AACP Walmart Scholar Award. James was selected for this prestigious award due to his multiple achievements at California Northstate University's College of Pharmacy. He is the first author on two original research manuscripts currently being developed and a book chapter. This is all made possible with the help and guidance of faculty member Dr. Ashim Malhotra.

The fall semester has been filled with excitement as it is rush season! During the past month, we have held two fun rush events, which were very successful due to the hard work of our regent and vice regent, Camille Anne Labuni and Ludmilla Nicov.

Just last week, we held our biggest philanthropy event of the season, the Kappa Psi Golf Tournament. This event was highly successful with five teams of players coming out to support us. We partnered with S.E.L.F. to provide a broad and sustainable approach

In addition to rotations or work, many of our brothers have also taken the opportunity this summer to hang out with our alumni brothers throughout Hawaii and several different states to eat, go hiking, or road tripping!

Our executive board has been hard at work planning our rush events, providing a strong social media presence, and participating in community service. Due to the rise of COVID-19 cases in Hawaii, we have limited large gatherings and planned virtual or distanced events instead. In September, we virtually hosted four rush events, including "Big Timed Rush," "Jackbox Party," "Mount Rush Wars," and "Meet Your Match." Since our chapter needed to take a step back from in-person events, this meant we wanted to have a stronger social media presence to aid in portraying who we are. Our social media posts have included Instagram reels representing our four pillars (Fellowship, Industry, Sobriety, and High Ideals), weekly KΨ Wednesday challenges for getting to know our brothers better, informative posts on who we are at Kappa Psi and how to be a part of our chapter, and “Brother Highlights” to feature the amazing individuals in our chapter from current brothers to alumni.

We had the opportunity to engage in community service by participating in the Kona Community Hospital Back to School Supply Drive and by submitting letters to the “Letters2OurKupuna” Initiative. Since beginning school a month ago, we have helped our elementary and middle school keiki (children) go back to school well supplied and ready to succeed, and brought joy to our kupuna (senior citizens) in Hawaii. We are fortunate that we are able to make profound differences in many lives despite the current COVID-19 restrictions.

tunate we are, our chapter has held our first get-together: Our Founders Day celebration. Founders Day was noteworthy for more reasons than one. It was not only when our chapter turned five years old, it was also the first time our fledgling Zeta Class was able to participate in an in-person Kappa Psi event. The night proved to be a great forum for rotation advice as well as an opportunity to learn more about each other.

This past month, Kappa Psi and Phi Delta Chi collaborated on a Sports Day Barbecue that was open to all our classmates, professors, and any family members who wanted to tag along. With the support of graduate brothers and faculty, we had a great time playing cornhole, soccer, volleyball, and card games. The hit of the evening was volleyball—pun very much intended. The chance for everyone to take a break from academics for some casual fun is a rare treat. Given the success of our first collaboration, Zeta Sigma intends to cooperate more with Phi Delta Chi in the future. We may be different fraternities, but we are colleagues first and foremost.

We can't let ourselves relax too much, however; our chapter has a lot of charitable, professional, and fundraising events on the horizon. We're ready to make up for lost time.

Despite still being in a pandemic, our executive board managed to find ways to engage everyone in events. With the new school year starting, we were able to come back to class in person and finally meet each other; this was especially true for the newly crossed brothers. It has been nice seeing everyone in their letters and professional clothing on designated days. A few months ago, our chaplain set up a Back-to-School Drive for the Olive Crest Foundation. Brothers helped donate school supplies, backpacks, and money to fill up backpacks for underserved kids. We were able to raise $137 worth of backpacks and supplies for the Olive Foundation site. We made sure to accommodate supplies for different age groups. The owners left a note telling us, "Thank you and bless you all," which was really heartwarming to hear. Since transitioning back to in-person classes, our board was able to hang out and enjoy each other. We had a food/boba social at Chan Chan and Orobae. Brothers were able to relax after a stressful week of school, especially since the P1s and P2s had their first integrated exam of the trimester. We look forward to hosting more events as we transition from online to in person!

With the COVID-19 pandemic waning and the number of vaccinated individuals increasing, brothers have been able to return to campus and bring back in-person activities. Rush started in September. We first had a table at the Student Showcase to meet students interested in joining. The turnout was great and it was wonderful to meet so many students new to campus. On September 17, pledge educator Lauren Esquibel hosted a Scooby-Doo rush event. Lunch from Jimmy John's was provided and we did a few icebreakers such as personal fun facts and two truths and a lie. Zeta Chi has officially welcomed 15 potential brothers in its Zeta Pledge Class. We look forward to getting to know our pledges better and eventually welcoming them into our Brotherhood!

Vice regent Danielle Ellis has been working hard this semester to develop a Med Counseling Boot Camp activity that would allow brothers to practice and improve their counseling skills.

We have done two trial runs so far and are making changes as needed to improve the process. Once perfected, we hope to collaborate with our university's other chapter in Tucson, Gamma Upsilon, to get more brothers involved. Zeta Chi is excited to launch this event and hopes it will become a biannual activity.

We are still working to get back into the swing of things considering last year was all online. Most of our executive board members are P2s and have never experienced Kappa Psi in person. We are all supporting each other through this transition, though, and greatly appreciate our P3 and P4 brothers for sharing their knowledge with us. All brothers have received a chapter-provided T-shirt this semester to wear at events, volunteering opportunities, or just around campus. Every year, we look forward to Rush Week. It is the most exciting time to get more students to join our Kappa Psi Brotherhood. This year, we were limited to having our rush events over Zoom because of the current pandemic. Our Rush Week events include, "Meeting the Gang," "Trivia Night," "Scavenger Hunt," "Roundtable," "Murder Mystery," and Cards for Kids philanthropy event. There were big turnouts for all of these events even though they were all via Zoom. The university then announced we can start having events in person; therefore, we had our interview night in person as well as our first pledging event. It was great to have alumni brothers as well as brothers on rotations come back to meet our new pledge brothers. We were able to take all safety precautions when we met in person like keeping safe distance as well as keeping our masks on throughout the events.

Pledges and brothers have worked at a food drive event hosted by "Feeding South Florida," which is a big non-profit organization that arranges food drives for homeless shelters and even animal shelters.

ΔΩ Delta Omega South University-Savannah Founded 12/10/2005 deltaomega@kappapsi.org

The brothers of Delta Omega have overcome the hardships and battles of the pandemic. We have become experts at socializing through strict protocols. We have come together as a brotherhood, combined with all the skills learned over the past year, to start off Rush Week in full force. As always, we started off with an informational meeting for the new class to get to know what Kappa Psi is all about. After the presentation, the current brothers treated the potential rushees to a sweet treat of cookies. The amount of participation from the new class left us excited and ready to take on the rest of Rush Week.

The next event was playing mini golf at a local course in Savannah. It poured down rain during most of the night. However, that did not stop the rushees' enthusiasm to get to play mini golf and interact with the brothers. After everyone was soaked, we enjoyed some pizza and socializing. The following night, it was the brothers' turn to get to know the rushees during flash rounds. The brothers got to ask anything they wanted to get to know the rushees on a deeper level.

In South Georgia, it stays hot until the end of the year. So, for our last event, the brothers got to host a pool party for the rushees. The social was complete with snacks of all sorts and loads of entertainment. Everyone loved soaking up the sun. After all the fun was had during Rush Week, our chapter is honored to have 13 pledges for the year 2021!

On July 24, we held our virtual Chapter Retreat. During this event, our brothers were able to reconnect after the summer break and brainstorm ideas and strategies for the new school year. On July 10, Dr. Harrison Britt, one of our chapter's graduate brothers, won first place in his division in the Men's Enduro Class at the 2021 USA Cycling Mountain Bike

National Championships in Winter Park, Colorado. In addition to his pharmacy career, Dr. Britt has been actively racing the BMX National Series for the last 15 years. Brothers Matthew Haas, our Immediate Past regent, Sabrina Alahmad, our Regent, and Fayola Robillard, our Secretary, had great success at the FSHP Annual Conference that was held in Orlando in August. Brother Matthew won first place in the poster presentation and Brothers Fayola and Sabrina won second place in the Quiz Bowl. We are very proud of their accomplishments, and for being positive representatives of our chapter throughout the country this summer.

In August, we welcomed the incoming class of first-year pharmacy students at LECOM -Bradenton. Brothers Sarah Stoner, Dhara Patel, and Sabrina Alahmad made special welcome bags to give to the first-year pharmacy students. Included in these bags were rulers, badge reels, pens, pencils, and study tips flyers for the first-year pharmacy students.

We are pleased to announce that Anthony Maltais was named our chapter's first Grad Brother Liaison. Anthony will be helping to facilitate communications between our chapter and the Tampa Graduate Chapter.

We held our first round of recruitment events in September. Laura Andress worked tirelessly along with our Pledge Committee to develop engaging, interactive virtual events for our first round of recruitment. These events were the Virtual Informational, Game Night, Speed Dating, and Alumni Roundtable events.

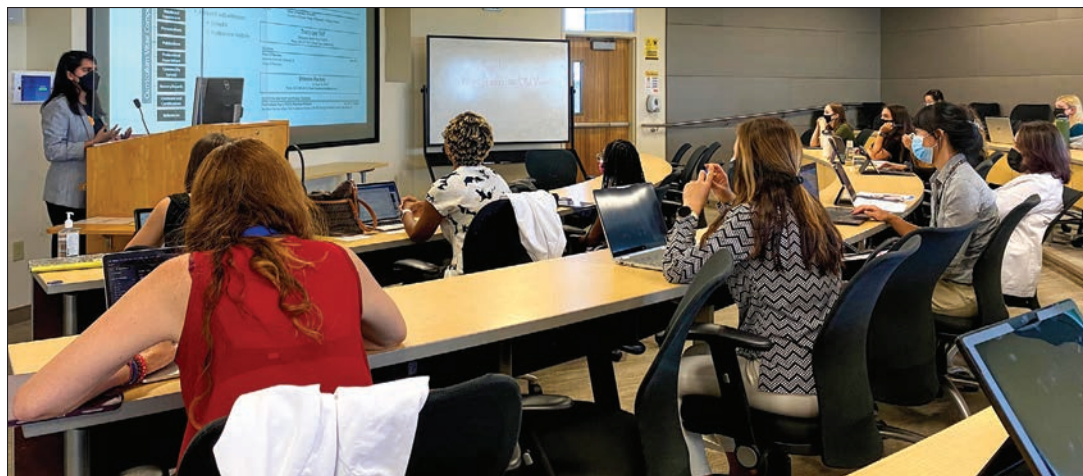

We were finally able to hold our first in-person event in over a year on September 24, and we made it an ice cream social.

Philanthropy chair Taylor Tran has been hard at work developing philanthropy and community service events for our chapter. During September, brothers participated in the Haiti Relief Drive to assist with the Haiti Earthquake Relief and raised $205.

Our Co-GCD, Dr. Victoria Reinhartz, spoke at the Atrium Health Conference on September 22-24. She discussed the topic of "Medication Issues and Patient Harm: What Are We Missing?" This topic focused on medication challenges frequently encountered by community paramedicine teams, and how the partnership between paramedics and pharmacists can help reduce medication challenges and improve clinical and financial outcomes for patients. Dr. Reinhartz has also recently been featured on several podcasts. In August, she was a guest speaker on LinkedIn RX Fridays

Epsilon Mu has had a bustling start to the year. In preparation for the school year, the brothers spent four tremendously productive nights at our annual chapter retreat in July. To garner the most attendance possible while also being cognizant of the increase in cases over the summer due to the Delta variant, the retreat took place online. Committee chairs, executive officers, and both collegiate and graduate brothers attended to discuss and establish our plans and goals for the upcoming year.

The new academic year got off to a spectacular start with our annual Welcome Back Picnic. Once screenings were completed and temperatures were checked, it was refreshing to see old and new faces under the beautiful sunshine. Students from third-years to the incoming freshman class gathered for fun and a good cause as proceeds were collected for the Florida Pharmacy Association Political Action Committee. Events at the picnic included a sponge race, hoop toss, and tug-of-war tournament. The winning team was awarded crocheted bears made by Brother Sabrina Satchfield.

Our rush events, which represented each of the four pillars of Kappa Psi, included an Info Session, Pottery and Paint, Virtual Trivia Night, CV Workshop, and 9-minute Networking event with our graduate brothers.

This has made the Rush/Pledge process more personal because we can connect better on a more personal level as opposed to being virtual last year. Although our meetings have been virtual, we can still meet during the day in between classes.

We kicked off Rush Week on September 14 with an information night where prospects were able to hear an amazing presentation by our chaplain, Jake Hancock, on what Kappa Psi is about. We held a social game night and then ended Rush Week with an industry night, where we had guest speakers attend to speak about their roles in our chapter and how they overcame certain obstacles because of the strength Kappa Psi has given them as brothers. We had guest speakers Dr. Anthony Allen Reeves, Dr. Marvin Smith, Dr. Alexis Gonzalez, Dr. Brittney Romer, and Dr. Jessica Senderkis. The panelist of brothers provided useful information on their professional experiences, tips on applying for residencies and fellowships, career pathway options, roadblocks and hurdles along the way, the essence of brotherhood, and several other topics. We are happy to announce that Zeta Phi has eight new pledges!

Our chapter hosted a philanthropy event where we got our school to donate school supplies for the less fortunate. We are working on a video to host assembly and be able to meet more brothers across the board. We are really looking forward to this!

We were able to hold many exciting events and socials with new P1s, alumni, our faculty, and actives. One of these events included the Game Night on campus, where we enjoyed fun activities, such as Toss the Candy, For Whom the Bell Tolls, Jenga, and more.

Our Alumni Barbecue was one of the most exciting events we've held this semester. It had to be postponed in 2020 due to the pandemic. We invited first-year pharmacy students and Delta Delta alumni to mingle, play sand volleyball, catch up on old times, and eat barbecue grilled by the pledge team. Regardless of their busy schedules, several of our alumni took time out of their day to join us and relax for the evening. The turnout this event had was amazing and we cannot wait to have it again next year!

Besides rush events, our chapter, provided academic support to the new P1s through review sessions for physiology and biochemistry classes. These sessions helped the new students prepare for the upcoming tests and provided helpful study tips.

Delta Pi has been slowly returning to some in-person events such as our Palo Duro Canyon hike and Skate Plex Night. We've also been given approval for rush and pledging events to be in person, providing the proper safety protocols are in place. Zoom is still being used for certain applications as many of our brothers are scattered across various campuses within our school system, allowing us all to stay in contact and up to date on what is occurring on the main campus. Some of us have also been in contact with our newest sister chapter in Dallas, lending our knowledge and experiences to the fledgling chapter.

Currently, our greatest project is the planning of Southwest Province which is our chapter's responsibility this year. We've currently been going through many iterations of plans and hope to make this year's assembly as enjoyable and educational as possible. We hope to see our fellow brothers from across the nation there.

We have been excited to start the new school year in person instead of virtually, but all our events must adhere to strict COVID safety guidelines enforced by our school to ensure the overall safety of every attendee.

Our chapter started the semester with a meet-and-greet for the incoming P1's. This year is a bit different from our previous years because our chapter decided to incorporate a theme we would stick to for the entire year. Our theme for this year is "Up." There were three main reasons as to why we chose Up to be our theme: (1) The balloons used to lift Mr. Fredrickson's home in the movie each represent a brother. Just like a balloon, we can rely on our brothers to constantly "lift us up," especially during times of trials and obstacles. (2) In the movie, Mr. Fredrickson formed an unexpected friendship with Russell, a young Wilderness Explorer; Doug, a talking dog; and Kevin, a rare bird. The bond they formed immediately spoke volumes to us because that's exactly what it is like to be a brother of Kappa Psi. In our Fraternity, anyone is welcome. (3) Carl and Ellie Fredrickson owned an adventure book! And we know a thing or two about owning and caring for a book ... our KΨ book.

During our Interest Meeting, we wanted to showcase our theme by having a mini balloon parade! In this parade, each brother is holding a balloon. It was a fun and interactive experience for both the brothers and rushees, all the while symbolic.

Vice regent of pledging Nikala Royal, plans to host five rush events for the fall semester and one in the spring. For fall, we have Karaoke Night, The Merger, Minute-to-Halloween It, Brother Bingo, and Kappa Psi on Ice. Karaoke proved to be an incredible success with brothers singing alongside rushees! The Merger was a collaboration with Phi Delta Chi. For this rush event, we had attendees complete team building, outdoor activities such as tug-of-war, relay race, and an obstacle course. Working with PDC depicted that we can collaborate with each other despite being in different fraternities.

Current Delta Delta actives, alumni, and PIs work together to solve the puzzle game "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

September 17, 2021, marked the 12th anniversary of the passing of our Brother Michael Gres. Michael was a founding brother of Epsilon Beta chapter at the Feik School of Pharmacy, and we honor him yearly with a Brother of the Year Award. Our GCD, Brother Dr. Cuevas, once said, "What I remember most is the positive attitude and smile Mike brought to Kappa Psi."

As a top performing graduate chapter, the brothers of DFW Grad pride ourselves in staying plugged in with one another and with the community. Soon after the Executive Committee officer elections in June, we had our first in-person outdoor social gathering since the start of the COVID-19 pandemic. The afternoon was filled with food, friends, family, and lots of fun! Our brothers also had a great time participating in the Southwest Province's virtual Karaoke Night social in August. Lastly, DFW Grad was thrilled to participate in the North Texas Giving Day again this year. We were able to donate $200 to Meals on Wheels of Tarrant County!

Over the last few months, Denver Grad has been trying to get together while the weather is nice. We were able to meet with the brothers from Zeta Eta and a brother from Beta Xi to watch the Colorado Rockies play baseball. We had a lot of fun hanging out together and catching up. Brothers are excited to reunite again soon and to do more activities with Zeta Eta in the next few months.

60th Grand Council Convention Phoenix, Arizona July 17-21, 2022

During meetings in late 2020, the International Executive Committee learned that, due to social distancing restrictions, the maximum in-person capacity would be reduced by two-thirds in the largest ballroom space if GCC were held in 2021. Facing a variety of concerns for a one delegate per chapter event, they explored various options and made the decision to postpone the 60th Grand Council Convention to July 2022. The 60th Grand Council Convention site will be at the Arizona Grand Resort in Phoenix. Mark your calendars now for one big family reunion of Kappa Psi nation!
